Contents

1. The Application of Psychology to Industrial Organizations 1

Laboratory Exercise: Small Group Discussions 15

2. Causation in Behavior 17

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the Sewing Machine Operators 32

3. The Psychology of Attitudes 38

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the "Old Girls" 65

4. Frustration as a Factor in Behavior 69

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the Frustrated Supervisor 91

5. Morale and Group Processes 95

Laboratory Exercise: Practice in Discussion Leadership 120

6. Supervisory Leadership 122

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the New Truck 150

7. Individual Differences 154

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of Viola Burns 177

8. Measuring Proficiency 181

Laboratory Exercise: Sensitivity to Deception in an Interview 205

9. Selection and Placement 209

Laboratory Exercise: Matching People and Jobs 232

10. The General Nature of Psychological Tests 234

Laboratory Exercise: Discussion of the Criterion Problem 265

11. The Design of Jobs and Man-Machine Systems 268

Laboratory Exercise:
The Case of the Change in Work Procedure 294

12. Training in Organizations 300

Laboratory Exercise: Discussion Methods and Problem Solving 326

13. Basic Principles in Motivation 329

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the Storm Windows 352

14. Motivation and Work 357

Laboratory Exercise: The Risk Technique 389

15. Fatigue and Leisure 391

Laboratory Exercise: A Problem in Delegation 416

16. Psychological Fatigue and Job Interest 419

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the "Parasol Assembly" 444

17. Accidents and Their Prevention 449

Laboratory Exercise: The Case of the Safety Belt 475

18. Organizational Environment 480

Laboratory Exercise: The Promotion Interview 501

19. Psychological Factors in Labor Turnover 506

Laboratory Exercise: The Personnel Interview 525

20. Counseling, Interviewing, and Job Contacts 530

Laboratory Exercise: Marjory Winkler 563

21. Organizational Psychology 569

Laboratory Exercise: Problem Solving the Appraisal Interview 604

22. Problem Solving for Organizations 610

Index of Names 639

Index of Subjects 653