

Contents

Acknowledgments IX

Introduction 1

- 1 Major Trends in Modern Hermeneutics 10
 - Introduction 10
 - Key Terms 11
 - Key Figures in the History of Hermeneutics 14
 - Three Approaches to Hermeneutics 28
 - The Hermeneutical Implications at Work in the Neo-Scholastic Treatment of Theological Notes 35
 - Concluding Remarks 39
- 2 Karl Rahner's Ecclesiology as a Resource for Sullivan's Doctrinal Hermeneutics 41
 - Rahner on Revelation 43
 - Rahner on the Magisterium 50
 - Rahner on Dogmatic Statements 54
 - Rahner on the Development of Doctrine 58
 - Rahner's Multidimensional Approach to Doctrinal Hermeneutics 63
 - Concluding Remarks 70
- 3 Francis A. Sullivan's Method: An Asset for Our Times 71
 - Sullivan on Revelation 72
 - Sullivan on the Magisterium 75
 - Sullivan on Dogmatic Statements 78
 - Sullivan on the Development of Doctrine 82
 - Sullivan's Five-Fold Method of Interpretation 86
 - The International Theological Commission's Text On the Interpretation of Dogma 95
 - Sullivan and the Theological Notes 97
 - Some Cases of Sullivan's Interpretative Reading of Doctrine 101
 - Concluding Remarks 113
- 4 What Constitutes "Outside"? Employing Sullivan's Method to Interpret Extra Ecclesiam Nulla Salus, Anonymous Christians, Subsistit In, and Dominus Iesus 114

Sullivan and "Salvation Outside the Church"	115
Sullivan and Subsistit In	131
The Publication of Dominus Iesus and Resultant Ecclesiological Issues	136
Sullivan's Lesser Known Works	140
Sullivan in Dialogue with Other Theologians	146
Concluding Remarks	169
5 Towards a Hermeneutical Catholic Ecclesiology of the Twenty-First Century	171
The Substrata of Reception in Sullivan's Work	171
The Limits of Sullivan's Method	175
Sullivan's Lasting Impact	189
Primary Works by Francis A. Sullivan, S.J.	195
Selected Bibliography	199
Index of Names	211