

Table of Contents

| | | |
|--|-------|-----|
| Preface | | 9 |
| Introduction | | 11 |
| 1 Prosody and Metre | | 15 |
| 1.1 Rhyme | | 16 |
| 1.2 Rhythm | | 20 |
| 1.3 Metre, Language Structure and the Choice of Words..... | | 23 |
| 1.4 Performance..... | | 29 |
| 1.5 Close Reading: Philip Sidney's "Loving in Truth" | | 30 |
| 2 Syntax | | 41 |
| 2.1 Rule-Abiding | | 42 |
| 2.2 Rule-Adding | | 45 |
| 2.3 Rule-Stretching..... | | 48 |
| 2.4 Rule-Breaking and Rule-Changing..... | | 52 |
| 2.5 Close Reading: John Wain's "Poem Without a Main Verb" | | 59 |
| 3 Meaning: Metaphor and Metonymy | | 65 |
| 3.1 The Structure of Metaphor..... | | 66 |
| 3.1.1 Transfer of Meaning..... | | 66 |
| 3.1.2 What Kind of Transfer?..... | | 67 |
| 3.2 From Novel to Conventional | | 75 |
| 3.3 Related Phenomena | | 79 |
| 3.4 Recent Linguistic Studies | | 83 |
| 3.5 Literary Metaphor..... | | 85 |
| 3.6 Close Reading: Ciaran Carson's "Belfast Confetti" | | 89 |
| 4 Irony | | 95 |
| 4.1 Components of Irony | | 97 |
| 4.1.1 Two Messages: What Is Said Explicitly and What Is Meant | | 97 |
| 4.1.2 The Role of Context in Comprehension | | 97 |
| 4.1.3 Relationship between What Is Said and What Is Meant | | 99 |
| 4.2 Choice of the Explicit Proposition..... | | 100 |

| | | |
|--------------|---|------------|
| 4.3 | Participants | 102 |
| 4.4 | Functions of Irony | 103 |
| 4.5 | Forms of Non-Verbal Irony | 104 |
| 4.6 | Summary: Types of Irony..... | 107 |
| 4.7 | Close Reading: Shakespeare and Swift | 107 |
| 5 | Narration, Deixis and the Creation of Perspectives | 115 |
| 5.1 | Narration as a Speech Activity | 115 |
| 5.2 | Levels and Variables in Narration | 126 |
| 5.2.1 | Types of Narrators..... | 128 |
| 5.2.2 | Focalization and Focalizers | 136 |
| 5.3 | Context-Dependent Language Use | 136 |
| 5.3.1 | Deixis | 137 |
| 5.3.2 | Other Context-Dependent Expressions | 138 |
| 5.3.2 | Subjective Language-Use..... | 140 |
| 5.4 | Indicators of Perspective | 141 |
| 5.4.1 | ‘Logophors’ | 141 |
| 5.4.2 | Non-Declarative Sentences | 142 |
| 5.4.3 | Parentheticals | 143 |
| 5.5 | Contextual Conditions for the Creation of Perspectives | 145 |
| 5.6 | Reported Speech | 145 |
| 5.7 | Represented Thought..... | 148 |
| 5.8 | Perception..... | 149 |
| 5.9 | Close Reading: Joyce..... | 150 |
| 5.10 | Temporal Structures | 155 |
| 5.11 | Meta-Narration and Metafiction | 159 |
| 6 | Conversational Interaction and Dramatic Speech..... | 167 |
| 6.1 | Speaking as Acting: Speech Act Theory | 169 |
| 6.1.1 | Fundamentals | 169 |
| 6.1.2 | Speech Act Recognition (Action Ascription)..... | 172 |
| 6.1.3 | One Utterance – Several Speech Acts | 175 |
| 6.1.4 | Conversational Inferences | 178 |
| 6.1.5 | Sequences of Speech Acts | 183 |
| 6.2 | The Communication Situation of Drama..... | 188 |
| 6.2.1 | Participants and Audience | 188 |
| 6.2.2 | Monologue and Dialogue | 192 |
| 6.2.3 | The Body as an Instrument for Communication..... | 198 |

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| 7 | Intertextuality..... | 209 |
| 7.1 | Creative Language Use..... | 211 |
| 7.2 | Formulaic Speech | 215 |
| 7.3 | Interaction and Transition..... | 219 |
| 7.4 | Intertextuality and Literary Analysis | 221 |
| 8 | Heteroglossia and Literature..... | 235 |
| 8.1 | Heteroglossia | 235 |
| 8.2 | Diglossia – Language Contact – Bilingualism – Code-Switching | 236 |
| 8.3 | Effects in the History of English Literature..... | 238 |
| 8.4 | Heteroglossia in Shakespeare | 240 |
| 8.5 | Varieties and Social Differentiation | 244 |
| 8.6 | Literary Heteroglossia | 247 |
| 8.6.1 | Heteroglossia from Early Modernism to (Post-)Colonialism | 249 |
| 8.6.2 | Between Languages..... | 251 |
| 8.6.3 | Heteroglossia and the Notion of National Literature..... | 253 |