

Contents

Preface	xii
Shaun Gallagher
Notes on Contributors	xv
1 Introduction: On Living into the Future	1
J. Aaron Simmons
Part I Justice and Value	11
2 To the People Themselves: The Value of Phenomenology for Global Ethics	13
Stephen Minister
3 The Problem of the Other and the Ethics of Resistance: Confronting the Ethical Deadlock of Phenomenology with Jacques Lacan	33
Drew M. Dalton
4 Ross and Scheler on the Givenness and Unity of Value	55
J. Edward Hackett
	vii

Part II	Meaning and Critique	75
5	Meaning, Being, and Time: The Phenomenological Significance of Dooyeweerd's Thought Neal DeRoo	77
6	Mixing Fire and Water: A Critical Phenomenology Eric J. Mohr	97
7	Phenomenological Jurisprudence: A Reinterpretation of Adolf Reinach's Jarhrbuch Essay Kimberly Baltzer-Jaray	117
Part III	Emotion and Revelation	139
8	Emotion as the Animation of Value Frances Bottenberg	141
9	Phenomenological Distinctions: Two Types of Envy and Their Difference from Covetousness Michael R. Kelly	157
10	The Philosophy and Phenomenology of Revelation: A Primer on the Question William C. Hackett	179
Part IV	Embodiment and Affectivity	205
11	The Integrity of Intentionality: Sketch for a Phenomenological Study Matthew Ratcliffe	207

12	Affective Incorporation Giovanna Colombetti	231
13	Embodiment and Affectivity in Moebius Syndrome and Schizophrenia: A Phenomenological Analysis Joel Krueger and Mads Gram Henriksen	249
Part V	Pragmatism	269
14	Vitalism, Pragmatism, and the Future of Phenomenology Megan Craig	271
15	Intellectual and Ethical Inhibition: A Meeting of Pragmatism and Phenomenology Jason Bell	297
Part VI	Calling Phenomenology into Question	323
16	Is ‘Phenomenology’ a Family Resemblance Term? Tom Sparrow	325
17	The Slow Death of Phenomenology Paul J. Ennis	345
18	Have Reports of Phenomenology’s Death Been Greatly Exaggerated? Bruce Ellis Benson	365
Index		379