

Contents

List of Illustrations	15
List of Abbreviations	17
Foreword	19
Introduction: Cultural Practices on Bali	23
The Island as a Temple	24
Performative space	25
Performative time	27
Identity as performance	28
The Emergence of Visuality	30
Wayang kulit	30
Dhalang	31
Musicians	34
Puppets	35
The artists' performances	38
Sekala and niskala	41
The emergence of visuality	44
The Emergence of the Other	45
Trance as a meeting with the Other – concentration on vision	46
The mask as a tool of possession – concentration on the external world	49
Cremation as Liberation	55

Chapter 1: On the Origin of the Performer	59
Bipedality	60
Ardi	60
The genesis of bipedality.....	62
Running	66
In praise of running	66
The runner's anatomy.....	68
Rhythm	71
Gesticulation	73
Pointing.....	74
Pantomime	76
Gesture as the origin of language	79
Mirror Neurons	83
Simulation	83
Mirror neurons in humans.....	86
Mimesis.....	87
Conclusions: Human beings as performers	89
 Chapter 2: Paleo-Performances.....	 91
Tools	92
Lucy and tools.....	92
A technological breakthrough and a cognitive leap.....	93
Performances that use tools	95
The functions of tools	97
Fire.....	98
The taming of fire	98
Cooking and brain development.....	99
Burying The Dead	101
Cannibalism	101
Sima de los Huesos, Spain	103

Body Performances	105
Female cosmetic coalitions	105
Performances in the Caves	107
Upper Paleolithic (around 40,000 to 10,000 years ago).....	107
The Chauvet Cave, France	109
Altered states of consciousness in the Lascaux Cave.....	117
Musical performances.....	122
Conclusions: Paleo-performances initiated transformations	125
 Chapter 3: On the Origins of Theater Structures.....	 127
Templum.....	129
The agricultural revolution.....	129
Göbekli Tepe in eastern Turkey	130
Domus.....	137
Performances of the living and the dead in Çatalhöyük	137
Çatalhöyük: domus as habitat	138
Çatalhöyük: domus as templum	141
Çatalhöyük: domus as necropolis	144
Théatron	150
The Temple of Dionysus	150
 Chapter 4: The Theater of Writing	 161
The Emergence of Writing.....	163
The World as Text: Mesopotamia	166
The writer's performances	166
Writing as cipher	169
The world as a text that can be manipulated	171
Text as Performance: Egypt.....	176
The words of god	176
Life after death	178
The transformations of Osiris	180

The Pyramid Texts.....	182
The Coffin Texts	184
The Book of the Dead	185
Papyrus from the Ramesseum	186
Alphabet: Greece	189
The invention of the “phoneme”	189
The Greek alphabet	191
The emergence of the actor	193
Chapter 5: Dance as a Source of Drama.....	199
The Paleolithic: The Dancer in the Animal Mask.....	201
The sorcerer.....	201
Imitating animals.....	203
The Neolithic: The Dance of the Simulacra.....	207
Greece: Mimetic Dance	212
Crete	212
Hexameters.....	216
Κωμαστάς.....	224
The Cult of Dionysus	231
Performances of transformation	231
The phallic procession	234
Dance as a Source of Greek Culture	238
Conclusion: Source Performances in a Time of Globalization	243
Tibet as an Energy Field	243
Pilgrimage as liturgy	244
Liturgical prostration	246

Performances of transformation 249

The Art of Assimilation and the Art of Isolation..... 250

Bibliography..... 253

Index 327