

Contents

Acknowledgments	x
1 Telegenic lawfare and warfare and the rhetorical framing of Gaza conflicts	1
2 Domestic and international critiques of Israeli policies in Gaza, 2000–2013	31
3 Occupational hazards and the evolutionary, rhetorical development of Israeli targeted killing rationales	66
4 Disengagement from Gaza, “institutionalized impoverishment,” and the biopolitics of Israeli pressuring of Gazans, 2005–2013	100
5 Arguing about the legality and legitimacy of Operation Protective Edge, 2014	120
6 Public diplomacy and the post-disengagement social media wars, 2005–2014	144
7 There are no “innocent civilians” in Gaza: coping with post-human framings of the Gaza Strip	182
Bibliography	214
Index	226