

Contents

Part I Theorizing the Practice of Citizenship

What Is the Use of an Ethical Theory of Citizenship? . . . . .	3
David Thunder
Varieties of Citizenship and the Moral Foundations of Politics . . . . .	13
William English

Part II Citizenship and Attachment

Civic Motivation and Globalization: What Is It Like to Be a Good Citizen Today? . . . . .	29
Simon Keller
The Affective Dimension of Citizenship: A Platonic Account. . . . . .	49
Emma Cohen De Lara

Part III Citizenship and Conscience

Conscientious Citizenship: Arendt and Aquinas on Conscience and Politics . . . . .	65
Angela C. Miceli Stout
An Ethical Defense of Citizenship . . . . .	85
David Thunder

Part IV The Ethics of Citizenship in a Multicultural Society

Confucian Citizenship of Shared Virtue . . . . .	105
David Elstein

From Social Practices to Reflective Agency: A Postsecular Ethics of Citizenship .....	127
Paolo Monti
Liberal Citizenship and the Search for an Overlapping Consensus: The Case of Muslim Minorities .....	145
Andrew F. March	