

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction James Acheson	I
Part I Four Voices for the New Millennium
1. Ian McEwan: Lies and Deceptions David Punter	17
2. David Mitchell: Global Novelist of the Twenty-First Century Brian Finney	27
3. Hilary Mantel: Raising the Dead, Speaking the Truth Lisa Fletcher	37
4. Zadie Smith: The Geographies of Marriage Gretchen Gerzina	48
Part II Realism and Beyond
5. Maggie O'Farrell: Discoveries at the Edge Susan Strehle	61
6. Sarah Hall: A New Kind of Storytelling Sue Vice	70
7. A. L. Kennedy: Giving and Receiving Alison Lumsden	79
8. Alan Warner: Timeless Realities Alan Riach	88

Part III Postmodernism, Globalisation and Beyond

9. Ali Smith: Strangers and Intrusions 99
Monica Germanà
10. Kazuo Ishiguro: Alternate Histories 109
Daniel Bedggood
11. Kate Atkinson: Plotting to Be Read 119
Glenda Norquay
12. Salman Rushdie: Archival Modernism 129
Vijay Mishra

Part IV Realism, Postmodernism and Beyond: Historical Fiction

13. Adam Foulds: Fictions of Past and Present 143
Dominic Head
14. Sarah Waters: Representing Marginal Groups and Individuals 153
Susana Onega
15. James Robertson: In the Margins of History 163
Cairns Craig

Part V Postcolonialism and Beyond

16. Mohsin Hamid: The Transnational Novel of Globalisation 177
Janet Wilson
17. Andrea Levy: The SS Empire Windrush and After 188
Sue Thomas
18. Aminatta Forna: Truth, Trauma, Memory 199
Françoise Lionnet and Jennifer MacGregor
- Notes on Contributors 209
- Index 213