

---

Contents

---

Contributors	vii
1 Introduction: rivalry and cooperation in football	1
CHRISTIAN BRANDT, FABIAN HERTEL
2 The pacts, the death of the Pope and boycotts: the modes of cooperation in Polish football fandom	17
RADOŚLAW KOSSAKOWSKI, ŁUKASZ BIESZKE
3 Divided in colours, united in course? Rivalry and solidarity of supporting fans in Germany	33
PATRICK BRESEMANN, GABRIEL DUTTLER
4 Building a supporters' culture and 'growing the game': cooperation between soccer supporters' groups in North America	48
MARKUS GERKE
5 Rivalry, passion and cooperation between Argentinean club supporters	62
VERÓNICA MOREIRA, JOSÉ GARRIGA ZUCAL, NEMESIA HIJÓS
6 Brazil's organised football supporter clubs and the construction of their public arenas through FTORJ and ANATORG	76
BERNARDO BUARQUE DE HOLLANDA, ROSANA DA CAMARA TEIXEIRA
7 The criminalization of Mexican football fans and the emergence of the 'Movement of United Mexican Supporters'	92
ROGER MAGAZINE, SERGIO FERNÁNDEZ GONZÁLEZ

8	Torcida and Bad Blue Boys: from hatred to cooperation and back	108
	BENJAMIN PERASOVIĆ, MARKO MUSTAPIĆ
9	Never the twain shall meet? The lack of united effort between Scottish fans against the Offensive Behaviour Act 2012	125
	SEAN HUDDLESTON
10	Zimbabwe United? Exploring cooperation and contestations in the context of national football team fandom in Zimbabwe	142
	MANASE KUDZAI CHIWESHE
11	Istanbul United: a short-lived experience of agonistic pluralism	158
	EKIN CAN GÖKSOY, OKAN YILMAZ
12	The unlikely alliance of Ukrainian football ultras	170
	MARYNA KRUGLIAK, OLEKSANDR KRUGLIAK
13	Final remarks	185
	CHRISTIAN BRANDT, FABIAN HERTEL
	Index	197