

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Part I The Indigenous, Colonial, and Imperial Legacy	11
1 Mining Women, Royal Slaves: Copper Mining in Colonial Cuba, 1670–1780 María Elena Díaz	21
2 Making a Difference in Colonial Interventionism in Gold Mining in Wassa Fiase, Gold Coast (Ghana): The Activism of Two Women, 1874–1893 Kwabena O. Akurang-Parry	40
3 Lifting the Layers of the Mountain’s Petticoats: Mining and Gender in Potosí’s Pachamama Pascale Absi	58
4 Kamins Building the Empire: Class, Caste, and Gender Interface in Indian Collieries Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt	71
Part II Engendered Bodies and the Masculinization of the Mining Industry: Separate Spheres and the Role of Women in Mining, the Mining Household, and Community, 1800–1940	89
5 Sociability, Solidarity, and Social Exclusion: Women’s Activism in the South Wales Coalfield, ca. 1830 to 1939 Rosemary Jones	96
6 Gender Relations in Iron Mining Communities in Sweden, 1900–1940 Eva Blomberg	119
7 Invisible Labor: A Comparative Oral History of Women in Coal Mining Communities of Hokkaido, Japan, and Montana, USA, 1890–1940 Kayoko Yoshida and Reiko Miyauchi	136

8	Coal Mining Women Speak Out: Economic Change and Women Miners of Chikuho, Japan Sachiko Sone	153
Part III Gender, Mining Communities, and Labor Protests, 1900–1960		171
9	“I’m a Johnny Mitchell Man”: Gender and Labor Protest in the Pennsylvania Hard Coal Uprising, 1900–1902 Bonnie Stepenoff	181
10	Violence and the Colorado National Guard: Masculinity, Race, Class, and Identity in the 1913–1914 Southern Colorado Coal Strike Anthony DeStefanis	195
11	“I Hate to Be Calling Her a Wife Now”: Women and Men in the Salt of the Earth Strike, 1950–1952 Ellen Baker	213
12	Godless Communists and Faithful Wives, Gender Relations and the Cold War: Mine Mill and the 1958 Strike against the International Nickel Company Mercedes Steedman	233
Part IV The Division of Mining Labor Revisited: Cultures of Solidarity, Deindustrialization, and the Globalized Economy, 1945–2005		255
13	Just a Housewife? Miners’ Wives between Household and Work in Postwar Germany Yong-Sook Jung	262
14	Women into Mining Jobs at Inco: Challenging the Gender Division of Labor Jennifer Keck and Mary Powell	280
15	From Ludlow to Camp Solidarity: Women, Men, and Cultures of Solidarity in U.S. Coal Communities, 1912–1990 Camille Guerin-Gonzales	296
Epilogue Mining Women Find a Voice: Working Class and Environmental Feminism in the Twenty-First Century Jaclyn J. Gier		325
Bibliography		335
Contributors		345
Index		349