

Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS		vii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS		ix
CONTRIBUTORS		xi
INTRODUCTION		xv

PART ONE PEDAGOGICAL APPROACHES

Monks and Heretics: Using Eco's Name of the Rose as a Textbook
in an Upper-Level, Undergraduate History Seminar

PHILLIP C. ADAMO | 3

Eco as Educator: The Middle Ages Through The Name of the Rose

MARY FLOWERS BRASWELL | 16

Naturally, a Postscript: The Name of the Rose as the Final Text
in a Medieval Literature Survey Course

ALISON GANZE | 30

Eco's Inspiring Novel: New Life for a Medieval Course

MARY MALESKI | 40

The Architecture of the Infinite Library: Teaching Intertextuality and Bibliography with The Name of the Rose

MARTHA D. RUST | 52

The Book: Object of Desire and Fear

ELSI VASSDAL ELLIS | 69

Illuminating the Past: Reflections on Teaching The Name of the Rose

NICHOLAS CHARE | 84

Umberto Eco's Name of the Rose: Teaching the Franciscan Intellectual Tradition to Postmodern Undergraduates

MICHAEL CHIARIELLO | 97

Playing with Fire: The Film Version of Eco's Name of the Rose

ALAN T. GAYLORD | 109

PART TWO CRITICAL BACKGROUNDS

Apocalypse Found: The Manuscript in and of The Name of the Rose

KEVIN R. WEST | 135

Visions and Revisions: Eco's Book of Revelation

ROCHELLE SIBLEY | 151

"It Was Just a Figure of Speech": Words, Things, and the Rhetorician's Art

GLYNIS RIDLEY | 169

Critiques of Courtly Love: Mirroring and Refiguration in Jean de Meun's Le Roman de la rose and Umberto Eco's Il nome della rosa

APRIL I. WITT | 184

Serious Comedy: The Second Book of Aristotle's Poetics and The Name of the Rose

PATRICK J. COOK | 205

APPENDIX: Syllabi | 219

WORKS CITED | 243

INDEX | 255