

Table of contents

Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu In Memoriam	VII
Introduction
Issues in contrastive valency studies Lars Hellan, Andrej Malchukov and Michela Cennamo	1
Part I. Argument coding: Case theory and case/valency frames
Multiple case binding – The principled underspecification of case exponency Werner Abraham and Elisabeth Leiss	27
Infinitives: A comparative German-Norwegian study Dorothee Beermann	83
A labeling system for valency: Linguistic coverage and applications Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu and Lars Hellan	109
Non-canonical valency patterns in Basque, variation and evolution Denis Creissels and Céline Mounole	151
Part II. Valency rearranging alternations
Exploring the domain of ditransitive constructions: Ditransitive splits and ditransitive alternations across languages Andrej L. Malchukov	177
Cognate constructions in Italian and beyond: A lexical semantic approach Chiara Melloni and Francesca Masini	219
Object omission and the semantics of predicates in Italian in a comparative perspective Michela Cennamo	251
On animacy restrictions for the null object in Brazilian Portuguese Sonia Cyrino	275

Part III. Voice and valency changing (uncoded/coded) alternations and markers
Between Passive and Middle: Evidence from Greek and beyond Leonid Kulikov and Nikolaos Lavidas	297
Valency alternations between inflection and derivation: A contrastive analysis of Italian and German Livio Gaeta	327
Pronominal verbs across European languages: What Spanish alternating pronominal verbs reveal Ismael Iván Teomiro García	375
Semantic constraints on the reflexive/non-reflexive alternation of Romanian unaccusatives Adina Dragomirescu and Alexandru Nicolae	407
Circumfixed causatives in Polish against a panorama of active and non-active voice morphology Anna Malicka-Kleparska	431
Language index	471
Subject index	473