CONTENTS

Part I Explaining Security 1

1 Security and Ideology 3
Rasmus Ugilt

2 Who Really Defines National Security? 19
Lawrence Davidson

3 Anachronistic Research in International Relations and Security Studies 29
Jaap H. de Wilde

4 The American Nuclear Warfare State 41
Carl Boggs

Part II Facing and Fighting Threats 59

5 A New Frontier in US National Security Policymaking: State and Local Governments 61
Louise Stanton

Rethinking security in the twenty-first century

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

6 Imperial Hubris and the Security of the Middle East, 1979–2016 77
James E. Jennings

7 Sovereignty and Security: 9/11, the Arab Spring, and ISIS 93
Edwin Daniel Jacob

8 Protection from Whom? Tensions, Contradictions, and Potential in the Responsibility to Protect 105
Douglas Irvin-Erickson

Part III Cosmopolitan Visions 125

9 Fostering Global Security 127
Amentahru Wahlrab

10 Mainstreaming Atrocity 143
Kjell Anderson

11 Democracy and Stability? US Foreign Policy Post-Arab Spring 157
Dalia Fahmy

Part IV Emergent Threats 167

12 Human Mobility and Security 169
Alexandria J. Innes

13 Ecological Security 183
Peter Hough

14 Legality of the Modern Modes of Warfare: The Case of Drones 195
Ashutosh Misra

15 Duties to Defend: Ethical Challenges of Cyber-Defense 209
Adam Henschke

Part V New Horizons 223

16 State Security, Human Security, and the Problem of Complementarity 225
Richard E. Rubenstein

17 Victim Mentality and Violence: Anatomy of a Relationship 245
Jean-Marc Coicaud

18 Rethinking Security Education 265
Katherine Worboys Izsak

19 Neoconservatism: A Death Prematurely Foretold? 279
Michael McKoy

Index 289