

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
1 French Ecological Fiction in the Classroom Roland Racevskis	21
2 George Sand's réalisme vert : Toward an Ecocritical Reading of Le meunier d'Angibault Annie Smart	41
3 The Deep Ecology of "Evil": Baudelaire and Holism James Whitlark	65
4 Acadia as Habitat: Environment and Identity in the Work of Antonine Maillet Douglas L. Boudreau	81
5 Ecocritical Pedagogy for Teaching Mariama Bâ's Une si longue lettre and Le Chant Ecarlate Marnie M. Sullivan	101
6 An Ecological Identity: Nature, Identity, and Poetics in L'Esclave vieil homme et le molosse Nathan Germain	123
7 Waste Treatment: Resource Recovery in Les Glaneurs et la glaneuse and La Clôture Laura Call	145

8	An Ecocritical Reading of Jean-Christophe Rufin's Le Parfum d'Adam	169
	Gilles Mossière
	Afterword	189
	Douglas L. Boudreau and Marnie M. Sullivan
	Index	199
	About the Contributors	209