

CONTENTS

PREFACE	7
INTRODUCTION: A VIEW OF POETRY AND CRITICAL ANALYSIS	9
PRECONCEPTIONS	9
POETRY: 1. Definition of a poem – 2. Its individual structure: a static whole and a dynamic whole – 3. The speaker and point of view – 4. Language: the speaker's parole ; reflection of qualities of the phenomena presented; aesthetic qualities; the weight of traditional meanings; exploration of the inarticulate and unexplored – 5. The poem as a word microcosm – 6. An ordered view of reality – 7. Influence – 8. Scales of value –	11
CRITICAL ANALYSIS: 1. The initial encounter – 2. Successive stages of systematized analysis – 3. Explanation and elucidation – 4. Assimilation – 5. Evaluative judgment –	23
THE SIGNIFICANCE OF CRITICAL ANALYSIS: 1. Mediating function – 2. Adoption of close reading and close textual analysis on the part of the reader – 3. The number of possible interpretations	27
1. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE, Sonnet 18	31
I. The "Shakespearian Sonnet" and the tradition of the genre	31
II. The edition and dedication of the texts	32
III. The poem	35
2. JOHN MILTON, When I consider	41
I. Milton and the tradition of the sonnet form	41
II. The place of When I consider in Milton's life	44
III. The poem	48
IV. What can be deduced from the fact that no title was given to this sonnet?	58
V. What in Milton's sonnet is Puritan?	59
3. WILLIAM BLAKE, The Tyger	63
I. The place of the poem in Blake's work	64
II. The poem	65
III. The poet and the immortal blacksmith	80

CONTENTS

4. WILLIAM WORDSWORTH, Composed upon Westminster Bridge, September 3, 1802	85
I. The occasion for the composition of this sonnet	85
II. The poem	87
III. London about 1800	92
IV. The poem and other descriptions of the capital the poet gave before 1802	94
V. What in the poem is typical of Wordsworth's poetic style?	98
5. JOHN KEATS, To Autumn	101
I. The genesis of the poem	102
II. Keats and the form of the ode	104
III. The poem	106
IV. Is this ode merely a "picture and no more", "an almost completely impersonal poem" (Amy Lowell)?	115
6. GERARD MANLEY HOPKINS, Pied Beauty	122
I. Hopkins as poet and priest	122
II. The place of Pied Beauty in his poetry	126
III. The poem	127
IV. Hopkins's innovations	138
7. WILFRED OWEN, Futility	145
I. The poem	145
II. Owen's experience of the First World War and his poetry	156
8. WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS, Sailing to Byzantium	161
I. The composition of Sailing to Byzantium	162
II. The poem	164
III. The two Byzantiums in Yeats's work	186
9. T. S. ELIOT, Journey of the Magi	189
I. The poem	190
II. The personal background	219
10. W. H. AUDEN, Musée des Beaux Arts	223
I. The poem	224
II. What knowledge about the paintings alluded to should the reader of the poem possess?	237