
CONTENTS

1	INTRODUCTION	1
	Two Approaches to the Scientific Study of Punishment	4
	Integration of the Two Approaches	19
2	BASIC CONCEPTS, DEFINITIONS, AND METHODS	23
	Punishment: Response Elimination or Response Suppression?	23
	The Language of Punishment	25
	A Prototypic Punishment Procedure	33
	Selection of the Punishing Stimulus	38

	Selection of the Behavior to Be Punished	48
	Past Learning, Maturation, and Punishment	53
3	THE EFFECTS OF PUNISHMENT	58
	Parameters of the Punishing Stimulus	60
	Positive Reinforcement Variables and Punishment	90
	Facilitation of Behavior by Punishment	103
	The Nature of the Punished Response	105
	Should We Punish for Incorrect Behavior or Reward for Correct?	115
	Theories of Punishment	124
4	SIDE EFFECTS OF PUNISHMENT	135
	Punishment and Aggression	136
	Escape from Punishment	149
	Punishment and Emotional Disturbance	156
	Punishment and Generalization of Suppression	167
	Conclusion	176
5	OTHER RESPONSE-SUPPRESSION TECHNIQUES	178
	Extinction	179
	Omission Training	181
	Vicarious Learning	187
	Reasoning	193
	Teaching Self-control	213
	Summary	222
6	OVERVIEW AND FUTURE DIRECTIONS: SOME THOUGHTS ABOUT PUNISHMENT	223
	The Nature of Punishment	223
	Durability of Punishment	227
	The Question of Integration	234

Future Directions	239
Ethical Considerations and Alternatives Reconsidered	249

REFERENCES	254
------------	-----

INDEXES	283
---------	-----

Author Index	285
--------------	-----

Subject Index	295
---------------	-----