

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abstract	i
Foreword by Geraldine Smith-Wright	iii
Acknowledgments	viii
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Chapter 2: Redefining Home: Mary E. Wilkins Freeman's Thwarted Escapes and Domestic Refuges	31
Jane Field	36
"Old Woman Magoun"	48
"The Revolt of 'Mother'"	54
"A New England Nun"	59
Chapter 3: "Little World[s]" and "Noble Landscape[s]": Spatial Imagery in Sarah Orne Jewett's Deephaven and The Country of Pointed Firs	69
Deephaven	73
The Country of Pointed Firs	90
Chapter 4: A Woman's "Right" Place: Confinement, Starvation, and the Need for Transformative Space in Selected Works of Rose Terry Cooke	113
"The Ring Fetter"	118

“Mrs. Flint’s Married Experience”	126
“Freedom Wheeler’s Controversy with Providence”	130
“Maya the Princess”	136
“My Visitation”	141
Chapter 5: Conclusion	145
Bibliography	155
Index	163