

Contents

- 1 Introduction: History and the Heroines of Fiction 3

PART ONE

A Native Literary Tradition:

Harriet Beecher Stowe and Nathaniel Hawthorne

- 2 Renunciation in New England:
Harriet Beecher Stowe and The Minister's Wooing 27
- 3 Self-Culture: Margaret Fuller and Hawthorne's Heroines 49

PART TWO

The New England Girls

of William Dean Howells and Henry James

- 4 The Howells Heroine:
From The Lady of the Aroostook to April Hopes 83
- 5 Henry James and the New England Consciousness:
Roderick Hudson, The Europeans, Hawthorne 131
- 6 The Tragedy of Self-Culture: The Portrait of a Lady 168
- 7 New England in Extremis: The Bostonians 195

CONCLUSION 221

NOTES 227

INDEX 249