

Contents

Taiwan: Self vs. Other

Isabelle Cheng

Which Team Do You Support? Situating the In-between Identity of Immigrant Women in Taiwan 5

Lara Momesso

From Someone, to No-one, to a New-one: A Subjective View of Taiwan's Immigration Policies in the Context of Multiculturalism 24

Feng-yi Chu

Benevolent Self vs. Malignant Other: The East-West Antagonistic Narrative of Taiwanese People's Chinese Identity 37

Ek-hong Ljavakaw Sia

Crafting the Taiwanese Nation: Exclusivist and Inclusivist Theses of the Post-war Taiwanese Nationalism 56

Jens Sejrup

One or the Other: Synecdoche and Representation in Taiwan-Japan Controversies 85

Barbora Platzerova

Bigamy in Chinese Law in the 20th Century: Conflict between Laws and Special Cases of Bigamy 105

Jens Damm

The Contemporary Political and Public Discourse on the Xinhai Revolution in Taiwan in the Context of the Centennial Celebration of the ROC 122

Conference Reports / Konferenzberichte

China's International Relations in Historical Perspective, Konfuzius-Institut an der Freien Universität Berlin. 27.-28. November (Ryenne Flock) 140

International Workshop China Studies in a Global Context, Konfuzius-Institut an der Freien Universität Berlin. 16.-17. Oktober 2015 (Susanne Kuß) 141

Notes on Contributors 146