

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .....	ix
Introduction .....	1
Chapter One.....	15
Rewriting Histories
Fighting Crime in Times of War: Detective Fiction's Visions             and Revisions of Fascism (Luca Somigli)
Unearthing Collusions: the Socio-Political Dimension of Crime             in the Conspiracy Novel (Mark Chu and Marco Amici)
Chapter Two .....	71
Gendering the Genre: Female-Authored Crimes and Crime Novels
Fiorella Cagnoni and Francesca Duranti's Female Circles: Value(s)             (f)or Money. Or Ethics (f)or Cash
Historical Settings Voicing Contemporary Concerns: the Perfectible             Female in Claudia Salvatori's Sublime anima di donna
Chapter Three .....	109
Incriminating Families
Society and Family Politics in Laura Grimaldi's Trilogy Perfide storie             di famiglia
Mothers, Daughters, Sisters: Resisting Desire and Individuation in             Barbara Garlaschelli's Alice nell'ombra and Sorelle
"Mamma Roma"? The Eternal City as Domestic Chaos in Melania             Mazzucco's Un giorno perfetto
Chapter Four .....	173
Seen from Within: Judges, Lawyers and Policemen Authors of Crime Fiction
Mythopoietically Noir: Gianrico Carofiglio Towards a New             Mythology of Justice
The Prosecutor's Take: Domenico Cacopardo's Agrò Series

Conclusions .....	211
Works Cited.....	215
Index .....	227