

Contents

Introduction:
The Urban, the National, the Popular and the Global	1
1. Cities, Power and Modernity	7
2. National Foundations: Europe – Transforming Princely Cities	33
3. National Foundations: Settler Secessions	70
4. National Foundations: Nationalizing Colonialism	107
5. National Foundations: Reactive Modernization	147
6. People Rising: Popular Moments in Modern Urban History	165
7. Apotheosis of Power: Fascism and Kindred Dictatorships	211
8. The Coming and Going of Communism	236
9. Global Moments in National Cities	288
10. Envoi: Global Capital, The Future of National Capitals and of Their People	349
Endnotes	359
Index	389