

CONTENTS

Preface xix

CHAPTER 1 Introduction 3

What can the tools of political science tell us that we don't already know?

Understanding American Politics 5

Institutions 6

Collective Dilemmas and the Need for Government 9

Types of Collective Dilemmas 12

Collective Action Problems 12

Prisoner's Dilemma Situations 13

Coordination Problems 16

Comparing Collective Action Problems and Coordination Problems:

 Example from Voting 18

Unstable Coalitions 19

Principal-Agent Problems 21

Designing Institutions 23

In Comparison: Types of Government Institutions 25

Analyzing Politics and Government Using the Tools of Political Science 29

Further Reading 30

Key Terms 31

CHAPTER 2 The Constitution 33

How does the Constitution strike a balance between preserving order and protecting liberty?

What Do Constitutions Accomplish? 35

Origins of the American Political System 36

The Revolution 37

The Declaration of Independence 39
The Colonial and State Constitutions 40
The Articles of Confederation 40
The Constitutional Debates 41
Difficult Compromises 44

Institutional Features of the Constitution 46

A President as Executive 47
A Bicameral Legislature 47
An Independent Judiciary 48
Separation of Powers 49
Checks and Balances 49
Federalism with National Authority over the States 50
Reserved Powers for the States 51
Amending the Constitution 51

The Ratification Debate 52

Federalists versus Antifederalists 52
The Bill of Rights 54

In Comparison: National Constitutions 56

Constitutional Evolution 57

Relative Powers of the Branches of Government 57

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES The Constitution and Religion in Politics 58

National Power versus States' Rights 61
Direct Election of the President and Senators 62
Rights and Liberties 62

Consequences of the Constitution 63

DATA EXPLORATION The Costs and Benefits of a Longer Constitution 65

Further Reading 69
Key Terms 69

CHAPTER 3 Federalism 71

Why have the states and the American people allowed the federal government to become more and more powerful?

Federation and Confederation 73

Federalism as a Response to Collective Dilemmas 75

The Dynamics of American Federalism 76

The Courts and the Constitution 78

Toward a Stronger National Government 82

Progressive Era, 1896–1913 82
New Deal Era, 1933–52 82
Great Society Era, 1964–77 83
Recent Trends 84

Federal Financing 85

Federalism and Race 88

DATA EXPLORATION Where Does Federal Money Go, and Why? 89

State Governments 90

The Institutions of State Government 91

State Power 92

Local Governments 93

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Federal and State

Conflicts over Marijuana 94

Special Districts 96

In Comparison: American Federalism 97

Evaluating American Federalism 99

Avoiding Tyranny 99

Preserving Diversity 100

Fostering Competition 101

Promoting Unity and Experimentation 102

Negative Consequences of Federalism 103

Federalism as a Difficult but Important Balance 104

Further Reading 104

Key Terms 105

CHAPTER 4 Civil Rights and Liberties 107

What rights and freedoms do Americans have?

Defining Civil Rights and Liberties 109

The Origins of Rights and Liberties 110

The Special Role of the Courts 113

Race, Ethnicity, and Nationality 117

Slavery and African Americans 118

The Treatment of Immigrants 119

Other Failures 120

Popular Demands for More Rights 122

The Civil Rights Movement 122

Other Movements 124

Incorporating the Bill of Rights into the Fourteenth Amendment 126

Government Responses to Discrimination 128

Affirmative Action 131

Abortion Rights 132

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Access to What Others Have:

Rights of the Disabled 134

Rights Related to Sexual Identity 136

In Comparison: Rights and Liberties around the World 138

Why Protect Rights and Liberties? 142

Further Reading 145

Key Terms 145

CHAPTER 5 Congress 147

How do legislators rise above self-interest and the narrow interests of their districts to pass important legislation?

Congress and the Constitution 149

Bicameralism 150

Making Law 150

Congressional Elections 151

Causes of Individualism in Congress 152

Representing the District or State 159

Internal Institutions of Congress 165

An Increasingly Institutionalized Congress 166

Party Leaders 168

Committees 170

Other Internal Features 173

The Process of Lawmaking 176

Proposals 176

Referrals 176

Committee Action 178

Moving Bills to the Floor 178

Senate Distinctiveness 180

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES A Sit-In for Gun Control 182

Floor Action 184

Conference Committees 184

Presidential Signature 185

Making Law in a System of Separation of Powers 185

In Comparison: Legislative Institutions 186

DATA EXPLORATION! Does Gerrymandering Matter? 187

Analyzing Collective Dilemmas in Congress 188

Three Models for Analyzing Congress 190

Further Reading 196

Key Terms 197

CHAPTER 6 The Presidency 199

How and why has presidential power grown?

Sources of Presidential Power 201

Constitutional Bases of Presidential Power 201

Solving Collective Dilemmas and Principal-Agent Problems since the Founding 205

- Shaping the Modern Presidency 207
 - Nineteenth-Century Changes 207
 - Through the Twentieth Century and into the Twenty-First 210
- Enhancing Presidential Power through Military and Economic Means 214
- Today's Powerful Presidency 218
 - The Veto 220
 - Executive Orders, Executive Agreements, and Signing Statements 222
 - Appointments 224
 - INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Abortion Funding and the Use of Executive Orders 226
 - Solving Collective Dilemmas with Administrative and Financial Resources 228
- In Comparison: Executive Forms 232
 - DATA EXPLORATION The Politics of Executive Orders 235
- Checks on Presidential Power 236
 - Investigations and Impeachment 237
 - Electoral Pressures 239
 - Institutionalizing Presidential Power to Solve Collective Dilemmas 240
- Further Reading 240
- Key Terms 241

CHAPTER 7 The Bureaucracy..... 243

- Who controls the bureaucracy?
And does it work?
- What Is the Federal Bureaucracy? 245
- Why Do We Need a Federal Bureaucracy? 248
 - Solvers of Collective Dilemmas 248
- Principals and Agents in the Executive Bureaucracy 251
 - The Motivations of Bureaucrats 251
 - Bureaucracy's Principal-Agent Problems 252
 - Bureaucrats as Policy Makers 256
- How Has the Bureaucracy Changed? 258
 - The Early Years 258
 - Growth in Size 259
 - The Spoils System 261
 - Civil Service Reform 262
 - Modern Reforms of the Bureaucracy 264
 - Privatization and Marketization 267
- Shaping and Influencing the Bureaucracy 269
 - Appointments 269
 - Budgeting 270
 - Oversight 271
 - INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Bureaucratic Budget Battles 272

The Courts' Influence 274
Interest Groups 275

■ In Comparison: Bureaucratic Traditions 276

DATA EXPLORATION Do Bureaucrats Behave Differently than Elected Officials? 277

■ Two Views of Bureaucracy 278

The Progressive Vision of a Fair, Competent, and Impartial Bureaucracy 279

The Democratic Vision of a Bureaucracy Responsive to the Wishes of Politicians Elected by the People 280

Further Reading 282

Key Terms 283

CHAPTER 8 The Judiciary 285

Are the courts above politics?

■ Courts and Collective Dilemmas 287

Prisoner's Dilemmas 287

Coordination Problems 287

Independence and Legitimacy 288

■ Constitutional Basis 289

■ Establishing Judicial Power 290

Judicial Review 290

Supremacy of Federal Courts and Federal Law 293

The Court of Last Resort 294

■ Organization of the American Judiciary 297

Types of Cases 297

Standing and Class Actions 297

Federal Courts 298

State Courts and the Electoral Connection 299

Jurisdiction at the Federal and State Levels 301

Common Law and Legal Precedent 302

■ Path of a Supreme Court Case 303

Choosing Cases 304

Legal Briefs 305

Oral Arguments 306

The Conference 307

Opinion Writing 309

■ In Comparison: The Judiciary 311

Selecting Judges 311

Judicial Review 312

■ How Political Are the Courts? 313

Minority Rights versus Majority Rule 313

Analyzing Judicial Behavior 314

DATA EXPLORATION Ideology on the Supreme Court 315

Public Opinion, Congress, and the Federal Courts 317

The Politics of Judicial Appointments 318

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES The Politics and Strategies of Judicial Confirmations 322

Further Reading 324

Key Terms 325

CHAPTER 9 Public Opinion..... 327

What is the link between public opinion and politicians' behavior?

■ Public Opinion in a Democratic System 329

■ What Is Public Opinion? 330

The Challenge of Having Many Principals 331

■ Measuring Public Opinion 333

Early Attempts at Measurement 334

Random Sampling 335

Possible Biases 336

Alternative Methods to Surveys 340

■ Where Do Political Attitudes Come From? 341

Socialization 341

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Meta-Analysis:

A Response to the Cell Phone Era 342

Interests and Rationality 345

Group Attachments 347

Emotions 348

Influence of Elites 348

■ Predispositions 350

Ideology 351

Party Identification 353

Other Predispositions 354

■ Opinions on Policies and Politicians 355

Policy Opinions 355

Evaluations of Politicians and Government Institutions 357

■ Apathy and Lack of Knowledge 358

Rational Ignorance? 360

Apathy and Non-Attitudes 361

■ In Comparison: Public Opinion 362

■ Public Opinion and Policy Making 364

DATA EXPLORATION Income, Policy Preferences, and Outcomes:

Do the Rich Win? 365

Does Government Policy Follow Public Opinion or Vice Versa? 366

Further Reading 370

Key Terms 371

CHAPTER 10 Political Participation..... 373

Why do groups with the greatest interest in changing the status quo have relatively low turnout rates?

- Participation and Democratic Politics 375
 - Conventional and Unconventional Participation 376
- Collective Dilemmas in Participation 377
- Tallying the Costs and Benefits of Participating 380
 - Registering to Vote 381
 - Gathering Information 382
 - Voting 383
 - Participation beyond Voting 385
- INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Voter Turnout 386
- The Struggles for Voting Rights 389
 - Restricting the Right to Vote 389
 - Challenges to Reforms Intended to Increase Turnout 391
 - Removing Barriers to Voting 392
 - Group Struggles 393
- Patterns of Participation in the United States 395
 - Trends in Voter Turnout 395
 - The Demographics of Participation 397
- In Comparison: Political Participation 401
 - DATA EXPLORATION Does the Cost of Voting Affect Turnout? 405
- The Crucial Role of Institutions and Mobilization 406
 - Further Reading 409
 - Key Terms 409

CHAPTER 11 Interest Groups and Social Movements..... 411

How can well-organized, narrow interests influence government in ways that go against the preferences of a majority of Americans?

- What Are Interest Groups, and What Do They Do? 413
 - Inside and Outside Lobbying 417
 - Campaign Financing 419
- INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES The Costs, Benefits, and Politics of Tax-Exempt Status 420
- Collective Dilemmas and Interest Group Politics 424
 - Collective Action Problems 424
 - Overcoming Collective Action Problems 425
 - Coordination Problems 427
- Determining Interest Group Influence 428
- Social Movements 432
 - Deeper Analysis of Social Movements 437

- In Comparison: Group Politics 440
 - DATA EXPLORATION What Does Lobbying Look Like Up Close? 441
- Organized Forms of Public Pressure 442
- Further Reading 444
- Key Terms 445

CHAPTER 12 Political Parties 447

- Why are political parties and partisanship so widely criticized, but also so indispensable in a democratic system?
- What Are Parties? 449
 - Parties in Government 450
 - Parties as Organizations 456
 - Parties in the Electorate 461
- The History of the American Party System 464
 - The First Party System 464
 - The Second Party System 465
 - The Third Party System 466
 - The Fourth Party System 467
 - The Fifth Party System 469
 - The Sixth Party System 470
 - Understanding Transitions to New Party Systems 474
- Why Two Parties? 477
 - The Electoral System 478
 - National–State Political Relations 479
 - INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Sore-Loser Laws: Anti-Democratic, Smart Tactics, or Both? 480
 - Major-Party Actions 482
- In Comparison: Parties 482
 - Two Parties versus More Parties 482
 - Party Discipline 483
 - DATA EXPLORATION Do the Rich (Candidates) Get Richer? Fund-Raising and Political Parties 485
- Key Intermediate Institutions of Democracy 486
- Further Reading 487
- Key Terms 489

CHAPTER 13 Elections and Campaigns 491

- Do campaigns matter in national elections, and if so, how?
- What Do Elections Accomplish? 493
 - Determining Policy Direction and Ideology 493
 - Choosing Competent, Non-Corrupt Leaders 497
- American Electoral Institutions 500
 - State-Level Election Laws 501

Plurality Rule 504
Election Ballots 505
Direct Democracy 505

■ American Electoral Campaigns 507

Getting on the Ballot 507
Raising Campaign Money 510
Campaign Rhetoric and Prisoner's Dilemmas 515

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Caucuses and Primaries:

Who Goes First? 516
Campaigning with Modern Technologies 518
Voter Decision Making 522

■ In Comparison: Elections 525

Different Formal Electoral Institutions 525
Party-Centered, Ideological Elections 526

DATA EXPLORATION Which Candidates "Go Negative"? And When? 527

Limited Campaigning 528
Public Financing of Campaigns 528

■ Is There a Need for Reform? 529

Further Reading 531
Key Terms 533

CHAPTER 14 Mass Media and the Press..... 535

Is media bias a problem in American politics?

■ Mass Media and the Press in a Democracy 537

Providing Essential Information 538
Evaluating and Interpreting 538
Helping Solve Collective Dilemmas 539

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Verifying Political
Statements 540

■ Trends in Media and the Press 542

The Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries 543
Network Television Comes to Predominate 544
Rise of New Media 545

■ Mass Media Companies and the Profit Motive 549

■ Government Regulation 551

■ In Comparison: Mass Media 554

■ Are the American Press and Mass Media Biased? 556

Discerning Bias 556
Ideological versus Other Kinds of Bias 558
How Can Bias Occur? 560

■ Media Effects 561

Who Chooses Which Media Content and Why? 561

What Is the Effect of Specific Media Content? 563

DATA EXPLORATION Do Fact-Checking Organizations Change
Candidate Behavior? 565

Politicians and the Government as Sources 566

■ The Media as Principals and Agents 567

The Press and Mass Media as Principals 568

The Press and Mass Media as Agents 569

Further Reading 570

Key Terms 571

CHAPTER 15 Economic Policy 573

What can governments do about the economy?

Why do they sometimes favor one approach over another?

■ Government and the Economy: Ideas and Historical Trends 575

Prominent Economic Philosophies 575

Economic Policy in the Early United States 578

A Growing Role for Government 580

■ Benefits and Costs 583

Types of Public Goods 583

Externalities 585

■ Purposes of Economic Policies 585

Distributing Benefits 586

Redistributing Benefits 586

Stabilizing the Economy 587

Regulating Commerce 590

Promoting Economic Growth 592

■ Types of Policies 593

Monetary Policies 593

Fiscal Policies 597

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Independence and

Accountability at the Federal Reserve 598

Trade Policies 605

■ In Comparison: Economic Policy 608

■ The Politics of Economic Policy Making 610

DATA EXPLORATION Income Inequality and Politics 611

Further Reading 613

Key Terms 615

CHAPTER 16 Social Policy 617

Why are social policies

so controversial?

■ What Are Social Policies? 619

■ Historical Perspective 621

Social Policies at the State and Local Levels 621

The Growing Role of the National Government 623

■ Major Areas of Social Policy 626

Basic Provisions for the Poor 626

Social Insurance 628

Education 630

Health Care 631

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES Inequality in

Public Education: Roots and Reforms 634

Housing 636

Crime Prevention 639

■ Political Ideologies and Social Policies 642

■ In Comparison: Social Policy 645

DATA EXPLORATION: Who Deserves Social Services? 649

■ Interest Groups, Parties, and Social Policy Making 650

Collective Dilemmas among Sectors of Society 650

The Major Parties and Social Policies 651

■ Explaining Political Outcomes 652

Further Reading 654

Key Terms 655

CHAPTER 17 Foreign Policy 657

What tools does the United States have to craft foreign policy? When and why does it use them?

■ Collective Dilemmas and Foreign Policy 659

Domestic Dilemmas 659

International Dilemmas 660

■ Theories and Strategies of Foreign Policy 661

Realism 662

Idealism 662

Internationalism versus Isolationism 662

Unilateralism versus Multilateralism 663

The Democratic Peace as a Motivation 664

Contemporary Political Science Approaches 665

■ Historical Perspective 666

■ Tools of Foreign Policy 670

Basic Tools 670

Crisis Tools 677

■ Making Foreign Policy 682

Elected Leaders 682

Bureaucracies 683

DATA EXPLORATION: Who (Do the American People Think) Makes
Foreign Policy? 685

INTERESTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND OUTCOMES The Politics of
Military Base Closings 686

Domestic Political Pressures 689

■ Foreign Policy Doctrines 691

■ Domestic and International Constraints on Foreign Policy 692

Further Reading 694

Key Terms 695

Appendix A-1

The Declaration of Independence A-1

The Articles of Confederation A-5

The Constitution of the United States of America A-12

Amendments to the Constitution A-24

The Federalist Papers A-34

Glossary G-1

Credits C-1

Index I-1