

Contents

- 7 Preface
- 11 Swedish Students and Teachers
The Swedes and their origins 11, Travel routes and companions 15, The new arrival 15, Fees 18, Age 20, Everyday life 21, Outside contacts 24, Degrees 25, The Faculty of Arts 26, Higher faculties 29, Teaching 41, The Faculty of Arts 42, The higher faculties 50, The Dean and his colleagues 55, Life after studies in Leipzig 57
- 67 Sacred Eloquence on Christmas Day at the Universities of Leipzig and Vienna
Structure and layout 69, Contents and approach 73, Bero Magni 74, Kristoffer Larsson 77, Two different preachers 81, Kristoffer and his time 83, Concluding remarks 89
- 93 The Medieval Notion of the Superiority of the Will
Ethics and the will 93, The Will as Power 96, Active and Passive Potencies 99, Freedom and the Will 102, Some Remarks on Kristoffer and the Will 109
- 113 The Latinity of Kristoffer Larsson
General remarks on Kristoffer's style 113, Rhetoric 115, Morphology and syntax 118, Vocabulary 120, Specific philosophical terminology 121, Conclusion 123

6 CONTENTS

- 125 Jean Gerson's Ars moriendi in Swedish in a Swedish Interpretation: Pastoral Theology at its Best
The Introduction 127, First Part: Four Exhortations 128,
Second Part: Eight Questions 131, Third Part: Prayers 136,
Fourth Part: Observations 141, Postscript 150
- 153 Kristoffer Larsson
Back in Leipzig 155, Back in Uppsala 158, Kristoffer
Larsson's Letter to Archbishop Olof 160, Kristoffer
Larsson's Note Regarding Bishop Nils of Växjö 178
- 183 Kristoffer Larsson's Catechetical Treatise
Transcription 188
- 191 Karl Johansson
Editorial principles 193, Karl Johansson's Letter to Jakob
Nilsson 196
- 205 Bibliography
- 219 Books published by Runica et Mediævalia