

Contents

Preface	ix
JILL KER CONWAY, KENNETH KENISTON, AND LEO MARX
The New Environmentalisms	i
I. HISTORICAL STUDIES
Introduction (JKC)	31
GREGORY NAGY
As the World Runs out of Breath: Metaphorical Perspectives on the Heavens and the Atmosphere in the Ancient World	37
DONALD WORSTER
Climate and History: Lessons from the Great Plains	51
STEPHEN J. PYNE
Consumed by Either Fire or Fire: A Prolegomenon to Anthropogenic Fire	78
JOHN F. RICHARDS
Only a World Perspective Is Significant: Settlement Frontiers and Property Rights in Early Modern World History	102
II. SOCIAL STUDIES
Introduction (KK)	119
RICHARD WHITE
Environmentalism and Indian Peoples	125
TERENCE TURNER
Indigenous Rights, Environmental Protection, and the Struggle over Forest Resources in the Amazon: The Case of the Brazilian Kayapo	145

BARBARA EPSTEIN

Grassroots Environmental Activism: The Toxics
Movement and Directions for Social Change 170

OLEG N. YANITSKY

Russian Environmental Movements 184

BINA AGARWAL

Gender and Environmental Action 206

III. THE QUESTION OF MODERNITY

Introduction (LM) 253

JILL KER CONWAY AND YAAKOV GARB

Gender, Environment, and Nature: Two Episodes in Feminist Politics 259

ANTON STRUCHKOV

Modernity and the Environment as a Public Issue in Today's Russia 279

LOUIS MENAND

Modernity and Literary Theory 305

LEO MARX

Environmental Degradation and the Ambiguous
Social Role of Science and Technology 320

Appendix 339

Notes on Contributors 345