CONTENTS IN BRIEF

|                                                   |       | UNIT 3TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS                        | 321 |
|---------------------------------------------------|-------|---------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Special Features                                  | xviii | CHAPTER 12Methods and Models of Teaching            | 323 |
| Preface                                           | xx    | , ,                                                     | 020 |
| CHAPTER 1                                         | 1     | CHAPTER 13Teaching Objectives                       | 355 |
| Introduction and History                          | 1     | CHAPTER 14Teaching: The Personal Dimension          | 385 |
| UNIT 1CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH             | 25    | UNIT 4                                                  |     |
| CHAPTER 2Fundamentals of Growth and Developme | nt 27 | INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES:MEASUREMENT AND RESEARCH     | 423 |
| CHAPTER 3Physical Growth and Development      | 47    | CHAPTER 15Measurement and IndividualDifferences | 425 |
| CHAPTER 4 Early Experience                        | 77    | CHAPTER 16                                              |     |
| CHAPTER 5Cognitive Growth                     | 97    | Intelligence: Concepts and Measures                     | 457 |
| CHAPTER 6Personal Growth                      | 141   | UNIT 5MANAGING STUDENTS IN GROUPS                   | 491 |
| CHAPTER 7Value Development                    | 175   | CHAPTER 17The Class as a Social Unit                | 493 |
|                                                   |       | CHAPTER 18Motivation in the Classroom               | 527 |
| UNIT 2LEARNING THEORY                         | 209   | CHAPTER 19Student Discipline: A Developmental       |     |
| CHAPTER 8Learning Backgrounds                 | 211   | Model CHAPTER 20                                        | 555 |
| CHAPTER 9Learning Theory Today                | 229   | Mainstreaming: Students with SpecialNeeds           | 585 |
| CHAPTER 10Learning in the Classroom           | 255   | Glossary—Study Guide                                    | 623 |
|                                                   | 200   | Photo Credits                                           | 661 |
| CHAPTER 11Information Processing              | 285   | Index                                                   | 663 |
|                                                   |       |                                                         | ix  |

CONTENTS

| Preface XX Ethology 36 CHAPTER 1 Introduction and History 1 Introduction and Names 2 Interduction and Names 4 Interduction 3 Introduction and Old Problem 4 Introduction and Names 4 Interduction 3 Introduction and Names 4 Interduction 3 Introduction and Old Problem 4 Interduction and Names 4 Interduction and Names 4 Interduction 3 Introduction and Oldern Solution 1 Introduction and Old Problem 4 Introduction and Names 4 Interduction and Names 5 Interduction and Names 5 Interduction and Names 4 Interduction and Names 5 Interduction and Names 6 Interduction and Names 1 Interduction and  | Special Features         | xviii | Why Was an Environmental Position so Attractive in the United States? | 35  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| CHAPTER 1 Introduction and History  Educational Psychology: A Bridge Stepped on at Both Ends? Theory and Practice: Two Cultures? Why Theory? Why Practice? One Theory or Many? Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Education Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Education Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Education He Classroom Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? For a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger Interval into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  UNIT 1 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH  The Nature-Nurture: A Modern Solution to an Old Problem  The Nature-Nurture: A Modern Solution to an Old Problem  Hereditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart?  References  42 CHAPTER 3 CHAPTER 3 CHAPTER 3 Down Syndrome 51 Down Syndrome 51 Behavior Genetics 52 Down Syndrome 51 Behavior Genetics 51 Human Studies Fyschology's First Principle 52 Fyschology's First Principle 53 The Embryo The Sysphology The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalist at Heart?  Town All Earl?  The System and Names The Order or an Environmentalist at Heart?  The ABCs of Genetics Down Syndrome The Nature Nurture Controversy The Hereditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart?  The ABCs of Genetics  10 CHAPTER 3 The ABCs of Genetics 10 Down Syndrome 11 Down Syndrome 12 The Environmentalist at Hereditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart?  The Table Sychology: The Hereditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart?  The ABCs of Genetics  10 Down Syndrome 11 Down Syndrome 12 The ABCs of Genetics 12 The ABCs of Genetics 13 Animal Studies 14 The ABCs of Genetics 14 The ABCs of Genetics 15 The ABCs o | Preface                  | xx    | Ethology                                                              | 36  |
| on at Both Ends? Theory and Practice: Two Cultures? Why Theory? Why Practice? One Theory or Many? Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously 6 Education Yesterday and Today Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom 8 Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? 9 Emergence of a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise 11 Down Syndrome 12 L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary 11 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH  CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development The Neture-Nurture Controversy John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Q Testers  Theory into Practice: Are You a Hereditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart? References  42 CHAPTER 3 CHAPTER 3 Physical Growth and Development The ABCs of Genetics Dominants and Recessives Special Prolicities The ABCs of Genetics Animal Studies Animal Studies Figure 1 Figure 1 Figure 2 Figure 2 Figure 3 Figure 3 Figure 3 Figure 4 Fremeditarian or an Environmentalist at Heart? References  42 CHAPTER 3 Physical Growth and Development The ABCs of Genetics Animal Studies Figure 3 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 3 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 5 Figure 4 Figure 4 Figure 5 Figure 4 Figure 5 Figure 5 Figure 7  | Introduction and History | 1     | Nature-Nurture: A Modern Solution to an Old Problem                   | 41  |
| Theory and Practice: Two Cultures? Why Theory? Why Practice? One Theory or Many? Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Education Yesterday and Today Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? Emergence of a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  UNIT 1 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH  CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Or Street Stranges The Or Street Stranger The Rerous Stranger The Practice: Observing Changes Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The Provision Practice: Observing Changes The Provision Practice: One of Teach of the Maturation of Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality The Or Street Stranger The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Q Testers  The Synchology: Four Problems of Growth Periods and Educational Problems The Provides and Educational Problems The Provides and Educational Problems The Or Testers The Provide and Educational Problems The Or Testers The Provide and Educational Problems The Or Testers The Provid |                          | 2     |                                                                       | 42  |
| Why Theory? Why Practice? One Theory or Many? Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously Education Yesterday and Today Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? Femergence of a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary The Art and Science of Teaching The Psychology's First Principle The Art and Science of Teaching The Embryo The Embryo The Fetus The Nervous System Sleep The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarian or an Environmentalists The Art and Today The Art and Today The ABCs of Genetics The ABCs of |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| One Theory or Many? Educational Psychology: Four Problems to Solve Simultaneously  Education Yesterday and Today  Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom  Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom  Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom  William James: The Early Promise  E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education  John Dewey and Human Interaction  John Dewey and Human Interaction  John Dewey and Human Interaction  The Art and Science of Teaching  The Art and Science of Teaching  Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning  References  UNIT 1  CHILD AND ADOLESCENT  GROWTH  CHAPTER 2  Fundamentals of Growth and Development  The Nature-Nurture Controversy  The Hereditarians Speak:  Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed"  The Environmentalists Speak:  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  The Office of Simultaneously  At the References  42  At Heart?  References  44  44  44  44  45  CHAPTER 3  Physical Growth and Development  47  The ABCs of Genetics  48  CHAPTER 3  Physical Growth and Development  51  Behavior Genetics  51  Animal Studies  Animal Studies  48  Physical Growth and Development  51  Behavior Genetics  51  Animal Studies  42  Fluman Studies  43  Animal Studies  44  Animal Studies  51  Animal Studies  52  Fluman Studies  53  Animal Studies  54  Human Studies  55  The Embryo  54  The Ebysical Development in Childhood  55  The Fetus  66  The Nervous System  59  Sleep  Motor Development  59  Special Problems of Girls  59  Special Problems of Girls  59  Adolescent Sexuality  66  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  67  Farb Fetus Sepecial Problems  68  Summary  70  Farb Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  68  Farby and Late Maturation  69  For Whereids and Educational Problems  69  Summary  70  For Whereids and Educational Problems  71  The Office of Serving Changes  72  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  67  For Whereids And Serving Changes  71  Th |                          | 4     |                                                                       |     |
| to Solve Simultaneously 6 Education Yesterday and Today 8 Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom 8 Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom 9 Emergence of a Theoretical Framework 10 William James: The Early Promise 11 John Dewey and Human Interaction 13 John Dewey and Human Interaction 13 Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger 16 The Art and Science of Teaching 21 Summary 21 Key Terms and Names 22 Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning 22 References 24 WINT 1 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH 25 CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27 The Nature-Nurture Controversy 19 The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" 17 The In Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" 21 The Growth and Coday 8 CHAPTER 3 Physical Growth and Development 47 The ABCs of Genetics 48 Physical Growth and Development 51 Domn Syndrome 51 Behavior Genetics 51 Animal Studies 51 Human Studies 51 Human Studies 52 Human Studies 52 The Zygote 53 The Embryo 54 The Embryo 54 The Embryo 54 The Fetus 54 Motor Development in Childhood 55 Sepecial Problems of Girls 59 Special Problems of Girls 59 Special Problems of Girls 59 Special Problems of Girls 61 Special Problems of Boys 64 Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome 67 Emergence 61 E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education 13 Behavior Genetics 48 Physical Growth and Development 52 The Embryo 54 The Embryo 54 The Embryo 54 The Environmentalist of Growth and Development 55 Sepecial Problems of Girls 59 Special Problems of Girls 59 Special Problems of Girls 61 Special Problems 61 Specia | One Theory or Many?      | 5     |                                                                       |     |
| Education Yesterday and Today Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? Physical Growth and Development Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom? Femergence of a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary The Art and Science of Teaching The Art and Science of Teaching Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  UNIT 1 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH The Mervous System Seep Motor Development The Nervous System Seep Motor Development Sensory Development Specch Development The Embryo The Motor Development Specch Development Specch Development The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Q Testers  The Indicational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome The IQ Testers  The Growth Practice: Observing Changes The Growth The IQ Testers  The Aprical Growth and Development The ARCS of Genetics Domniants and Recessives Domniants and Recesives Seleavices Human Studies Human Studie |                          |       | Keterences                                                            | 44  |
| Yesterday: Trivia in the Classroom? 9 The ABCs of Genetics 48 Emergence of a Theoretical Framework 10 Down Syndrome 51 E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education 13 Behavior Genetics 51 John Dewey and Human Interaction 13 Animal Studies 51 Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger 16 Human Studies 52 Experiment of Trivia in the Classroom? 9 The Art and Science of Teaching 21 Psychology's First Principle 52 Summary 21 Life before Birth 53 Key Terms and Names 22 The Zygote 53 The Art and Science of Teaching 21 Psychology's First Principle 52 Summary 21 Life before Birth 53 Key Terms and Names 75 The Zygote 75 The Embryo 75 References 74 The Embryo 75 The Fetus 75 Sleep 75 Motor Development in Childhood 75 Sensory Development 75 Sensory Development 75 Special Problems of Girls 63 CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 70 The Nature-Nurture Controversy 75 The Hereditarians Speak: 80 Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" 75 The Environmentalists Speak: 90 The Environmentalists Speak: 10 The Q Testers 70 The Nature Observing Changes 10 The IQ Testers 71 The ABCs of Genetics 75 The Abcusing Studies 75 The Alman Studies 75 The Alman Studies 75 The Embryo 69 The Embryo 75 The Fetus 75 The Perus 7 |                          |       | C                                                                     |     |
| Today: Still Trivia in the Classroom?  Emergence of a Theoretical Framework  William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary  Experimental Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching The Eacher as Stranger The Embryo The Embryo The Fetus The Nervous System The Embryo The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Emotional Development The Nervous System Seleop The Emotional Development The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Sensory Development The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Embryo The Nervous System Seleop The Embryo The Sensory Development Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Nervous System Seleop The Embryo The Nervous System Seleop The Em |                          |       |                                                                       | 45  |
| Emergence of a Theoretical Framework William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary Life before Birth Stygote The Art and Science: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  Life before Birth The Embryo The Fetus The Embryo The Fetus The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Dominants and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  The Packers  Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Recessives Down Syndrome Shavior Genetics John Sh. Watson and Ridical Styles John Sh. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  The Intervine Principle Life before Birth Human Studies Psychology's First Principle The Embryo The Embryo The Embryo The Fetus Septone The Embryo The Embryo The Fetus Septone Sepecial Development Speech Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Sarly and Late Maturation Summary The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Sarly and Late Maturation Septone Struck Studies The Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Sarly and Late Maturation Summary The Ferus and Names The John Sh. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Sarly and Late Maturation Summary The John Sh. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Sarly and Late Maturation Summa |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| William James: The Early Promise E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary Life before Birth Studies Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary Life before Birth Studies Stranger Strange |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| E. L. Thorndike: Scientific Education John Dewey and Human Interaction 13 Animal Studies 51 Animal Studies 55 Animal Studies 56 Animal Studies 55 Animal Studies 56 Animal Studies 57 Animal Stu |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| John Dewey and Human Interaction Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary Life before Birth S3 Wey Terms and Names Learning Step Terms and Names Life before Birth S3 The Zygote The Zygote The Embryo The Fetus Steep Steep Steep Motor Development in Childhood The Nervous System Steep Motor Development Sensory Development Speech Development Speech Development Speech Development Speech Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Environmentalists Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  Step Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  Animal Studies Human Studies Human Studies  Human Studies  Human Studies  Fries Principle Step System State Special Problemon in Childhood The Nervous System Sensory Development Sensory Development Specch Development Specch Development Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Summary The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation Summary Theory into Practice: Observing Changes Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  The Carting Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The Information In |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| Maxine Greene: The Teacher as Stranger The Art and Science of Teaching Summary 21 Life before Birth 53 Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  22 The Zygote The Embryo The Fetus 54 Physical Development in Childhood 55 The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development 57 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH 58 CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  10 Human Studies Psychology's First Principle Life before Birth 52 The Zygote The Zygote The Embryo The Fetus Sensory Development in Childhood 55 The Nervous System Sensory Development Sensory Development Sensory Development Physical Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| The Art and Science of Teaching Summary Summar |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| Summary  Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning  References  24 The Zygote The Embryo The Embryo The Nervous System Sleep The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  Assumptions and Names The Embryo The Embryo The Embryo The Petus Sensory Development in Childhood The Nervous System Somethous System Sensory Development Sensory Development Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth The IQ Testers  The Zygote The Embryo Special Development in Childhood The Nervous System Sequence |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  24 The Zygote The Embryo The Fetus The Fetus The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development Speech Development The Speech Development The Speech Development The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  22 The Zygote The Zygote The Embryo The Fetus The Embryo The Fetus The Environ Sensory Development Sensory Development The Emotional Development Sensory Development Speech Development The Emotional Development The Emotional Development The Speech Development The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation Someth The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation Summary The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation The Sissy-Boy Syndrome The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  30 Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  31 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  32 The Embryo The Fetus The Embryo The Embryo The Embryo The Embryo The Fetus The Fetus The Embryo The Fetus The Embryo The Fetus The Nature In Adolescence The Sensory Development The Embryo The Nature In Adolescence The Sensory The F |                          |       |                                                                       | 53  |
| Theory into Practice: Your Philosophy and Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  24 Physical Development in Childhood The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development Sensory Development Femotional Development Speech Development Speech Development Speech Development Physical Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  The IQ Testers  The Embryo The Fetus Special Development in Childhood The Nervous System Speaks Sepond The Fetus Special Development Speaks Speaks Farly and Late Maturation Summary The Signey Special Problems Summary The Signey Special Problems Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Boys Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Boys Special |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| Assumptions about Teaching and Learning References  22 The Fetus Physical Development in Childhood The Nervous System Sleep Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development Sensory Development Sensory Development Speech Development Physical Development Sensory Development Speech Development Physical Development Speech Development Physical Development Speech Development Speech Development Physical Development Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Special Problems of Boys The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  30 Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The Growth The Company Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  44 Physical Development in Childhood The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development Speaks Sensory Development The Sensory Development The Sensory Development The Sensory Development The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development Sensory Development The Nervous System Sleep Motor Development The Nervous System Sensory Development The Nervous Sustended The Nervous Pauling The Nervous Pauling The Nervous Pauling The Sensory Development The Sensory Development The Nervous Paulin |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| The Nervous System 55 Sleep 55 Motor Development 55 Sensory Development 57 Emotional Development 59 Speech Development in Adolescence 63 Special Problems of Girls 63 Special Problems of Boys 64 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27 Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Nature-Nurture Controversy 29 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome 66 The Hereditarians Speak: 59 The Environmentalists Speak: 59 The Environmentalists Speak: 50 The Watson and "Give Me the Baby" 30 Educational Psychology: The Battleground 33 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 15 The Motor Development 57 Emotional Development 60 Special Problems of Girls 63 Special Problems of Boys 64 Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome 66 Early and Late Maturation 68 Summary 70 Key Terms and Names 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 15 The IQ Testers 34 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 15 The Motor Development 57 Emotional Development 60 CHAPTER 2 50 Special Problems of Boys 64 Adolescent Sexuality 65 Special Problems of Boys 64 Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome 66 Early and Late Maturation 68 Summary 70 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 15 The IQ Testers 34 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 15 The IQ Testers 34                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                          | 22    | ,                                                                     |     |
| The Nervous System  Sleep  Motor Development  Sensory Development  Sensory Development  Emotional Development  Special Problems of Girls  Special Problems of Boys  Fundamentals of Growth and Development  The Nature-Nurture Controversy  The Hereditarians Speak:  Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed"  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  The IQ Testers  The Notor Development  Sensory Development  Emotional Development  Fmotional Development  Special Problems of Girls  Special Problems of Boys  Adolescent Sexuality  Farly and Late Maturation  Growth Periods and Educational Problems  Summary  To  Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers  The Growth  The Growth  The Growth  The Aprical Development  The Mature-Nurture  The Nature-Nurture Controversy  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  Summary  To  Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers  The IQ Testers  The Motor Development  To  Sensory Development  Special Problems of Girls  Special Problems of Boys  Adolescent Sexuality  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  Summary  To  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers  The IQ Testers  The Motor Development  The Motor Development  The Motor Development  The Motor Development  The Sensory Development  The Motor Deve |                          | 24    |                                                                       |     |
| Sleep Motor Development  Sensory Development  Sensor Development  Sensor |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| UNIT 1 CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH  25 GROWTH  25 GROWTH  25 GROWTH  25 Sensory Development  Emotional Development  Speech Development  Physical Development in Adolescence  Special Problems of Girls  Special Problems of Boys  Adolescent Sexuality  The Nature-Nurture Controversy  The Hereditarians Speak:  Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed"  The Environmentalists Speak:  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground  The IQ Testers  Sensory Development  Emotional Development  Speech Development in Adolescence  Special Problems of Boys  Adolescent Sexuality  65 Growth Periods and Late Maturation  68 Summary  70 Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  in Growth  71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers  71 The IQ Testers  72 The IQ Testers  73 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers  74 The IQ Testers  75 The Emotional Development  59 Special Problems of Girls  Special Problems of Boys  Adolescent Sexuality  65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  68 Summary  70 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  The IQ Testers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                          |       |                                                                       | 55  |
| CHILD AND ADOLESCENT GROWTH  25 Emotional Development Speech Development Physical Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Emotional Development Speech Development Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation 68 Summary Summary 70 Key Terms and Names 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 71 The IQ Testers 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                          |       | Motor Development                                                     | 55  |
| GROWTH  25 Speech Development Physical Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Girls Special Problems of Boys Fundamentals of Growth and Development The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Farly and Late Maturation Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary Form Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Form Farly and Late Maturation Forwth Theory into Practice: Observing Changes Theory into Practice: Observing Changes The IQ Testers  Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality Forward Forwa |                          |       | Sensory Development                                                   |     |
| CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27 The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Physical Development in Adolescence Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality 65 Adolescent Sexuality 65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation 68 Summary 70 Key Terms and Educational Problems 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes 71 71 71 71 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 77 78 78 79 70 70 71 71 71 71 71 71 71 71 71 71 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                          |       | Emotional Development                                                 |     |
| CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27 The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" The IQ Testers  Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality  65 The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation 68 Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary 70 Key Terms and Names 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | GROWTH                   | 25    |                                                                       |     |
| CHAPTER 2 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27 Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27  The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Special Problems of Boys Adolescent Sexuality  Early and Late Maturation  Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary  Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth  71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                          |       |                                                                       |     |
| Fundamentals of Growth and Development 27  The Nature-Nurture Controversy 29  The Hereditarians Speak:  Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" 29  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby" 30  Educational Psychology: The Battleground 33  The IQ Testers 34  Adolescent Sexuality 65  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation 68  Early and Late Maturation 68  Summary 70  Key Terms and Names 71  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | CLIA DEED A              |       |                                                                       |     |
| The Nature-Nurture Controversy The Hereditarians Speak: Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome Early and Late Maturation  Farly and Late Maturation  Farly and Late Maturation  Key Terms and Educational Problems  Summary  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  in Growth  The IQ Testers  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  Key Terms and Names  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes  in Growth  The IQ Testers  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  The Summary  To Summary  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  The Summary  To Summary  The Sissy-Boy Syndrome  Early and Late Maturation  The Summary  To Summary  The IQ Testers  The IQ Testers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                          | + 27  |                                                                       |     |
| The Hereditarians Speak:  Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed"  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Early and Late Maturation  Growth Periods and Educational Problems  Summary  Key Terms and Names  71  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth  71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | •                        |       | •                                                                     |     |
| Henry E. Goddard and the "Bad Seed" The Environmentalists Speak: John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  29 Growth Periods and Educational Problems Summary  70 Key Terms and Names 71 Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                          | 29    |                                                                       |     |
| The Environmentalists Speak:  John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  Summary  Key Terms and Names  71  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth  71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                          | 20    |                                                                       |     |
| John B. Watson and "Give Me the Baby"  Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  30 Key Terms and Names Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth  71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                          | 29    | _                                                                     |     |
| Educational Psychology: The Battleground The IQ Testers  The Street Mark the Baty  Theory into Practice: Observing Changes in Growth  71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                          | 20    |                                                                       |     |
| The IQ Testers 34 in Growth 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                          |       |                                                                       | , 1 |
| The TQ Testers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                          |       |                                                                       | 71  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                          |       |                                                                       |     |

| CHAPTER 4                                     |          | The American Question: Can We Speed       |      |
|-----------------------------------------------|----------|-------------------------------------------|------|
| Early Experience                              | 77       | Up Growth?                                | 115  |
| Early Experience: The Key to the Nature-Nurtu | ıre      | Patricia Arlin: Beyond Piaget             | 116  |
| Puzzle                                        | 77       | Accommodation and Assimilation            | 117  |
| Two Studies of the Critical-Time              |          | Equilibration, or Knowledge Disturbances  | 119  |
| Hypothesis                                    | 78       | Lev Vygotsky: Teaching for Growth         | 121  |
| Early Experience: Observations                |          | Shared Cognitions                         | 122  |
| and Theories                                  | 79       | The Zone of Proximal Growth               | 122  |
| The Berkeley Growth Study                     | 79       | Classroom Instruction: Peer Interaction   |      |
| Bloom's Hypothesis                            | 81       | and Relaxed Reflection                    | 124  |
| Stimulus Variety: The Basic Ingredient        | 82       | Dimant and Bearison: A Community          |      |
| Bruner on Early Experience                    | 83       | College Study                             | 124  |
| Piaget on Early Experience                    | 83       | Vygotsky and Affect                       | 124  |
| The Biological Basis of Early Experience      | 83       | Vygotsky's Contribution                   | 125  |
| The A/S Ratio                                 | 84       | Brain Physiology and Piaget's Stages      | 125  |
| The Evidence from Krech                       | 84       | Piagetian Theory: New Directions          | 126  |
| Environmental Stimulation for                 | 04       | Cognitive Development: Too Narrow         |      |
|                                               | 85       | a Focus?                                  | 128  |
| Physiological Development                     | 65       | Children Are Not Like Adults              | 129  |
| Skinner's Air Crib—Healthful but              | 86       | Adults Are Not Like Adults Either         | 129  |
| Unstimulating                                 | 00       | Summary                                   | 131  |
| Head Start's Success: Perry Preschool         | 86       | Key Terms and Names                       | 132  |
| Program  Decision of the Students             | 87       | Theory into Practice: Applying Piaget     | 132  |
| Design of the Study                           | 88       | References                                | 137  |
| Outcomes of the Study                         | 88       | References                                |      |
| A Good Investment for Society                 |          | 0.1.1 mmm                                 |      |
| The Milwaukee Project                         | 89       | CHAPTER 6                                 | 1.11 |
| The Critics Speak                             | 9091 | Personal Growth                           | 141  |
| A Word of Caution                             |          | Personal Growth: The Pre-Freudian View    |      |
| A Final Comment                               | 91       | of Mindless Children                      | 141  |
| Summary                                       | 91       | Sigmund Freud: The Discovery              |      |
| Key Terms and Names                           | 92       | of Childhood                              | 142  |
| Theory into Practice: Early Experience—       | 02       | Emotional Growth during Childhood:        |      |
| Learning the Concepts                         | 92       | Freud's New View                          | 142  |
| References                                    | 94       | Erik Erikson: The Sequence of Stages      |      |
|                                               |          | and Tasks of Personal Development         | 143  |
|                                               |          | The Epigenetic Principle: The Engine      |      |
|                                               |          | for Growth                                | 144  |
| CHAPTER 5                                     |          | Childhood (Birth to Six Years)            | 146  |
| Cognitive Growth                              | 97       | The Juvenile Period (Six to Twelve Years) | 155  |
| Stages of Growth and Development              | 97       | Adolescence (Thirteen through the College |      |
| Jean Piaget: The Late Discovery               |          | Years)                                    | 157  |
| of His Work                                   | 99       | James Marcia: Identity Status during      |      |
| The Concept of Cognitive Growth               | 101      | College                                   | 160  |
| Research through Repeated Observations        | 101      | Identity Diffusion                        | 160  |
| The Meaning of Cognition: Piaget's            |          | Identity Foreclosure                      | 161  |
| Definition                                    | 102      | Identity Moratorium                       | 161  |
| Piaget's Stages of Cognitive Growth           | 103      | Identity Achievement                      | 162  |
| Sensorimotor Experience (Birth to             |          | Alan Waterman: The Order of Identity      |      |
| Two Years)                                    | 105      | Phases                                    | 162  |
| Intuitive or Preoperational Thought           | -00      | Recent Research on Identity Status        | 163  |
| (Two to Seven Years)                          | 107      | Identity Formation and Minority Status    | 163  |
| Concrete Operations (Seven to Eleven Years)   | 110      | Identity Formation and Gender             | 165  |
| Formal Operations (Eleven to Sixteen Years)   | 113      | Educational Implications                  | 167  |
| Educational Implications of Piaget's Theory   | 115      | Psychological Defenses During             |      |
| Intelligence and Activity                     | 115      | Adolescence                               | 168  |

| The Learning Curve                                           | 256        | Memory and Physiology—from Protein                      |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Learning Sets                                                | 257        | to Calpain                                              | 312 |
| Massed versus Distributed Learning                           | 257        | Friendly Rivals                                         | 312 |
| The Spacing Effect                                           | 257        | Serenity in the Cognitive Patch?                        | 313 |
| Social Learning or Modeling                                  | 258        | Summary                                                 | 314 |
| Modeling versus Operant Conditioning                         | 258        | Key Terms and Names                                     | 315 |
| Significance in the Classroom                                | 259        | Theory into Practice: Improving Your                    |     |
| Operant Conditioning in the Classroom                        | 261        | Memory                                                  | 316 |
| The Case for Behavior Modification                           | 261        | References                                              | 317 |
| The Use of Reinforcement                                     | 263        |                                                         |     |
| Punishment                                                   | 265        | LINITE                                                  |     |
| Aversive Stimuli in the Classroom                            | 267        | UNIT 3                                                  | 221 |
| Extinction                                                   | 268268 | TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS                                  | 321 |
| Shaping The Taken System                                     | 268        |                                                         |     |
| The Token System                                             | 270        | CLIADTED 12                                             |     |
| The Premack Principle Behavioral Technology and the Three Rs | 270        | CHAPTER 12                                              | 222 |
| Spelling                                                     | 271        | Methods and Models of Teaching                          | 323 |
| Handwriting                                                  | 271        | Elements of Teaching Effectiveness                      | 323 |
| Oral Reading                                                 | 271        | Academic Learning Time                                  | 325 |
| Mathematics                                                  | 271        | Use of Reinforcement                                    | 325 |
| Programmed Instruction                                       | 271        | Cues and Feedback                                       | 326 |
| Computer-assisted Instruction                                | 273        | Cooperative Learning                                    | 328 |
| The Teacher's Role                                           | 275        | Classroom Morale                                        | 328 |
| Summary                                                      | 278        | Higher-Order Questions                                  | 329 |
| Key Terms and Names                                          | 280        | Advance Organizers                                      | 329 |
| Theory into Practice: Operant                                |            | Teaching Effectiveness: Direct Instruction Exclusively? | 331 |
| Conditioning                                                 | 280        | The Flanders System: Bridging to Models                 | 332 |
| References                                                   | 281        | Model One: The Transmitter of                           | 332 |
|                                                              |            | Knowledge                                               | 335 |
|                                                              |            | Model Two: Inductive Inquiry                            | 337 |
| CHAPTER 11                                                   |            | Model Three: Interpersonal Learning                     | 340 |
| Information Processing                                       | 285        | Synthesizing Teaching                                   | 342 |
| Learning as Information Processing                           | 286        | Avoiding Rigidity                                       | 343 |
| The Sensory Register                                         | 287        | Enhancing Flexibility among Models                      | 343 |
| Short-Term Memory                                            | 288        | Nonverbal Behavior                                      | 345 |
| Long-Term Memory                                             | 289        | Communicating Expectations                              | 347 |
| Rehearsal: Two Types—Maintenance                             |            | Cross-cultural Differences                              | 348 |
| and Elaborative                                              | 290        | Summary                                                 | 350 |
| Two Long-Term Memory Systems?                                | 290        | Key Terms and Names                                     | 350 |
| Emotions and Memory                                          | 295        | Theory into Practice: Verbal                            |     |
| The Information Processing Theory                            |            | and Nonverbal Behavior                                  | 350 |
| of Forgetting                                                | 296        | References                                              | 352 |
| Decay                                                        | 296        |                                                         |     |
| Interference                                                 | 298        | CHADTED 12                                              |     |
| Aids to Retrieving Learned Material                          | 299        | CHAPTER 13                                              | 255 |
| Mnemonics                                                    | 301        | Teaching Objectives                                     | 355 |
| IQ and Information Processing                                | 303        | Objectives: The Problem of What to Teach                | 355 |
| Developmental Aspects of Information                         | 202        | Educational Goals: Bloom's                              |     |
| Processing Differences in Processing Input                   | 303        | Taxonomy                                                | 356 |
| Differences in Storing Information                           | 303        | Level One: Basic Knowledge                              | 356 |
| The Physical Locus of Memory                                 | 305309 | Level Two: Comprehension                                | 356 |
| In Search of the Engram                                      | 309        | Level Four: Application                                 | 357 |
| The Two-Stage Memory Process Revisited                       | 310        | Level Five: Objective Synthesis                         | 358 |
| Je manara je kocesa kevisited                                | 510        | Level Five: Objective Synthesis                         | 358 |

| Level Six: Objective Evaluation                       | 358        | UNIT 4                                       |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------------|------------|
| Taxonomy and Developmental Stages                     | 358        | INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES:                      |            |
| Educational Objectives and Developmental              | 360        | MEASUREMENT AND RESEARCH                     | 423        |
| Stages                                                | 360        |                                              |            |
| David Hunt: Conceptual Stages                         | 361        | CHAPTER 15                                   |            |
| Attribute-Treatment Interaction                       | 363        | Measurement and Individual                   |            |
| Matching or Mismatching: The Art of Teaching          | 303        | Differences                                  | 425        |
| Mary Belenky, Blythe Clinchy, Nancy                   | 366        | Measurement                                  | 425        |
| Goldberger, and Jill Tarule: Ways of Knowing          | 300        | Reliability and Validity                     | 426        |
| Lesson Planning: The Vehiclefor Educational Goals | 369        | Distributions: Tables and Graphs             | 429        |
|                                                       | 309        | Stem-and-Leaf Display                        | 431        |
| New Educational Goals For All: Teaching               | 371        | Measures of Central Tendency                 | 432        |
| for Higher-Order Understanding                        | 3/1        | Variability: The Name of the Game            |            |
| Conceptions of Thinking in The                        | 371        | in Educational Psychology                    | 434        |
| Seventies, Eighties, and Nineties                     | 3/1        | The Range                                    | 435        |
| Approaches to Teaching Higher-Order                   | 373        | The Standard Deviation                       | 435        |
| Thinking and Understanding                            | 378        | The Normal Curve                             | 435        |
| SummaryKey Terms and Names                        | 379        | Standard Scores (z Scores)                   | 436        |
| Theory into Practice: A Detective                     | 379        | Percentiles (Deciles and Quarteles)          | 437        |
| Approach to Lesson Planning                           | 379        | Normal Curve Equivalents (NCE)               | 438        |
| References                                            | 381        | Stanines                                     | 438        |
| References                                            | 501        | Norm-referenced and Criterion-               |            |
| CITADEED 14                                           |            | referenced Testing                           | 438        |
| CHAPTER 14                                            | 205        | Multiple-Choice Tests or Essays?             | 442        |
| Teaching: The Personal Dimension                      | 385        | Curriculum Testing                           | 444        |
| The Teacher as a Person: The Elusive                  |            | Correlation: A Useful Tool for Making        |            |
| Question                                              | 385        | Predictions                                  | 445        |
| What Is Teaching Really Like?                         | 385        | The Sign of the Correlation                  | 445        |
| The Hidden Agenda                                     | 387        | Correlation Values and Their                 |            |
| The Medium and the Message                            | 387        | Interpretation                               | 445        |
| Attitudes toward Teaching and Learning                | 388        | Scatterplot Diagrams                         | 445        |
| Conceptual Levels of Teachers                         | 389        | The Pearson r                         | 447        |
| Does Conceptual Level Make a                          |            | Sampling: Generalizing from the Few to       | . = -      |
| Difference?                                           | 391        | the Many                                     | 450        |
| Attitudes toward Pupils                               | 391        | Summary                                      | 450        |
| Teacher Expectations                                  | 392        | Key Terms and Names                          | 451        |
| Cultural Differences and Student                      |            | Theory into Practice: Statistical Evaluation | 452        |
| Characteristics                                       | 395        | References                                   | 453        |
| Student Characteristics That Affect                   |            |                                              |            |
| Teacher Expectations                                  | 399        | CHAPTER 16                                   |            |
| Effects of Student Difference in                      |            | Intelligence: Concepts and Measures          | 457        |
| Academic Achievement on Teachers'                     | 400        |                                              | 457        |
| Behavioral Responses                                  | 403        | What Is Intelligence?                        | 437        |
| How Widespread Are Negative                           | 405        | In the Beginning: The History of IQ          | 461        |
| Expectations?                                         | 405        | Testing                                      |            |
| Attitudes toward Self                                 | 407        | Individual Differences and Correlation       | 462462 |
| A Reflective Inquiry Approach                         | 409        | Alfred Binet and Mental Age                  | 464        |
| Values and Teaching                                   | 414        | The Early Stanford-Binet                     | 464        |
| Teaching Goals and Strategies:                        | 415        | IQ Tests Today The Current Stanford-Binet    | 464        |
| A Developmental Model                                 | 415417 | The Wechsler Tests                           | 467        |
| SummaryKey Terms and Names                        | 417        | Group Tests of Intelligence                  | 469        |
| Theory into Practice: The Process of Learning         | 410        | What Do IQ Tests Predict?                    | 469        |
| Self-Reflection                                       | 418        | Academic Achievement                         | 469        |
| References                                            | 421        | Success in Life                              | 469        |
|                                                       | X = 1      | Caccoo III Line                              | 107        |

| Heredity, Environment, and Time Hereditary Factors Environmental Factors Time The Mix | 470470472474475 | Theory into Practice: Impact of Status and Role on Behavior References | 521522 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Infant Intelligence                                                                   | 475                             | CHAPTER 18                                                             | 527        |
| The Transactional Model                                                               | 476476                      | Motivation in the Classroom                                            |            |
| Sex Differences in IQAre There Genetic Differences In                             | 4/0                             | Motivation and the Law of Effect                                       | 527        |
| Intelligence between Racial Groups?                                                   | 476                             | A Current Appraisal                                                    | 528528 |
| Heritability                                                                          | 479                             | Motivation Never Acts in a Vacuum The Motive and Its Components        | 529        |
| The Cumulative Deficit in IQ                                                          | 480                             | Physiological Motives                                                  | 529        |
| Sir Cyril Burt and the Taint of Scandal                                               | 480                             | Acquired Motives                                                       | 530        |
| The Confluence Model: The Family                                                      |                                 | Functional Autonomy                                                    | 530        |
| Environment                                                                           | 481                             | Emotions and Motivation                                                | 530        |
| Summary                                                                               | 483                             | Intrinsic versus Extrinsic Motivation                                  | 531        |
| Key Terms and Names                                                                   | 484                             | Self-Regulated Learning                                                | 532        |
| Theory into Practice: Testing for                                                     | 404                             | Maslow's Need Hierachy                                                 | 532        |
| Intelligence-learning                                                                 | 484488                      | Acquired Motives and Social Forces                                     | 534        |
| References                                                                            | 400                             | Need for Approval                                                      | 534        |
|                                                                                       |                                 | Achievement                                                            | 536        |
|                                                                                       |                                 | Competence                                                             | 540540 |
| UNIT 5                                                                                |                                 | Curiosity Cooperation and Competition                                  | 540541 |
| MANAGING STUDENTS IN GROUPS                                                           | 491                             | Unconscious Motivation                                                 | 545        |
|                                                                                       |                                 | Repression                                                             | 545        |
|                                                                                       |                                 | The Zeigarnik Effect                                                   | 546        |
| CHAPTER 17                                                                            |                                 | Motivation and Conflict                                                | 546        |
| The Class as a Social Unit                                                            | 493                             | Sources of Motivational Conflicts                                      | 546        |
| Social Psychology Defined                                                             | 493                             | Reactions to Conflict                                                  | 547        |
| Social Facilitation                                                                   | 494                             | Motivation and Development                                             | 547        |
| The Risky Shift                                                                       | 495                             | The Teacher's Role                                                     | 548        |
| Brainstorming                                                                         | 495                             | Summary                                                                | 548        |
| Differential Effects on Behavior                                                      | 496                             | Key Terms and Names                                                    | 549        |
| Cohesiveness                                                                          | 496                             | Theory into Practice: Motivation                                       | E40        |
| Conformity                                                                            | 497                             | and Procrastination                                                    | 549551 |
| Socialization                                                                         | 501                             | References                                                             | 551        |
| Cognitive Dissonance                                                                  | 502                             |                                                                        |            |
| Attribution Theory                                                                    | 503504                      | CHAPTER 19                                                             |            |
| Aggression Theories of Aggression                                                     | 504                             | Student Discipline: A Developmental                                    |            |
| Aggression and the Mass Media                                                         | 506                             | Model                                                                  | 555        |
| Nature or Nuture?                                                                     | 508                             | Historical Background                                                  | 555        |
| Status and Role                                                                       | 508                             | Student Discipline and the Fallacy                                     | 000        |
| The Influence of Expectations                                                         | 509                             | of Character Education                                                 | 556        |
| Sex Roles in Society and in the School                                                | 511                             | Discipline: A Developmental Method                                     | 556        |
| Role and Personality                                                                  | 511                             | Stages of Development and Discipline                                   | 557        |
| Leadership                                                                            | 512                             | Matching Discipline Levels and Pupils                                  | 564        |
| Theories of Leadership                                                                | 512                             | Discipline Levels: Four Questions                                      | 564        |
| Leadership and Gender                                                                 | 513                             | Strategies at Stage I                                                  | 565        |
| Styles of Leadership                                                                  | 513                             | Strategies at Stage II                                                 | 565        |
| Classroom Leadership                                                                  | 515                             | Strategies at Stage III                                                | 566        |
| Group Dynamics in the Classroom                                                       | 515520                      | Strategies at Stage IV                                                 | 567        |
| SummaryKey Terms and Names                                                        | 520521                      | Strategies at Stage V                                                  | 568571 |
| red remis and rames                                                                   | 321                             | Discipline: Effects of Discussion                                      | 5/1        |

| Discipline Stage and Individual           |     | Assessment: The Confounding Effects of        |     |
|-------------------------------------------|-----|-----------------------------------------------|-----|
| Differences                               | 571 | Social Class, Ethnicity, and Gender           | 59  |
| Initiating and Preventative Teacher       |     | Assessment: Some New Proposals                | 59  |
| Behaviors                                 | 572 | An Alternative Classification Procedure       | 59  |
| Transition to Corrective Methods:         |     | Alternative Educational Environments:         |     |
| I-Messages                                | 572 | Promoting Development                         | 59  |
| Corrective Techniques                     | 573 | The Regular Education Initiative              | 59  |
| Dealing with Cheating                     | 573 | Cross-Categorical, or Noncategorical,         |     |
| When All Else Fails: Behavioral Contract  |     | Systems                                       | 602 |
| Form                                      | 574 | Intervention Programs                         | 602 |
| Discipline and Parenting: Damon's         |     | Increasing the Accommodative Capacity of      |     |
| Implications for Teaching                 | 577 | Classrooms                                    | 60  |
| Summary                                   | 578 | Developing the Requisite Teaching Skills      | 60  |
| Key Terms and Names                       | 578 | From Diagnosis to Teaching                    | 60  |
| Theory into Practice: Matching            |     | Learned Helplessness: A Common Characteristic | 60  |
| Disciplinary Strategies                   | 579 | Unlearning Helplessness                       | 60  |
| References                                | 582 | Teaching Strategies for Mainstreaming         | 60  |
|                                           |     | Precise Teaching                              | 60  |
|                                           |     | Cooperative Learning                          | 61  |
| CHAPTER 20                                |     | Tutoring                                      | 61  |
| Mainstreaming: Students with              |     | Social Skills Training                        | 61. |
| Special Needs                             | 585 | Matching and Gradual Mismatching              | 61  |
| Traditional Practices Regarding Placement | 585 | The Individualized Education Plan             | 61  |
| Remolding                                 | 585 | The Case for Mainstreaming                    | 61  |
| Exclusion                                 | 586 | Summary                                       | 61  |
| Segregation                               | 586 | Key Terms and Names                           | 61  |
| A New Policy: Mainstreaming               | 587 | Theory into Practice: Peer Tutoring           | 61  |
| Public Law 94-142                         | 587 | References                                    | 62  |
| The "Least Restrictive" Dictum            | 588 |                                               |     |
| The Diagnostic Problem                    | 589 | Glossary—Study Guide                          | 623 |
| IQ Testing: Is It Valid?                  | 589 |                                               |     |
| Assessment: The Problematic Nature        |     | Photo Credits                                 | 66  |
| of the Learning-Disabled Category         | 590 |                                               |     |
| Assessment: The Problem with              | ,   | Index                                         | 663 |
| the Emotionally Disturbed Category        | 592 |                                               |     |
| ,                                         |     |                                               |     |