

CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	7
CHAPTER I. Beginnings of New England Transcendentalism: Channing and the Unitarian Movement; Hedge and the "Trans- cendental Club"	18
CHAPTER II. Emerson: His Philosophical Attitude and Method..	25
CHAPTER III. The Philosophy of Emerson. Nature, the Over- Soul, and the Individual.....	33
CHAPTER IV. The Philosophy of Emerson, continued . The Theories of Evolution and of Emanation.....	40
CHAPTER V. The Philosophy of Emerson, continued . The Identity of Subject and Object.....	47
CHAPTER VI. The Epistemological Basis of Emerson's Philosophy: The Theory of Intuition.....	56
CHAPTER VII. The Religious Implications of Emerson's Philo- sophy: The Nature of God; Human Responsibility; Immor- tality	61
CHAPTER VIII. Emerson's Ethics: The Moral Law; Origin of the Virtues; Optimism	70
CHAPTER IX. Emerson's Contribution to Sociology: The Indi- vidual and the State; the Brook Farm Idea; Theory of Education	80
CHAPTER X. Emerson's Esthetics: The Meaning of Beauty; the Utility of Art	95
BIBLIOGRAPHY	105
INDEX	109