

CONTENTS

Series Foreword	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Note on Transliteration	xv
Introduction	1
Chapter 1 Nakba
Narrating the Nakba: History, Testimony and Re-Membering	18
Form and Function in Arabic Literature: Realism
and the Nation	23
Samira Azzam	34
Ghassan Kanafani's Pioneering Modernism	57
Chapter 2 Naksa
Nakba to Naksa	75
The Palestinians and the Rise and Fall of Pan-Arabism	76
Refugees to Revolutionaries: Palestinian Identity of
Resistance and its Antecedents	82
The Reclamation of Dignity and the Battle of Karama	89
Commitment to Resistance	91
Ghassan Kanafani's 'An al-rijāl wa-al-banādiq	96
Resistance and its Discontents: Yahya Yakhliif's
Nūrmā wa rajul al-thalj	114
Internal Resistance and the Gender Politics of Patriarchy
and Modernism: Liana Badr's 'Anā urīd al-nahār'	128

Chapter 3 Intifada

The Intifada and Palestine Studies: Emergence of a Field 137

Prophecy or Perception? Ibrahim Nasrallah's Al-Amwāj al-barriyya 142Women, Exile and the Intifada in Liana Badr's Jahīm dhababī 171

Conclusion 196

Notes 204*Bibliography* 229*Index* 239