

CONTENTS

Foreword	v
1. What Is Language?	1
1. Some basic assumptions	1
2. The defining characteristics of language	3
3. Language and the study of its nature	9
2. Stress, Juncture, Pitch	13
1. The data and the method of analysis and presentation	13
2. Stress	14
3. Junctures	21
4. Pitch	26
3. Consonants	31
1. Introduction	31
2. Voice versus voicelessness	32
3. Closure versus constriction	33
4. Position of articulation in four-way distinctions	34
5. Some controversial classifications	36
6. Fixed position versus nonfixed position	39
7. Position of articulation in three-way distinctions	40
8. Lateral versus nonlateral consonants	41
9. Structural statements	41
10. Contrastive and redundant features	44
4. Phoneme and Allophone	47
1. The classification of sounds	47
2. Phonemes of the individual and the community	57
5. Vowels and Vowel Nuclei	62

6. Phonotactics	68
1. Distributional classes of phonemes	68
2. Phoneme clusters	69
3. Prevocalic consonant clusters	70
4. Prejunctural consonant clusters	77
5. Intervocalic consonant clusters	84
7. Morphemics	89
1. Morph, allomorph, and morpheme	89
2. Segmental morphs—first cuts	91
3. Segmental morphemes—second cuts and classification	94
4. Segmental morphemes—nonsequential occurrence	101
5. Stress morphemes	102
6. Pitch morphemes and superfixes	105
8. Morphotactics	115
1. Morpheme, word, phrase, and sentence	115
2. Types of segmental morphemes	119
3. The phonemic structure of segmental morphemes	129
4. Morphotactics of segmental morphemes	134
9. Inflection	138
1. Nouns	138
2. Pronouns	145
3. Verbs	152
10. Form Classes Marked by Derivational Morphemes	166
11. The Structure of Free Phrases	173
1. General phonological characteristics	173
2. Noun phrases	175
12. Verb Phrases, I
Two-Verb Constructions	191
1. Formal characteristics	191
2. Structural semantic components	205

13. Verb Phrases, II
Larger Constructions	217
1. Multiple-verb constructions	217
2. Verbal constructions containing nonverbal material	222
14. Modifying Phrases	230
1. Phrases syntactically and morphologically adjectival	230
2. Phrases syntactically and morphologically adverbial	239
3. Prepositional phrases	244
15. Main Sentence Elements, I
Subject and Subjectival	256
1. Juncture points and linkage of pitch morphemes in relation to sentence element boundaries	256
2. Simple subject and subjectival	259
3. Subject and actor	267
4. Complex subjects	269
16. Main Sentence Elements, II
Predicator and Predicative	273
1. Simple predicator and predicative	273
2. Complex predicator and predicative	275
3. Discontinuous predicator	276
4. Constituent analysis of predicators, and linear transcription	289
17. Main Sentence Elements, III
Complement and Adjunct	292
1. Single complement	292
2. Double complement	294
3. Complements containing adjectival material	299
4. Complements and adverbs	312
5. Complements and prepositional phrases	318
6. Adjuncts	329

x CONTENTS

18. Simple Sentences	336
1. Definition of sentence types	336
2. Junctures as sentence enders	337
3. The boundaries of pitch superfixes	343
4. Morphological types of simple sentences	347
19. Complex Sentences, I
Linking Devices other than Lexical	353
1. Sentence linking defined	353
2. Downgrading defined	357
3. Phonological linking and downgrading	362
4. Morphological and syntactic linking and downgrading	364
20. Complex Sentences, II
Lexical Linking and Downgrading	370
1. Pronominals	370
2. Prepositions and adverbs	390
3. Conjunctions	398
21. Beyond the Sentence	406
1. Stylistics	406
2. Semantics	409
3. Language and predictability	413
Appendixes	418
Appendix A
Eskimo: A Grammatical Sketch	419
1. Introduction	419
2. Phonemics	420
3. Phonotactics	422
4. Morphemics	424
5. Words and word classes	425
6. Verb forms	431

7. Semantic content of suffixes	435
8. Case suffixes and sentences	436
Bibliography	440
Appendix B
Latin	441
1. Phonemics	441
2. Graphemics	442
3. Phonotactics	443
4. Morphemics and morphotactics	446
5. Paradigmatic classes of words and fixed phrases	448
6. Verbs	464
7. Remaining classes of words	473
8. Latin sentence types	474
9. Syntax	475
Index	483