

Content

Acknowledgements	VII
----------------------------	-----

Annette Jünemann, Nicolas Fromm and Nikolas Scherer

The kaleidoscope of migration.

Theoretical perspectives and conceptual considerations	1
--	---

Migration: Legal, economic and political determinants

Parastou Hassouri

Challenging established categories and exploring intersections.

A critical assessment of common notions in migration discourse	11
--	----

Mehdi Lahlou

Pourquoi part-on de façon irrégulière d'Afrique ?

La pauvre Afrique vs l'opulente Europe	23
--	----

Ummuhan Bardak

Root causes and changing patterns of migration

in the Mediterranean	35
--------------------------------	----

Gerasimos Tsourapas

The politics of Egyptian regional migration.

Examining autocratic cooperation processes in the Arab world	51
--	----

EU migration policies: An ambiguous picture of “Fortress Europe”

Michael Köhler

Comprehensive crisis management 73

Jan Claudius Völkel

When Interior Ministers play diplomats.

Fatal ambiguities in Europe’s securitised migration policy 83

Catherine Teule

Droits de l’homme et migration dans les relations euro-méditerranéennes.

Les principes européens ont sombré en Méditerranée 105

Germany’s integration debate: Migration as a societal challenge

Naika Foroutan

Ambivalent Germany.

How to deal with migration, Muslims and democracy 123

Hannes Schammann

Reassessing the opinion–policy gap.

How PEGIDA and the AfD relate to German immigration policies 139

Jana Sinram

‘I am not a racist, but ...’

The phenomenon of hate comments on refugees in Germany and how to deal with them 159

Annette Jünemann

Emotions matter.

Fear and (non-)empathy in German reactions to the “refugee crisis” 167

Contributors 185