

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
CHAPTER 1. STUDYING CITIZENSHIP: A POLITICAL-PROCESS APPROACH	1
Introduction	1
Citizenship Reform as a Process, Not a Product	4
Culturalist, Structuralist, Institutional, and Political-Process Analyses of Citizenship	6
French Citizenship Reform as a Case Study	13
Research Strategy and Plan of the Book	17
CHAPTER 2. THE NEW IMMIGRANTS AND CITIZENSHIP	19
Contemporary Immigration in France	19
Immigrants and Citizenship Status	25
CHAPTER 3. POLITICIZING CITIZENSHIP IN FRENCH IMMIGRATION POLITICS	31
The Transformations of Pluralism in France	32
Immigrant Associations and the Right to Difference	34
The Pluralist Debates and the Extreme Right	36
The Contested National Identity	40
The Left, National Identity, and Citizenship	42
Immigrants, National Identity, and the New Citizenship	46
National Identity Debates, Racial Politics, and Nativism	52
Conclusion: From National Identity to Citizenship	53
CHAPTER 4. RE-ENVISIONING CITIZENSHIP: THE DEBATES OVER THE NATIONALITY CODE	57
From National Identity to Nationality Code	58
The Voluntarist Arguments	60

Voluntarism and the Left	64
The Communitarian Arguments	65
Communitarianism and the Left	68
The Nativist Arguments	69
Nativism and the Left	71
The Constraints of French Ideologies	71
Conclusion	76
CHAPTER 5. THE REFORM, THE STATE, AND THE POLITICAL PROCESS	77
State Constraints on a Reform	78
The Four Objectives of the Bureau of Nationality	83
Agendas, Autonomy, and Dissension Within the State	85
The Reform and the Political Process	90
Conclusion	99
CHAPTER 6. RECONSTRUCTING CITIZENSHIP: THE NATIONALITY COMMISSION	101
The Fusion of National Identity and Pluralism	103
National Identity and Concerns About European Integration	107
Reinforcing National Identity and National Integration	109
Elective Conception of the Nation and a Voluntarist Citizenship	117
Reaffirming and Resituating the Statist Perspective	121
Reactions to the Commission's Report	123
CHAPTER 7. WHO'S WEARING THE VEIL? ETHNIC POLITICS AND THE NEW CITIZENSHIP	129
Immigrants to Ethnics: Constraints on Ethnic Citizenship and Difference	130
Contemporary Challenges	133
L'Affaire du Foulard: Creating the Affair	136
Defining the Drama	138
Managing the Affair	141
Conclusion	144
CHAPTER 8. NATIONALITY REFORM IN THE 1990s	147
Citizenship Reform, Membership Traditions, and the Political Process	156
Domestic Political Processes and Changes in Citizenship	158
Appendix A: State Agencies, Political Parties, Social Organizations, and Immigrant Associations at Which Interviews Were Conducted	161
Appendix B: Legislative Propositions to Reform the Nationality Code	163
Notes	165
Bibliography	195
Index	219