

Contents

Part I Human Being

1 A Two- and Threefold Self	3
Introduction	3
The Basic Problem	3
Being and to Be	4
The Self	5
Why Neurologically Do We Behave and Experience as We Do?	7
The Relationship Between the Subjective and Neural Self.....	10
What or Who Is the Self and What Is Its Function?.....	14
Clinical Neuroscientific Studies	14
Frégoli and Capgras Syndromes.....	14
Discussion	15
Experimental Neuroscientific Studies	16
Face Recognition.....	16
Meditation	18
The Function of the Self.....	18
The Three-Fold Self	21
Conclusion.....	22
2 The Human Experiencer	23
Introduction	23
In Search for the sine qua non of Human Being	23
The Realness of Experiences.....	27
Concept, Conception and Conceiving	27
Experiences of Ultimate Reality.....	31
Near-Death Experiences.....	33
Justifying Experiences.....	38
Modus Operandi for an Epistemic Theory of Justified Belief.....	40
Modus Operandi for a Non-epistemic Theory of Justified Belief	41
Conclusion.....	41

3 Human Uniqueness	43
Introduction	43
Social Animals.....	44
Criteria for Being a Social Animal.....	44
Are All Animals Social Animals?.....	45
Self-Identity and Group-Identity	46
Intentionality and Collective Intentionality.....	48
Collective Intentionality	49
Institutional Animals	52
The Underpinning Evolutionary Mechanisms	52
Artificial Intelligence.....	54
Thinking Computers.....	55
Philosophical Opposition	55
Neural Networks.....	57
Humanoids, Androids and Humans.....	58
Conclusion.....	60
Conclusion Part I.....	61
 Part II The World
4 Understanding Reality	67
Introduction	67
Reality and Realism	68
Metaphysical – and Anti-realism – Internal Realism.....	68
Extended Realism.....	71
Naturalism	76
Ontological Naturalism	77
Methodological Naturalism.....	79
Epistemological Naturalism	79
Supernaturalism.....	80
Adequate Type(s) of Naturalism	81
Minimalistic Ontological Naturalism and Extended or Flexible Ontological Naturalism.....	81
Conclusion.....	82
5 Mindreading	83
Introduction	83
First- and Third-Person Mindreading.....	83
Empathy	84
The Mirror Neuron System	87
The Neurology of the Mirror Neuron Theory	87
The Closed Mirror Neuron View.....	90
The Open Mirror Neuron View	92
Discussion	93

Compassion	96
The Anti-compassion View	97
The Pro-compassion View.....	98
Discussion	100
Conclusion.....	104
6 Free Will, Responsibility and Moral Evil.....	107
Introduction	107
The Problem of Evil	108
Moral Evil	110
Coercive Psychological Methods	114
Neurology and Moral Action.....	117
Human Actions and Responsibility	118
Conclusion.....	120
7 Human Time	123
Introduction	123
Experiencing Time	124
Newton Time	126
Einsteinian Time.....	128
Quantum Time.....	128
The Measurement Problem	129
Conclusion.....	132
Conclusion Part II.....	132
 Part III God
8 God-Human-God Relationship	139
Introduction	139
Models of Atheism	140
Models of God.....	141
God’s Action in the World.....	145
Atemporal Divine Actions in a Temporal World.....	149
Divine Action in the World.....	155
The Ontological Creative Act.....	156
Panentheism	157
Conclusion.....	163
9 Final Conclusions and Reflections.....	167
 Bibliography.....	 175