

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
“It Makes Princes of Those Who Have It”: Beauty and Consumerism in the Twentieth Century	1
Hartmut Berghoff and Thomas Kühne

Part I Basic Developments and Key Problems

1 The Global and the Local in the Beauty Industry: A Historical Perspective	25
Geoffrey Jones
2 Consuming Bodies: The Commodification and Technification of Slenderness in the Twentieth Century	41
Ulrike Thoms
3 Medial Beauty: Three Sociological Theses on Late Modern Body Aesthetics	61
Michael R. Müller and Anne Sonnenmoser
4 The Harm in Beauty: Toni Morrison’s Revisions of Racialized Traditional Theories of Aesthetics in The Bluest Eye	75
Althea Tait
5 Queer Beauty: Image and Acceptance in the Expanded Public Sphere	91
Jennifer V. Evans

Part II Cosmopolitan Attempts in Interwar Europe

6 Miss Germany, Miss Europe, Miss Universe: Beauty Pageants in the Popular Media of the Weimar Republic	111
Mila Ganeva

7	Recognition for the “Beautiful Jewess”: Beauty Queens Crowned by Modern Jewish Print Media Kerry Wallach	131
8	The Rise of Fashion Forecasting and Fashion Public Relations, 1920–1940: The History of Tobé and Bernays Véronique Pouillard	151
9	“The Beauty Soap of Film Stars”: Lux Toilet Soap, Star Endorsements, and Building a Global Beauty Brand Christina Burr	171
10	Beauty, Cosmetics, and Vernacular Ethnology in Weimar and Nazi Germany Uta G. Poiger	191
Part III Appropriations and Agency in Africa and Asia
11	Contesting Beauty Concepts in Precolonial and Colonial Kenya: Hierarchy, Resistance, and Identity Christiane Reichart-Burikukiye	215
12	Imported Surgeries? Accounting for the Rise of Tehran’s Nose-Job Industry Sara Lenehan	233
13	Embodying Modernity: The Thrills and Ills of Being a Beautiful Woman in Tanah Karo, North Sumatra Karin Klenke	249
	Index	269