

CONTENTS

Part I	The Balkans and the Creation of the Cold War Order	1
1	Greece and the Birth of Containment: An American Perspective	3
	John O. Iatrides
2	Stalin, the Split with Yugoslavia, and Soviet–East European Efforts to Reassert Control, 1948–53	29
	Mark Kramer
3	From Regional Role to Global Undertakings: Yugoslavia in the Early Cold War	65
	Svetozar Rajak
Part II	Military Alliances and the Balkans	87
4	The Puzzle of the Heretical: Yugoslavia in NATO Political Analysis, 1951–72	89
	Evanthis Hatzivassiliou

5	Between Global and Regional Cold Wars: Turkey's Search to Harmonize Its Security Engagements in the 1950s Ayşegül Sever	109
6	The Warsaw Pact in the Balkans: The Bulgarian Perspective Jordan Baev	129
Part III	Uneasy Relations with the Superpowers	149
7	The Balkan Challenge to the Warsaw Pact, 1960–64 Laurien Crump	151
8	'We Did Not Quarrel, We Did Not Curse': The Price of Yugoslav Independence After the Soviet Intervention in Czechoslovakia Ivo Banac	173
9	The US, the Balkans and Détente, 1963–73 Effe G.H. Pedaliu	197
Part IV	Balkan Dilemmas in the 1970s and 1980s and the 'Significant Other': The EEC	219
10	The Only Game in Town? EEC, Southern Europe and the Greek Crisis of the 1970s Eirini Karamouzi	221
11	Under the Shadow of the Soviet Union: The EEC, Yugoslavia and the Cold War in the Long 1970s Benedetto Zaccaria	239

12 Balkan Dilemmas in the 1970s and 1980s: A Point of No Return?	261
Konstantina E. Botsiou
Part V Identity, Culture, Ideology	283
13 Yugoslavia: The 1950 Cultural and Ideological Revolution	285
Miroslav Perišić
14 The Fusion of Regional and Cold War Problems: The Macedonian Triangle Between Greece, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia, 1963–80	307
Spyridon Sfetas
15 Cutting Through the Cold War: The EEC and Turkey's Great Westernization Debate	331
Mehmet Döşemeci
Part VI Conclusions	353
16 The Balkans: A Cold War Mystery	355
Odd Arne Westad
Index	363