

Contents

Preface	8
1. The talent of teaching and the teaching of talent John Radford, Polytechnic of East London	9
2. Helping children to become highly competent adults: what can parents do? Michael J. A. Howe, University of Exeter and John Sloboda, University of Keele	26
3. Children and teachers in exceptional learning situations Hildur Ve, University of Bergen	39
4. The miracle of learning: What makes it happen at university? Ivar A. Bjørgen, University of Trondheim	52
5. Gaining insight in mathematics Audun Holme, University of Bergen	64
6. How students learn, and why they fail Noel Entwistle, University of Edinburgh	77
7. Talented achievements: a biographical perspective Ian M. L. Hunter, University of Keele	97
8. What makes achievers? Colin Berry, Polytechnic of East London	108
9. 2090 - now? Kjell Raaheim, University of Bergen	127
10. Concluding remarks John Radford, Polytechnic of East London	137