

Contents

PREFACE

vii

Part I

PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND REFLECTION-IN-ACTION

- | | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 1 | The Crisis of Confidence in Professional Knowledge | 3 |
| 2 | From Technical Rationality to Reflection-in-Action | 21 |

Part II

PROFESSIONAL CONTEXTS FOR REFLECTION-IN-ACTION

- | | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 3 | Design as a Reflective Conversation with the Situation | 76 |
|----------|---|-----------|

v

| | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 4 | Psychotherapy: The Patient as a Universe of One | 105 |
| 5 | The Structure of Reflection-in-Action | 128 |
| 6 | Reflective Practice in the Science-Based Professions | 168 |
| 7 | Town Planning: Limits to Reflection-in-Action | 204 |
| 8 | The Art of Managing: Reflection-in-Action Within an Organizational Learning System | 236 |
| 9 | Patterns and Limits of Reflection-in-Action Across the Professions | 267 |

Part III

CONCLUSION

| | | |
|----|---|------------|
| 10 | Implications for the Professions and Their Place in Society | 287 |
| | NOTES | 355 |
| | INDEX | 365 |