

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments, ix

Introduction	1
1 The Captive Sultan: Operatic Transfigurations of the Ottoman Menace after the Siege of Vienna	13
2 The Generous Turk: Captive Christians and Operatic Comedy in Paris	51
3 The Triumphant Sultana: Suleiman and His Operatic Harem	79
4 The Turkish Subjects of Gluck and Haydn: Comic Opera in War and Peace	108
5 Osmin in Vienna: Mozart's Abduction and the Centennial of the Ottoman Siege	146
6 "To honor the Emperor": Pasha Selim and Emperor Joseph in the Age of Enlightened Absolutism	188
7 The Ottoman Adventures of Rossini and Napoleon: Kaimacacchi and Missipipi at La Scala	227
8 Pappataci and Kaimakan: Reflections in a Mediterranean Mirror	250
9 An Ottoman Prince in the Romantic Imagination: The Libertine Adventures of Rossini's Turkish Traveler	283
10 Maometto in Naples and Venice: The Operatic Charisma of the Conqueror	305
11 Rossini's Siege of Paris: Ottoman Subjects in the French Restoration	337
12 The Decline and Disappearance of the Singing Turk: Ottoman Reform, the Eastern Question, and the European Operatic Repertory	359
Conclusion	389

Notes, 407 Index, 461