

Contents

Foreword, vii

Preface, ix

CHAPTER 1 THE GIFTED AS AN AREA OF CONCERN 1

*Purposes of American education, 2 • The retarded bright children, 2
Society's need for the gifted, 4 • Educational provisions for the gifted, 5
Other factors affecting the gifted, 6*

CHAPTER 2 DEFINITION OF THE GIFTED 7

*Definitions and confusion, 8 • Factors affecting perception of the gifted, 10
Redefining the gifted, 11 • Generalization and symbol acquisition in the gifted, 14 • The task of the psychologist, 17 • Ascertaining cognitive capabilities, 23 • The gifted in terms of IQ range, 25*

CHAPTER 3	SOCIAL CONSIDERATIONS	28
	Social need for the gifted, 28 • Social expression of need—a brief history, 29 • The gifted as exceptional, 32 • Fluctuating demand for the gifted, 34 • The problem of elitism, 34 • The gifted in the social scene, 43 • Scholarships, 43 • Characteristics of the disadvantaged, 47 • Social perception of the gifted, 51 • Summary, 56
CHAPTER 4	PSYCHOLOGICAL CONSIDERATIONS	57
	Characteristics of the gifted, 58 • Intellectual characteristics, 60 • Socio-emotional characteristics, 74 • Physical characteristics, 84 • Educational characteristics, 86 • The gifted—a general perspective, 98 • Peerness, 99 • Communication, 101 • Motivation, 104 • Summary, 110
CHAPTER 5	PHILOSOPHICAL CONSIDERATIONS	112
	A philosophy of education, 113 • Defining education, 118 • A philosophy of education of the gifted?, 118 • Generalizations regarding society, 120 • Generalizations regarding the individual, 132 • Summary, 141
CHAPTER 6	SOME SPECIFIC PHILOSOPHICAL IMPINGEMENTS	142
	The “givens,” 142 • Program objective, 144 • The gifted pupil, 145 • The teacher of the gifted, 147 • Teaching methods and the gifted, 153 • The curriculum for the gifted, 164 • Administering the program for the gifted, 168 • Summary, 170
CHAPTER 7	EDUCATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS	172
	Background and developmental factors, 173 • Major programmatic considerations, 181 • Summary, 206
CHAPTER 8	ADMINISTRATIVE CONSIDERATIONS: I	207
	Personnel, 207 • Costs, 211 • Pupil and program evaluation, 222 • Summary, 234

CHAPTER 9 ADMINISTRATIVE CONSIDERATIONS: II	236
Early admission, 236 • Acceleration, 249 • Tracking, 262 • Special classes, 266 • Summary, 272
CHAPTER 10 INSTRUCTIONAL CONSIDERATIONS	274
Objectives, 274 • Program perceptions, 278 • Skill and content, 279 Acceleration and enrichment, 280 • Methodological considerations, 285 Summary, 290
CHAPTER 11 RURAL AND COMPENSATORY ASPECTS	292
The gifted in rural areas, 292 • Compensatory educational efforts, 300 Summary, 313
CHAPTER 12 RESEARCH	315
Research approach to the gifted, 315 • Research technique, 318 • Research on social need, 321 • Research on the gifted, 323 • Research on the education of the gifted, 333 • Summary, 342
CHAPTER 13 SUMMARY	345
The preaching-practice gap, 346 • In retrospect—hits and misses, 347 In prospect—needs and possibilities, 357 • Reprise, 368
CHAPTER 14 TOPICS FOR CONSIDERATION	370
Appendix A A Pupil-School Case History, 373
Appendix B One of the Ships That Passed in the Night, 384
Bibliography, 391
Index, 401	