

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction: Looking Backward to Move Forward—Why Appreciating Tradition Can Improve Our Understanding of Modern Protest 1
Ilaria Favretto
- 2 “The Modernity of Tradition”: Popular Culture and Protest in Nineteenth-Century Germany 21
James M. Brophy
- 3 Charivari and the 1876 Italian Elections 45
Enrico Baroncini
- 4 Peasant Resistance Traditions and the Irish War of Independence, 1918–21 63
John Borgonovo
- 5 A Fight for the Right to Get Drunk: The Autumn Fair Riot in Eskilstuna, 1937 89
Stefan Nyzell

6 Italian Anarchism and Popular Culture: History of a Close Relationship Marco Manfredi	103
7 Persistent Repertoires of Contention in Portugal: From Tax Riots to Anti-communist Violence (1840–1975) Diego Palacios Cerezales	125
8 Carnavalesque and Charivari Repertoires in 1960s and 1970s Italian Protest Ilaria Favretto and Marco Fincardi	149
9 Popular Justice and Informal Politics: The Charivari in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century France Xabier Itçaina	185
10 Tactical Carnival and the Global Justice Movement: The Clown Army and Clownfrontational Protest Lawrence M. Bogad	209
11 Conclusion: Popular Culture, Folk Traditions and Protest—A Research Agenda Xabier Itçaina	229
12 Afterwords: Old and New Repertoires of Contention Donatella della Porta	249
Index	261