

Contents

List of tables and figures	vii
List of abbreviations	ix
Notes on contributors	xiii
Acknowledgements	xx
Editors' introduction to the series	xxi
Introduction: policy analysis in Belgium – tradition, comparative features and trends Marleen Brans and David Aubin	i
Part One: Policy styles and methods in Belgium	11
one The policy-analytical profession in Belgium David Aubin, Marleen Brans and Ellen Fobé	13
two Analytical techniques in Belgian policy analysis Ellen Fobé, Bart De Peuter, Maxime Petit Jean and Valérie Pattyn	35
three Political control and bureaucratic expertise: policy analysis by ministerial cabinet members Marleen Brans, Christian de Visscher, Athanassios Gouglas and Sylke Jaspers	57
Part Two: Policy analysis in the government and legislature	79
four Policy analysis in the central and regional governments David Aubin, Marleen Brans and Ellen Fobé	81
five Local planning in Belgium: A myriad of policy styles? Ellen Wayenberg, Min Reuchamps, Marine Kravagna and Catherine Fallon	107
six Policy analysis in the Belgian legislatures: the marginal role of a structurally weak parliament in a partitocracy with no scientific and political tradition of policy analysis Lieven De Winter and Wouter Wolfs	129
seven Policy advisory bodies in Belgium Ellen Fobé, Benjamin Biard, Nathalie Schiffino and Marleen Brans	151
Part Three: Policy analysis by political parties and interest groups	171
eight Ideas as close as possible to power: Belgian political parties and their study centres Valérie Pattyn, Steven Van Hecke, Pauline Pirlot, Benoît Rihoux and Marleen Brans	173

Policy analysis in Belgium

nine	Interest groups and policy analysis in Belgium: examining the policy-analytical capacities and practices of prominent citizen and economic groups Bert Fraussen, Nele Bossens, Alex Wilson and Michael Keating	193
Part Four: Policy analysis and the public		213
ten	Public consultation and participation in Belgium: directly engaging citizens beyond the ballot box? Jan Van Damme, Vincent Jacquet, Nathalie Schiffino and Min Reuchamps	215
eleven	The role of news media in the policy process in Belgium Baldwin Van Gorp and Dave Sinardet	235
Part Five: Policy analysis by advocates and academics		255 twelve	Thinking in splendid isolation? The organisation and policy engagement of think tanks in Belgium Bert Fraussen, Valérie Pattyn and Justin Lawarée	257
thirteen	Policy analysis by academics Marleen Brans, David Aubin and Valérie Smet	275
fourteen	Policy analysis instruction in Belgium Marleen Brans, David Aubin and Silke Ruebens	295
Index		311