Contents

List of Illustrations ix

1 An Overview of the History of Economic Ideas 1
Why Study the History of Economic Ideas? 1
A Very Brief Summary of 2,000 Years of Economic Ideas 3
Notes 23
References 23
Suggestions for Further Reading and Online Resources 24

2 The Ethical Foundations of Economics 28
Chapter Overview 28
The Idea of Justice in Ancient Economic Thought 30
Ethics and Economics in the Scholastic Tradition 32
Adam Smith's Moral Philosophy 34
Utilitarianism in Modern Economics 37
Modern Welfare Economics: Pareto Efficiency and Social Welfare 39
The Ethical Perspectives of Rawls and Sen 42
Insights from Behavioral and Experimental Economics 43
Chapter Conclusion 45
Questions for Review and Discussion 45
Notes 46
References 47

3 Property Rights from Plato to the 21st Century 49
Chapter Overview 49
Theories of Property Rights in the Ancient World 51

The Idea of Property in the Middle Ages 54
Property Rights in the Age of Enlightenment and Classical Economics 56
Karl Marx's Challenge to the Private Property System 64
Modern Perspectives on Property Rights 67
Chapter Conclusion 70
Questions for Review and Discussion 70
Notes 71
References 71

4 The Emergence of Modern Price Theory 74
Chapter Overview 74
Aristotle's Legacy: Justice in Exchange 75
Just Price in the Roman Law Tradition 77
The Just Price Concept in Scholastic Economic Thought 78
Pre-Classical Theories of Value: Petty, Cantillon, and the Physiocrats 84
The Labor Theory of Value in Classical Economics 85
The Marginalist Revolution 95
Toward Modern Price Theory: Alfred Marshall's Synthesis 100
Chapter Conclusion 104
Questions for Review and Discussion 104
Notes 105
References 105

5 Money, Lending, and Interest 108
Chapter Overview 108
Money and Usury in the Ancient Scholarship 110
Money and Interest in Early Islamic and Christian Scholarship 111
The Changing Perspectives of the 16th Century 116
Usury in Classical Economic Thought 119
Chapter Conclusion 122
Questions for Review and Discussion 122
Notes 123
References 123

6 Public Finance in Historical Perspective 126
Chapter Overview 126
Taxation and Justice in the Ancient World 127
Seventeenth-Century Perspectives 129
The Physiocrats and "L'Impôt Unique" 130
Perspectives on Debt and Taxation in Classical Economics 131
Late 19th-Century Perspectives: Knut Wicksell and Henry George 145

The Keynesian Revolution: New Perspectives on Government Borrowing and Taxation 147
The Theory of Optimal Taxation: From Ramsey to Mirrlees 148
The Flat Tax, the Negative Income Tax, and the National Sales Tax 151
Chapter Conclusion 153
Questions for Review and Discussion 154
Notes 155
References 156

7 Depressing Thoughts—Theories of Recessions and Depressions 158
Chapter Overview 158
Pre-Classical Theories of Business Cycles 161
The Classical Theory of Recessions 165
The Economics of Business Cycles Before Keynes: Wicksell and Fisher 171
The Keynesian Revolution 172
The IS-LM Model 176
Countering Keynes: The Austrians and the Monetarists 178
New Keynesians and New Classicals 180
Chapter Conclusion 185
Questions for Review and Discussion 186
Notes 186
References 187

8 Economic Growth Theory in Historical Perspective 190
Chapter Overview 190
Classical Economic Growth Theory 191
Economic Growth as an Evolutionary Process 197
Modern Growth Theory: From Harrod-Domar to Endogenous Growth 198
Chapter Conclusion 204
Questions for Review and Discussion 204
Notes 205
References 205

9 The History of International Trade Theory 207
Chapter Overview 207
Trade Theory in Pre-Classical Economics 208
Mercantilist Trade Doctrine 209
Classical Theories of International Trade 211
Extensions of the Classical Model: Heckscher-Ohlin, Stolper-Samuelson, and the New Trade Theory 218
Empirical Evidence: International Trade and Economic Development 222

Chapter Conclusion 223
Questions for Review and Discussion 224
Notes 225
References 226

10 Population, Environmental, and Resource Issues in Historical Perspective 228
Chapter Overview 228
Malthusian Population Theory 229
Modern Versions of the Malthusian Theory 231
The Stationary State and the Value of Environmental Amenities 233
William Stanley Jevons and the Coal Question 236
Marshall, Pigou, and the Economics of Externalities 237
The Coase Theorem 240
The Economics of Common Pool Resources 244
Chapter Conclusion 245
Questions for Review and Discussion 245
Notes 246
References 246

Index 248