

Contents

INTRODUCTION	5
Significant arrivals strain domestic asylum systems	5
EU and Member States' activities touching on fundamental rights	7
1 REDUCING RISK: STRENGTHENING SAFETY AND FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE	9
Opening legal avenues for reaching the EU	10
Combating smuggling without criminalising migrants and those who help them	11
Controlling onward travel without excessively limiting free movement in the EU	12
Fundamental rights to guide the way forward	13
2 PREVENTING REFOULEMENT AND COLLECTIVE EXPULSION	15
Addressing the fundamental rights impact of new migration management measures	15
Operationalising non-refoulement in the presence of fences	17
Fundamental rights to guide the way forward	17
3 BUILDING A RIGHTS-COMPLIANT ASYLUM SYSTEM	19
Finding adequate housing	20
Preventing sexual and gender-based violence	22
Addressing the specific needs of children	22
Taking fingerprints while complying with fundamental rights	23
Sharing responsibility	24
Addressing unfounded applications without undermining fairness	25
Fundamental rights to guide the way forward	25
4 RETURNING MIGRANTS IN AN IRREGULAR SITUATION WHILE FULLY RESPECTING FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS	27
Supporting fundamental rights compliance in practice	27
Addressing the rights of persons who cannot be removed	27
Responding to the healthcare needs of migrants in an irregular situation	28
Avoiding unlawful or arbitrary immigration detention	29
Monitoring of forced returns	30
Fundamental rights to guide the way forward	30
FRA OPINIONS	31
ENDNOTES	34