

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
Competence and Performance in Child Black English, Susan H. Houston	13
On the Beginnings of Black English in the New World, Joey L. Dillard	29
Black American English: Independent Motivation for the Auxiliary Hypothesis, Marvin D. Loffin	45
Some Principal Rules of Black English Phonology, Philip A. Luelsdorff	63
Uncle Sam's Library or Life among the Stacks, Mary-Louise Kean	83
Sociolinguistics and Context-Dependence, Bernard A. Mohan	91
Teaching Blacks to Read against Their Will, William A. Stewart	107
Dialect Mixture and Sorting out the Concept of Freshman English Remediation, Daisy Crystal	133
Freshman English Applications of Current Research in Black English, Burr Angle	145
The Interinstitutionality of Black Studies with English Literature, and Anthropology, John B. Mack III	155
Appendices
A. List of Participants	167
B. Standard English for Urban Blacks: Pronunciation , Philip A. Luelsdorff	169
C. An Annotated Bibliography of Works on and in Afro-American English with an Appendix on the History of Afro-American English in Literature and Linguistics , Mary-Louise Kean	177