

Contents of Volume I

Part I The Emergence of Democracy in Bands and Tribes

Section 1 Band Society: Campfire Democracy with Informal Leadership Roles

1	Civilizational Peculiarities Versus Ideal Typicalities	5
2	Social Structure and Conflict Groups	9
	The Band	9
	Territory	9
	Alliances: Reciprocal Exogamous Marriage	11
	Band Versus Family	12
	The Pairing Family and Private Property	13
	Hunting and The Rise of the All-Male Discussion Council.....	14
	Primitive Democracy	14
	Monopoly of Weapons and Despotism	15
	Control of Gathering Groves and Water Holes and Further Undermining of Female Status	15
	Political Status of the Old	16
	Political Status of The Young	18
	Notes	19
3	Political Institutions	21
	Campfire Democracy	22
	The Popular Assembly	22
	The Male Council	22
	The Principle of Unanimity	24
	Rules for Group Cohesion	26
	Legislative Processes	26
	Judicial Processes.....	27
	Policing	28
	Leadership.....	29
	Types of Human Leadership	29
	Task, Charismatic, and Power Leadership	33
	Charisma: Democratic or Despotic?	36
	Charisma: Transferable, Heritable, Manufacturable, Institutionalizable?.....	37

	Types of Leadership in Band Society	40
	Dispersed Leadership.....	40
	Notes	43
4	Legitimacy	45
	Rational and Irrational Legitimacy	45
	Rational Components of Legitimacy	45
	Participation, Limitation, and Law	46
	Excursus on Rational Legitimacy Components and Democracy	49
	Reciprocity Versus Usurpation.....	50
	Irrational Components of Legitimacy	51
	Charisma, Manufactured Charisma, Ideological Manipulation, Cooptation, and Coercion.....	51
	Excursus on Irrational Processes of Legitimation and Despotism.....	52
	Legitimacy: Conclusion	53
	Notes	53
5	Economy and Polity	55
	Production and Distribution of Food	55
	Everyday Gathering: Individual Production, Pairing-Family Distribution	56
	Choice Gatherings and Water Supply: Communal Distribution with Male Guardianship	57
	Communalism Versus Private Property.....	58
	Coexistence of Democracy and Equality	60
	Notes	62
6	Warfare and Religion	63
	Notes	64
Section 2 Tribal Society: Clan and Tribal Democracy
7	Civilizational Peculiarities Versus Ideal-Typicalities	67
8	Social Structure and Conflict Groups	69
	A Wholly New Form of Social Organization.....	70
	The Clan as Key Tribal Sodality	70
	Clan Residence Rules	71
	New Residence Rules and Composition of the Band	72
	The Phratry.....	73
	Notes	74
9	Political Institutions	75
	Kinship Democracy: The Council of the Clan.....	75
	The Right of Electing the Headman.....	76
	Elective Versus Hereditary Headmanship, and Gerontocracy	77
	The Right of Deposing Headmen	78
	Clan Justice: Judiciary and Policing	78
	The Right of Adopting Strangers into the Clan	79
	The Tribal Level of Socio-Political Organization	80

	Possession of a Territory	80
	Possession of a Name.....	81
	Kinship Democracy	81
	Form of the Tribal Council	82
	The “Democratic” Assembly Surrounding the Tribal Council	83
	Unanimity	84
	Investing and Deposing Clan Headmen	85
	The Tribal Headman	86
	Charismatic Leadership	86
	Notes	87
10	Horticulture, Matrilineal Clans, and the Rise of Status and Power of Women	89
	Women’s Power Expanded Through Control of Inheritance	90
	Horticulture, Fertility Religion, and Female Shaman.....	91
	Women’s Power Rises in the Matri-Clans, But Not in the Tribe at Large.....	92
	Notes	93
11	Warfare and Politics	95
	Early Military Expeditions.....	95
	Organization of Warriors.....	97
	Military Fraternities	97
	The Warrior Fraternities as an Internal Police Force	98
	The Status of Women in Warrior Oriented Tribal Societies	101
	Notes	102
12	The Confederacy of Tribes	105
	The Iroquois Confederation	105
	The Rise of the War Chief.....	107
	The War Chief as Elective Office in the Period of Confederation	107
	The Two War Chiefs.....	107
	Paramount Chieftancy.....	108
	Notes	109
13	Tribal Games	111
14	Religion and Politics.....	115
	The World of Dreams.....	115
	The Religious Reality Structure.....	115
	The First Theodical Answer.....	117
	The Birth and Function of Ritual and Taboo	117
	Men and Women of Religion	118
	The Rise of the Shaman	120
	The Birth of the Witch Doctor	122
	The Shaman Against the People	123
	The People Retaliate against Shaman	123
	Limits to the Shaman’s Power	124
	Notes	126

15	Legitimation Processes	127
	Rational Processes	127
	Irrational Processes	128
16	Economy and Polity	131
	Notes	133
17	Conclusions on Band and Tribal Societies	135
	Some Impediments to Despotism in Band and Tribal Societies	135
	Warfare and Its Effect	135
	Extreme Economic Scarcity	139
	Communal Economics	141
	Leadership	143
	Limitation of Power	145
	Separation of Powers in Tribal Society	146
	Rational Legitimacy Processes as Inhibitors to Despotism ...	147
	Crises of Integration	148
	Social Change and Its Effects upon Democracy and Despotism	148
	Group Conflict and Its Effect Upon Democracy and Despotism	152
	Impediments to Pure Democracy	155
 Section 3 Horticultural Villages Tribes: Matri-Clans and the Rise of Theoretic Priesthoods
18	Civilizational Peculiarities Versus Ideal-Typicalities	159
	From Nomadic Hunting Tribes to Sedentary Horticultural Villages	159
	From Hunting to Gardening: One Possible Line of Development	159
	The Collapse of Tribal Political Institutions Under the Impact of Horticultural Village Conditions	160
	Civilizational Peculiarities	162
19	Social Structure and Conflict Groups	163
	Horticulture	163
	The Old Kept Alive	163
	The Puberty Institution as Power Base of the Elders	164
	The Shaman and the Elders Unite	164
	From Puberty Institution to Theocratic Secret Society	165
	Elders' Use of Puberty Rituals to Subordinate Boys	165
	Terrorization of Boys by Old Men and Shaman	165
	Food for Elders, Taboos for Initiates	166
	Emergence of the Gerontocratic Theocratic "Secret Society" ...	166
	The Age-Graded Hierarchy	167
	Elaboration of Puberty Rituals: From Circumcision to Scarification and Tattooing	167
	Gerontocratic Nature of Horticultural Society	168
	Notes	168

20	Religion and Politics	171
	The Rise of Religious Ideology and Leadership.....	171
	Fetishes, Masks, and Idols	172
	Creating a Masked Spirit Official	173
	Expansion of Shaman Fraternities into Hierarchical Organizations	174
	Establishing Succession to Shamanistic Offices.....	174
	Theocracy Emerging	175
	Notes	176
21	Women and Politics in Horticultural Societies	179
	The Expanding Economic Role of Women and Its Political Ramifications	179
	Women and the Mystique of Creativity	179
	Women's Secret Societies	181
	Women's Sexuality, Orgasm, and Childbirth.....	181
	Women's Political Power: Conclusions	183
	Horticulture and the High Status of Women—The High Priestesses in the Middle East and Asia Minor.....	183
	Notes	184
22	Warfare in Horticultural Village Societies	185
	Warfare.....	185
	Men's Lowered Status and Its Effect on Warfare.....	185
	A War Chief's Territorial Jurisdiction.....	187
	The War Chief: A Specially Privileged Role	187
	Limitation of Warfare Achieved by Shaman-Elders	188
	War Chiefs Succession Controlled by Elders	189
	Notes	190
23	Political Institutions: Theocratic Despotism	191
	Structure of the Gerontocratic-Theocratic Organ of Government	191
	Lower and Middle Age Grades and Offices.....	192
	From Kinship Democracy to Theocratic Despotism.....	193
	The Special Role of the High Priest and Priestess	194
	Judiciary and Policing in the Cult-State.....	194
	Clan Retribution Superseded by Shaman-Elder Power	195
	Use of the Lesser Masked Officials as a Police Force	196
	Continuity of Office Through the Mask.....	197
	Clan and War Chief Continue at the Local Level	197
	Political and Economic Centralization.....	198
	Scarification and Tattooing as Marks of Political Unification ...	198
	Age-Sets as a New Political Sodality Institution	199
	Economics Corvee Labor.....	200
	Potential Basis for a New Military Organization.....	201
	Ritualized Warfare Plus Charismatic Champions	201
	Defensive Warfare Elaborated.....	202
	Sacrifice, Cannibalism, Slavery	203
	Notes	205

24	Legitimation Processes	207
	Irrational Processes Emerge as Dominant	207
	Rational Processes	209
	Some Notes on Horticultural Societies, and India	210
Section 4 Pastoral Herding Tribes, Patri-Clans, and the Rise of the Military Kingship
25	Civilizational Peculiarities Versus Ideal-Typicalities	213
26	Herding Tribes, Patri-Clans, and the Rise of the Military Kingship	215
	Pastoral Herding Tribes, Patrilineal Clans, and the Rise of the Military Kingship	215
	Herding Tribes Had to Keep Moving with Their Herds for Pasturage and Water	216
	Warfare Amongst Herders and the Rise of Patriarchal Clans	217
	The Reinforcement of Patri-Clans by Analogy with the Herding Animals	217
	Patriarchal Clans Alter the Tribal Democracy	217
	The Popular Assembly Becomes a Warriors' Assembly	218
	The Rise of the Military Kingship	218
27	Social Structure and Conflict Groups	221
	Intensification of Warfare	221
	Reorganization of Warfare Institutions	222
	Training the Regiments	223
	War Dances as Training Devices	223
	From Throwing Spear to Stabbing Sword:
	The Myth of Excalibur	224
	The Beginnings of Total War	225
	The New Total Warfare	226
	Total Warfare as a Terror Tactic to Force Surrender	227
	Centralization Through Conquest	227
	Expansionary Militarism, Tribal Migrations, and the Chain of Annihilation	227
	Terror Against One's Own Troops	228
	The Warfare Society	229
	Warrior Ecstasy and the Berserk Warrior Syndrome	231
	The Linking of Sex and Violence	232
	Notes	233
28	Warfare, Women, Religion, and Politics	235
	Emergence of a War Economy	235
	The War Economy and Private Property	236
	Individual Accumulation of Cattle	237
	Women as Private Property	237
	Heritable Private Property Among Pastoral Warriors	238
	The Emergence of Patrilineal Clans	238
	Notes	240

29	The Political Institutions of Herding Society:
	Despotic Military Kingship	241
	The King's Retinue: The Base of His Power	241
	The King's Court.....	242
	The Creation of Local Officials Superseding the Clan Associations and Linked Directly to the King and His Court	243
	The King's Local Officials as Precursors to the Bureaucrats	243
	The King's Polity Backed by the Power of His Military Retinue	243
	The Local Bureaucrats as the King's Tax Collectors	244
	The New System of Justice and Judiciary: Kingly Decree Replaces Customary Law	245
	The King Versus the Military Commanders: Centralization Versus Feudalization.....	245
	The King's Harem.....	246
	Harem Politics: Sexual Exploitation Turned Against the King: Female Court Politicians	246
	The King's Mother as a Power in the Realm: Mother-Son Psychic Attachment	247
	Harem Guards and Their Relationship to Court Politics	248
	Notes	249
30	Military Kingship and State Violence	251
	The Use of Naked Force	251
	The Reification of Power	252
	The Dehumanization of the Internal Polity.....	252
	Institutional Demands and Leadership Personalities	253
	Notes	256
31	The Legitimacy Processes of Herding Societies	257
	The Rational Processes of Legitimacy Repressed	257
	The Irrational Processes of Legitimation	258
	Notes	260
32	Economy and Polity	261
	The Rise of Private Property from War Booty and Its Link to Aristocracy	261
	Note.....	262
33	Some Impediments to Democracy in Horticultural and Herding Societies	263
	Warfare and Its Effects on Democracy and Despotism in Horticultural and Herding Societies	263
	Some General Conclusions on the Relationship Between Warfare and Despotism	265
	Economic Surplus and Its Effect on Democracy and Despotism in Horticultural and Herding Societies.....	266
	Some General Conclusions on Surplus Wealth and Despotism.....	268

The Destruction of the Separation and Limitation of Power in Horticultural and Herding Societies and the Rise of Despotism	270
The Irrational Processes of Legitimacy and Despotism in Horticultural and Herding Societies	271
Crises of Integration and the Breakdown of Order	273
Social Change and Its Effects on Democracy and Despotism in Horticultural and Herding Societies.....	273
Anarchic, Anomic Violence Versus Manipulated Order	274
Notes	276

Section 5 Conclusions: The Paradoxes of Tribes

34 The Paradox of Tribes	279
Humans as Humans.....	279
The Paradox of Tribes.....	279
Kings and Warrior Aristocrats.....	280
From Mystical Shaman to Theocratic Priests	281
Tribal Elders: From Gerontocracy to Plutocracy	282
The Rise and Fall of the Status of Women: Horticulture vs. Warfare.....	283
Democracy and Despotism in Post-Tribal Societies.....	284
Conclusions.....	285
A Note on: China, India, the Moslem Middle East and Ancient Egypt.....	286
Conclusions.....	288
Notes	288

Part II From Tribal Society to City-States in the Ancient Middle East

Section 6 Mesopotamia: Vestiges of Tribal Democracy in the City-States, and the Rise of the Kingly-Bureaucratic State

35 Introduction to the Middle Eastern Grain, Agricultural, and Animal Herding Societies	295
The World's Earliest Grain Agriculture and Pastoral Herding Societies	295
Gender and the Two Modes of Production	296
Pastoral-Herding and Male Dominant Societies.....	298
Notes	300
36 Democracy in the Sumerian City States: The Assembly, the Elders, and the King	303
Primitive Democracy in Sumer.....	303
The Council of Elders and the Popular Assembly of the Male Warriors in Sumer.....	304
From Tribal Democracy to City-State Democracy in Sumer.....	306
The Counsel of Elders.....	308
The Popular Assembly of Male Citizens	309

	Debates in the Popular Assembly of Sumer No Rhetoric, No Majority Vote – The Unanimity Principle of Tribes.....	311
	The Democratic Assembly as the Judiciary: Public Trials in the Sumerian City-States	312
	Notes	313
37	Projections of the Tribal Assembly in the World of the Sumerian Myths	315
	Wise Words, Discussion, and the Unanimity Principle	317
	The Assembly of the Gods as a Court of Law	318
	The Elders Versus the War-King	319
	Gilgamesh, the War-King, Advised and Constrained by the City Elders.....	320
	Notes	323
38	The Status and Role of Women in Ancient Sumer	325
	Did the High Priestess Participate in the Popular Assembly or the Council of Elders?	325
	Horticulture Vs. Pastoralism in the Early Civilizational Development of Sumer	325
	The Fertility Religion and the Power of Women	327
	Clan Matriarchs, Priestesses and Polyandry in Sumerian Society.....	329
	Beyond the Fertility Goddess: Other Powerful Goddesses in the Sumerian Pantheon	333
	Nammu, Mother of Creation: Vaginal Images of Creation	333
	Ki, Mother Earth	334
	Goddesses of Learning and Healing	336
	Inanna-Ishtar, the Fertility Goddess, Her Myths and Her Priestesses Remain Central	336
	Monotheism: Death-Knell of the Female Deity.....	338
	The High Priestess of Sumer: Enheduanna.....	341
	From High Priestess to Queen	343
	The First Woman King?.....	344
	The Deterioration of the Role of Women in Mesopotamian Society.....	344
	Did Women Participate in the Popular Assembly?	345
	Notes	346
39	The Emergence of the Temple Economy Overseen by Priests and Priestesses in the River-Flood Areas	349
	Why Did Male Priests Direct Riverflood Agriculture?.....	350
	The Rise of an Organized Priesthood	352
	The Temple Economy in Sumer: Corvee Labor Teams Overseen by Priests.....	355
	The Temple and the Priests	355
	Notes	356
40	The Rise of the Kingship: Expansionary, Genocidal Warfare	359
	The Democratic Assembly Elects the War-Leader	359

	The Intensification of Warfare: From War-Chief to Hero-King	361
	The Warrior-Hero Becomes A Tyrant	363
	Gilgamesh the Hero Becomes Gilgamesh the Tyrant	365
	Notes	365
41	From the Theocratic State to the Kingly-Bureaucratic State	367
	From Priests to Kings: From “En” to “Lugal”	367
	The War-Kings Separate Their Power from the Temple Economy	369
	Expansionary Warfare and the Rise of the Lugal War Leaders	369
	Military Technique Improves: Heavy-Armored Regiments.....	370
	The Kingly State Engenders Class Distinctions	370
	The Warfare State and the Decline of the Power and Status of Women	371
	The Kingly-Bureaucratic State and the Decline of Democratic Processes	373
	Rebellion and Reform: The Attempted Social Reform Movement Against the Kingly-Bureaucratic-State	374
	Continuing Military Conquests: The Reforms Overridden.....	375
	Sargon the Great: Conquest and Centralization.....	376
	The Permanence of the Kingly-Bureaucratic State.....	376
	Revolution Against Sargon’s Successors	377
	The King Becomes a God	378
	The Barbarian Invasions and the Last Revival of the Sumerian City-State	379
	The Third Dynasty of Ur: The Kingly-Bureaucratic State Becomes Institutionalized	380
	From Priests to Secular Bureaucrats: From Ensis to Viziers (“Mandarins”).....	381
	The Decline of the Free Citizenry and the Rise of Class Distinctions	382
	The Secularization of the Bureaucrats and the Crisis of Legitimacy	383
	Notes	385
42	The Reform Movements and the Ethic of Social Justice	387
	Codes of Law and Social Justice Before Hammurabi.....	388
	Hammurabi’s Code: Social Justice Plus Harsh Punishments	391
	The Babylonian Class Structure as Exhibited in Hammurabi’s Code: Degrees of Free Citizenry and Slavery	393
	Hammurabi’s Marriage Law: Monogamy, Polygamy, and the Lowered Status of Women	395
	Crime and the Death Penalty in Hammurabi’s Code: An Eye for an Eye, a Tooth for a Tooth	396
	King Hammurabi: The Power and Authority of the Kingly-State Extended.....	397

	Putting the Courts in the King's Power.....	397
	The Kingly-State Attempts to Take Control of the Temple Economy and Merchant Activity	398
	Notes	399
43	The Pastoral Tribal Invasions and the Partial De-Legitimation of The Kings.....	401
	The Waves of Pastoral Invasions.....	401
	The Continuing Existence of Tribal Pastoral Peoples on the Periphery of Civilization	401
	Tribal Chiefs Become Kings.....	402
	Notes	403
44	The Revival and Expansion of the Private Economic Sector in Mesopotamia	405
	The Merchants as Land Grabbers and Usurers	406
	The Merchants as Highly Respected City Fathers.....	407
	The Merchant Cities of Mesopotamia and the Return to Older, More Democratic Political Institutions.....	410
	The Continuing Presence of the Council of Elders and the Assembly of Citizens in Old Babylonia	412
	Notes	416
	Section 7 Vestiges of Tribal Democracy and the Rise of Commercial Oligarchy in the City-States of Syria, Canaan and Phoenicia
45	The Early Agricultural City-States	421
	The Lack of River-Flood Agriculture and the Absence of the Large Scale Kingly-Bureaucratic State.....	422
	Specialized Agriculture and Animal Husbandry	422
	Caravan Commerce and Craft Production	423
	Tribal and Linguistic Origins of This Region	423
	Commercial City-States and Pastoral Tribes	424
	Trade and Trepidation: Egypt and Mesopotamia Dominate the West Semitic City-States	425
	The Political Structure of the West Semitic Speaking City-States.....	425
	The Politics of Pastoral Tribes	427
	The Tense Symbiosis Between the City-States and the Pastoralists.....	428
	Notes	430
46	The City-State, Ugarit: A Great Coastal Trading City.....	431
	The Political Structure of Ugarit.....	432
	The Rise of the Amorite Kingship	432
	Notes	434
47	West Semitic Myths and Legends.....	435
	El, the Father God, and the Divine Council	436
	El as the Father-God and Creator of All Things	438
	El as the Patriarch of the Pastoralists	438

	The Council of the Gods in the Canaanite Myths.....	439
	Baal: The War God, the Storm God.....	440
	The Dying and Resurrected God.....	440
	Baal as Hero-Warrior Who Becomes King.....	441
	Death and Resurrection Ideology.....	443
	The Death and Resurrection of Baal.....	444
	The Political Implications of the Death and Resurrection Ideology.....	446
	The Sacrificing of Children to the Flames of Moloch.....	447
	Anat: Goddess of Fertility and War.....	448
	The Fertility Goddesses and the High Status of Canaanite Women.....	449
	Notes.....	451
48	Ebla.....	453
	The Economy of Ebla: Specialized Agriculture, Craft Industries, and Caravan Trade.....	454
	Agriculture and Animal Husbandry.....	455
	Warfare and Trade.....	459
	The Role of the Pastoralists in War and Commerce.....	460
	The Political Organization of the City-State of Ebla: The Elders and the Free Citizens.....	461
	From Tribal Elders to Merchant City Fathers: Gerontocracy Yields to Wealth-Oligarchy.....	462
	Military Expansion and Military Governors: The “Lugals”.....	462
	The Early Monarchy at Ebla: Limited Tenure, Limited Power.....	464
	Ebrium: The First True King of Ebla—And the Last.....	465
	The Secular Sovereign at Ebla.....	465
	The Bureaucracy at Ebla.....	466
	The Religion of Ebla.....	467
	The Status of Women at Ebla.....	468
	Notes.....	470
49	The Political Structure of the Canaanite City-States: Monarchy and Merchant Oligarchy.....	473
	The City Council: The Council of Elders.....	474
	The Merchant Oligarchy at Ugarit and Ebla (and Byblos).....	475
	Notes.....	476
50	From Canaanites to Phoenicians.....	479
	The Hurrian Charioteers and the Hyksos Invasion of Egypt.....	479
	The Egyptian Repression.....	480
	The Hittite Empire.....	481
	The Hapiru Movement: Runaway Citizens, Pastoralists, and the Demand for Social Justice.....	481
	The Decline of the Power and Prestige of The Canaanite Kingship.....	483
	The Invasion of the Sea Peoples.....	484
	The Invasion of the Hebrews.....	485
	The Influence of the Sea People on Canaanite Culture.....	485

	Who Were the Sea People	485
	The Story of Wen Amon, The Egyptian Trading Emissary	487
	The Phoenicians Improve the Boats of the Sea People.....	488
	The Improved Craft-Goods of the Phoenicians	488
	The Alphabet.....	490
	The Rise of Sidon and Tyre.....	490
	Notes	494
51	The Political Institutions of the Phoenician City-States.....	495
	The Revival of the Kingship After the Fall of the Hittites and Settlements of the Sea Peoples.....	495
	Merchant and Artisan Wealth Leads to Political Oligarchy.....	496
	The Phoenician City-States: Monarchy and Merchant Aristocracy	497
	The Assyrian and Babylonian Expansion and the Second Decline of the Phoenician Kingship	499
	The Merchant Oligarchy Takes Over the Offices of State	499
	The Suffettes and Magistrates: Leaders and Judges	501
	The Persians Push the Phoenicians Further to Sea	502
	The Social Structure and Form of Government
	During the Persian Period	504
	Alexander the Great, the Siege of Tyre, and the Tyrian Political Structure.....	505
	The Political Institutions of the Phoenician City-States Under the Hellenistic Rulers.....	507
	The Abolition of the Phoenician Kingship in the Hellenistic Era	508
	The New Political Structure of the Phoenician City-States and the Hellenization of the Upper Class	508
	The Revolt of the Poorer Citizens at Arvad	510
	The Roman Takeover	511
	Notes	512
52	Carthage.....	515
	Introduction.....	515
	The Myths of the Foundation of Carthage.....	515
	The Carthaginians Compete with the Greeks: Establish A Huge Mercenary Army.....	518
	From Kings to Generals: From Kingship to Elective, Tenure-Limited Generalship	519
	The Elimination of Kingship and the Threat of Tyranny	520
	The Carthaginian Constitution	522
	The Suffettes	524
	A Democratic Evolution in Carthage?.....	525
	Aristotle on the Constitution of Carthage	528
	Democracy at Carthage.....	529
	Wealth-Oligarchy at Carthage.....	530
	Emigration De-Fuses the Possible Trend Toward Democratization.....	532
	Notes	533

53	Religion and Women in Phoenician Society	537
	Carthaginian Religion: Canaanite Cultural Unity and Political Bonding.....	537
	Death and Resurrection Still Central	538
	The Sacrifice of Infants and Children Through the Flames	539
	Phoenician Religion: Social Unification and Political Control	540
	The Goddess Astarte: Sexuality, Re-birth and Joy.....	541
	The Women of Phoenicia and Carthage: Jezebel, Athalia, and Elisha.....	543
	Notes	546
	Section 8 Israel: From Pastoral Tribalism to Mosaic Monotheism to Monarchy and After Babylon to Theocracy
	Introduction: The Bible as History and Myth.....	547
	Notes	549
54	The Pastoral Origins of the Hebrews: “Those Who Crossed the River”	551
	The Religion of the Pastoral Hebrews: The Gods of the Patriarchs and Their Ancestral Fathers	554
	The Political Organization of the Pre-Egyptian Patriarchal Period.....	556
	Notes	557
55	Egypt and the Hebrews	559
	The Collective Memory of the Hyksos Invasions of Egypt.....	559
	The Egyptian Memory of the Hyksos Event.....	560
	Manetho’s Account	561
	Notes	563
56	Egypt After the Hyksos Invasion: The New Kingdom and the New Religious Ideas	565
	The Eighteenth Dynasty and Monotheism.....	565
	The Hyksos Again.....	566
	The New Kingdom 18th Dynasty: Warrior-Kings, Matriarchal Wives, and the Amun Priesthood.....	567
	The Religious Conflict: Amun vs. Re and Thebes vs. Memphis.....	568
	The Amun Priesthood Becomes Too Powerful: The Role of Hatshepsut.....	569
	Tuthmose III: A Warrior-King Again	571
	Akhenaten and the Religious Upheaval	572
	From Akhenaton to Ramesses II	576
	Notes	576

57	Creation and the Supreme Deity in the Theology of Egypt	579
	The Primitive Creation Myths.....	580
	The Emergence of a More Sophisticated Cosmology.....	580
	The Hermopolitan Theology	581
	The Memphite Theology.....	581
	The Universal Cosmology of Heliopolis	582
	The Theology of Thebes	583
	The Theology of Amun-Re	584
	Akhenaten and the Attempted Eradication of the Amun Priesthood and Their God	586
	Akhenaten Attempts to Eradicate the Worship of All Other Gods.....	589
	The Reaction Against Akhenaten’s Theology and Politics	590
	King Tut Restores Amun and All The Gods and Goddesses.....	590
	Notes	591
58	The Hebrews Enter the Nile Delta	593
	Evidence of the Primitive God, “YAH”	593
	The “Shasu” and the Egyptians.....	594
	Notes	596
59	From Joseph to Moses	597
	Moses and His Egyptian Enculturation.....	599
	Moses in Egypt: The Origin Myth and the Legends	600
	Moses and His Midianite Enculturation	602
	Moses Discovers the “God of the Fathers”	603
	The Exodus from Egypt.....	604
	Moses and the Hebrews in Kadesh: The New Name for the New Land	606
	Moses in Kadesh: The Ritual and Political Organization of the New Tribal Confederation	607
	Jethro, Moses and the New Political Structure of the Israelite Confederation.....	608
	The Opposition to Moses	610
	Religious Rebellion Against Moses.....	611
	The Rebellion of the Golden Calf	613
	The Installation of the Levis as Priestly Enforcers of the New Faith.....	614
	The Levites Compared to the Celtic Druids and Persian Magi the Druids.....	615
	The Magi.....	616
	The Ten Commandments and the Covenant with the Israelites	617
	Moses and Monotheism: The First Three Commandments	618
	The Strict Moral Code of the Ten Commandments	620
	The Third Commandment and the Elimination of Magic from the Mosaic Religion	621

	Moses and Monotheism: Is the God of the Ten Commandments a Tribal God or a Universal God?.....	622
	The Covenant Between God and the Israelite Confederation....	623
	The Mark of the Covenant: The Circumcision of the Boys After Birth.....	624
	Notes	626
60	Israelite Tribal Confederation Enters Canaan.....	629
	Joshua's Farewell Speech to the Tribal Assembly	629
	The Israelite Tribal Confederation	630
	The Confederation of the Twelve Tribes.....	632
	The Slow and Difficult Conquest of the Land of Canaan	633
	The Unique Political Structure of the Israelite Tribal Confederacy	635
	The Levite Priests Establish a "Guild"	638
	The Levites as Priests, Teachers, and Guests of Each Israelite Tribe	639
	The Evolution Towards Rational Torah Interpretation Amongst the Levites	640
	Notes	642
Section 9 The Kings and Prophets in the Land of Canaan
61	The Rise of the Monarchy	645
	The Rise of the Monarchy.....	645
	The Sea People and the Israelite Tribal Confederation.....	645
	The Transition from the Charismatic Shofetism To the War Kings.....	647
	The Israelite War Organization under the Tribes and the Shofetim	647
	The Philistine War Organization	648
	From Samson to Samuel to Saul.....	650
	Samuel: The Last Shofet.....	651
	Saul: The First Military King of Israel.....	653
	Pre-Cursors to Saul's Kingship	655
	The War-Kingship	656
	David and Jerusalem: The Transition from Military Kingship to Traditional Monarchy.....	657
	Samuel and David: The Davidic Line Becomes The Holy Line of Israelite Kings	659
	David with the Philistines	660
	David Creates a Professional Army on the Philistine Model....	661
	Jerusalem: The Capital and the Holy City of God.....	661
	Traditional Kingship Emerges: Secular Officials, Temple Priests, and Corvee Labor	662
	The Secular Bureaucracy	664
	David Annihilates Saul's Descendants and Other Rebellious Factions	665
	The Royal Succession not Institutionalized: Absalom, vs. Solomon	665

	Solomon Completes the Transition to Traditional Monarchy....	666
	Solomon Builds the Temple: Jerusalem Becomes the Holy City of God.....	667
	The Administrative Structure of Traditional Monarchy Borrowed from Tyre and Egypt	668
	The Corvee: Forced Labor not Unlike Egyptian Slavery.....	669
	Notes	672
62	The Prophets: Moralistic Monotheism, Social Justice, and the Doomsday Theodicy	675
	Elijah: The First Prophet of Doom.....	677
	Isaiah: The Ethic of Social Justice	678
	The Prophets Hark Back to Moses and the Covenant.....	680
	The Assyrian Military Expansion and the Prophecy of Doom	680
	The Kings vs. the Prophets	681
	The Kingly State as Illegitimate in the Eyes of the Prophets	683
	The Prophets Condemn the Powerful of the Court and the Rich of the Cities.....	683
	The Prophets Against the Temple Priests.....	684
	The Prophecy of Doom Comes True: The Assyrians at the Gates.....	685
	Yahweh Becomes a Universal God: The God of Punishment and the God of Hope for All the Nations	686
	The Universal God, and the Judgement Day	687
	The Anointed One, the Savior, the Messenger From God: The Messiah	688
	Notes	689
	Section 10 The Babylonian Exile: The Return and the Establishment of the World's First Pure Theocracy
63	The Babylonian Exile.....	693
	Life in Babylonia for the Judean Exiles.....	695
	The Exiles Retain Strict Religious Purity: Theocratic Authority Emerging	696
	Deuteronomy and the Priestly Historians: Moses, the Covenant and the 613 Laws	696
	The Babylonian Theodicy and the Book of Job: Why Is the Good Man Punished?	700
	Notes	703
64	Return from Exile: Theocracy Established	705
	The Prophecy of Salvation and Ezekiel's Call for a Theocracy of the Remnant.....	705
	The Persian Conquest of Babylon and the Freeing of the Jews.....	706
	Nehemiah and Ezra: The New Judaism and a Theocratic Form of Government.....	708
	Nehemiah's Social Reforms.....	709

Nehemiah's Social Reforms Inspired by the Utopian Vision in Deuteronomy	710
Nehemiah's Religious Reforms	710
The Ban on Intermarriage	711
Ezra: The Religion of Moses Reestablished	712
The Great Assemblies of Ezra, "The Second Moses"	712
Priests, Levites, and Theocracy	714
Prophecy Banned by the High Priests of the Theocracy	715
Rational Bible Scholars: From Levites to Rabbis	717
Notes	719

Section 11 Monotheism vs. Polytheism: Human Self-Consciousness, the Domination of Nature, and the Valuation of Human Life

65 Monotheism and the Jews	723
The Superiority of Judaic Monotheism over Ancient Polytheism.....	725
The Moral Superiority of Judaic Monotheism.....	725
The Elimination of Magic and Superstition from Judaic Religion.....	726
Persian Dualism vs. Jewish Monotheism.....	728
Judaic Monotheism vs. Hindu and Buddhist Transcendental Meditation.....	728
Notes	729
66 The Status of Women in Societies Embracing a Patriarchal Monotheistic God.....	731
The Monotheistic God as a Male God	731
Yahweh as Synchronistic with El and Baal.....	732
Yahweh and His Asherah, the Mother-Goddess, the Queen of Heaven.....	733
The Jewish Women's Secret Religion: The Ongoing Worship of the Mother of Heaven.....	736
Yahweh and His Asherah	736
Jeremiah in Exile in Egypt and the Problem of the Mother Goddess.....	737
Pure Monotheism Is Established After the Babylonian Exile	738
The Diaspora and the Rise of the Rabbis.....	738
Notes	739

Contents of Volume II

Part III Greece

Section 12 Pre-Greek Civilizations and Mycenaean Civilization

67	Minoan and Mycenaean Civilizations	745
	The Absence of Riverflood Agriculture	745
	The Eruption of the Volcano on Thera and the Fall of Minoan Civilization	747
	Plato and the Legend of the Lost Civilization in the Midst of the Sea	750
	The Rise of Mycenaean Palace Civilization with the Fall of Minoan Crete	752
	The Rise of Mycenaean Civilization.....	754
	Writing Imported from Crete.....	754
	The Linear B tablets of Pylos.....	755
	The Political-Military Power Structure and the Specialized Classes of Mycenaean Greek Society	756
	Warriors and Kings	756
	Notes	758
68	The Expansion of Mycenaean Greek Civilization	759
	Introduction	759
	The Expansion of the Mycenaean Trading Network	759
	The Great Wars of the Aegean and Eastern Mediterranean	760
	The Encounter with the Hittites	760
	The Sea Peoples' Coalition	762
	The Two Invasions of Egypt	763
	Another Battle with the Hittites	764
	The Invasion of Mainland Greece by the Northern Tribes: The Dorians.....	764
	The Trojan War	765
	Notes	769
Section 13 The Collapse of Mycenaean Civilizations and the Re-Tribalizations of Greece
69	The Doric Invasions and the Regression to Tribalism	773
	The Decline of Export Agriculture and the Regression to Stock Raising and Subsistence Agriculture	775

	Regression to Tribalism	776
	The Dorian Tribal States Doric Overlordship: Serfdom for the Indigenous Peoples; Warrior Assemblies and War Chiefs for the Doric Conquerors.....	778
	Sparta	779
	Other Doric Conquest Settlements Show a Similar Pattern.....	782
	Notes	783
70	Doric Tribalism and the Culture of Greece and, Doric Tribalism and the Revival of Mycenaean Tribalism During the Dark Age.....	785
	Doric Patrilineal Succession Slowly Established in All Parts of Greece.....	786
	Sparta and Its Tribal Political Organization.....	788
	Tribal Initiation of the Boys into the Male Warriorhood and Homosexual Bonding.....	796
	Women, Late Marriage, Lesbian Love, and the Procreation of Great Warriors.....	798
	Notes	802
71	Doric Religion.....	805
	Apollo: The God of the Initiate Youths (“Epebes”).....	806
	Zeus, the Father God.....	807
	Artemis: Apollo’s Twin Sister, Goddess of the Initiate Maidens.....	809
	The Return of the Heraklidai	810
	Hermes: Swift as the Wind, the Messenger God, the Ithyphallic God, the Trickster God	811
	Notes	813
72	The Olympic Games: Doric Tribal Culture Engenders a Pan Hellenic Cultural Complex.....	815
	The Origins of the Olympic Games.....	815
	The Events at the Olympic Games and Other Major Competitions.....	818
	The Footraces.....	819
	Wrestling.....	821
	Boxing.....	822
	The Pentathlon	825
	The Chariot Races.....	826
	Non-Athletic Competitions.....	829
	Team Sports	830
	The Naked Games and the Homoerotic Culture of Greece	831
	Women and the Olympic Games	837
	The Naked Olympic Competitions and Social Equality.....	842
	The Olympic Games Foster a Pan Hellenic Culture But Also City-State Competition	844
	Notes	845

Section 14 The Heavy Armored Phalanx and the Democratic Revolution

73	From Aristocratic Champions to the Phalanx of the Common Men	851
	Two Divergent and Monumental Changes in Warfare	852
	Assyria and the Perfection of the Mass Army	852
	The Assyrian Expansion and the Military Innovations It Generated.....	854
	The Assyrian Influence on Greek Armor	856
	From Aristocratic “Champions” to the Phalanx of the Common Men	858
	The Ritualized Tribal Warfare at the End of the Dark Age.....	859
	The Emergence of Phalanx Fighting in the Peloponnese	861
	The Full Fledged Hoplite Phalanx Emerges	862
	Hoplite Phalanx Battles: “Othismos” “The Shoving”	865
	The Classical Era Hoplite Phalanx	867
	The Middle Class Hoplite	867
	The Typical Middle Class Hoplite	869
	Notes	871
74	The Cavalry Aristocrats—“Hippeis,” and Their Declining Role in Mainland Greek Warfare	873
	Greek Cavalry	873
	The Dark Age Aristocratic Cavalry.....	873
	Cavalry and Horse Breeding in Thessaly	875
	Notes	877
75	Sparta: The Re-Crudescence of Tribal Democracy on a Hoplite Base	879
	The Reforms in Sparta and the Egalitarian Ethos: In War Economics	879
	The Process of Democratization in Sparta in Historical and Structural Detail	880
	Land Distribution	881
	The Decline of the Kings	881
	The Messenian War and the Second Land Distribution	882
	The Hoplite Phalanx Military Revolution and Its Effect on Sparta.....	882
	The “Great Rhetra” and the Legitimization of the Lycurgian Reforms by Delphi.....	884
	The Defeat of Hysiai and the Split Between King Theopompos and King Polydoros.....	885
	The Amendment to the Great Rhetra and the Aristocratic Counter-Revolution.....	885
	The Defeat of the Argives and the Spartan Military Mystique.....	886
	The Rise of the Ephorate: Democracy Emerges in a Unique Institutional Form.....	887

	The Full Flowering of the Ephorate as a Democratic Institution	889
	The Council of Nobles Becomes the Council of Elders; Tribal Primitive Democracy Restored at Sparta	890
	Democracy Denied to the Helots But Granted to the Perioeci: The Ephors Against the Helots	891
	Spartan Democracy as a Revival of Tribal Democracy, But on a Hoplite Base	894
	Notes	898
76	The Spartan Women: Economic Control, Sexual Liberation, and Olympic Athletics	901
	Managing the Economy	901
	Women at the Gymnasium: Olympics for Women	902
	The Spartan Women and Sexual Liberation.....	903
	Did Spartan Women Have Political Influence over Their Husbands?	905
	Notes	906
77	Some Notes on the Democratization of Argos and Crete	907
	Argos.....	907
	Crete.....	908
	The Serfs and the Women of Crete	910
	Notes	912
78	The Political Paradox Involved in the Transition from the Tribe to the City-State: The Greek Case	913
	Warrior Egalitarianism.....	914
	The Warrior Aristocracy: Royal Clans Descended from Gods	914
	The God-Like Aristocratic War-Leaders of Greece Develop Pan-Tribal Links Through Intermarriage and “Guest Friendships”	915
	Notes	918
Section 15 The Re-Civilization of Greece
79	The Revival of Trade in the Aegean Region.....	921
	The Ionians of Euboea and Phocaea Follow the Phoenicians West: The Phoenicians as Mentors and Competitors	923
	The Doric Tribes Settle Sicily and Southern Italy	925
	The Rise of the Commercial Culture: Trade Capitalism in Greece	926
	The Role of the Aristocracy in-Archaic Era Trade	928
	The Expansion of Greek Overseas Trading	930
	Phoenician Influence on Greek Trade	930
	Ship Owners, Merchants, and Master Craftsmen	931
	The Independence and Competitiveness of Greek Merchants and Artisans.....	932

	Artisan Production and Resident Aliens or “Metics”	935
	Slave Labor	937
	Coined Money.....	938
	Banking in Greece.....	940
	Notes	944
80	Trade and the Changing Class Structure of Greece	947
	The Trade Capitalist Expansion and the Rise of Rich Merchants, Bankers, and Master Craftsmen	948
	Solon’s Reforms and the New Wealth-Based Class Structure	949
	The New Trade Capitalist Rich: Indigenous Citizens Plus Foreign Residents.....	953
	Slavery in Greece.....	956
	Humane Slavery in the Golden Age.....	957
	The Bad Treatment of Slaves	958
	The Slave Economy	959
	Slave Industry	960
	The Rise of the Middle Classes Middle Class Farmers	961
	Middle Class Craftsmen.....	963
	The New Poor	965
	Notes	966
Section 16 The Rise of the Greek City-States
81	The Rise of the Greek Trading Cities	971
	The Rise of the Greek City State in the Archaic Era	971
	Influence of the Phoenician City-States on the Greek Polis, and Major Differences	973
	No King, No Priests, No State Bureaucracy: The Greek Social Classes Face Each Other with Traditional Legitimacy Eliminated	977
	Notes	977
82	The Transition from Tribal to City-State Political Organization	979
	Trade-Capitalism Breaks Up the Small Family Farms and Undermines Aristocratic Status (by Birth).....	979
	The Constitution of Athens Details the Rise of Wealth Oligarchy and the Poorer Peoples’ Reactions Against It	981
	Trade Capitalism Disrupts the Traditional Aristocratic Domination.....	982
	Enter Solon, 594 B.C.E.....	983
	Solon Saves the Poor and Middling Farmers from Debt-Slavery and Quiets the Revolt of the People.....	984
	Solon Divides the Population by Economic Classes Based on Property and Wealth (Not Birth)	985
	Solon’s Compromise Constitution Was Not Fully Accepted	986
	Tyranny in Athens	988

	The Democratic Reforms of Kleisthenes: From Tribal to City-State Structures of Government.....	992
	The Breaking of the Power of the Traditional Royal Clans and Phratries	992
	The Fear of Tyranny and the Institution of Ostracism	994
	The Areopagus Disbanded and the Courts Put in the Hands of the People	995
	Notes	996
83	The Rise of Democracy in Syracuse	999
	Syracuse: The War with Carthage and the 10,000 Mercenaries.....	999
	Gelon, the Hero-General, Becomes Tyrant of Syracuse	1000
	The Syracusan Democracy and the Problem of the 10,000 Mercenaries.....	1000
	The “Moderate” Democracy of Syracuse	1002
	A Deeper Look at the Transition from a Moderate to a More Democratic Polity in Syracuse	1003
	A Final Look at the Establishment of Democracy in Syracuse and the Widening of its Class Base	1004
	The Invention of the Art of Rhetoric.....	1007
	Notes	1008
84	A Note on Democracy in Kroton and Korinthos.....	1009
	A Note on Korinthos	1011
	Notes	1013
85	Class Conflicts in the Greek City States During the Era of Expansionary Trade.....	1015
	The New Upper Class: Wealth Plus Education.....	1015
	Education and Rhetoric Give Power and Legitimacy to the New Wealth Upper Class at the Assembly and the Law Courts	1017
	Rhetoric: Teaching and Competitive Debate	1019
	The Gymnasium and the Apollo-Like Body	1021
	The Middle Class: Hoplite Soldiers, Cash Crop Farmers and Craftsmen	1022
	Aristotle’s Theory of the Middle Class as the Stabilizing Class in a Democratic Polity.....	1025
	The Poor: Enslaved and Then Empowered in the Greek City-States.....	1028
	The Trireme Warship Enhances the Democratic Demands of the Poor.....	1030
	The Socio-Political Context in Which Greek Class Relations Occurred: No Kings, No Priests, No State Officials, No Mercenaries	1033
	Notes	1036

86	Conclusions on the Causes of Democracy in Greece: The Hoplite Phalanx Military Innovation, and, the Trade-Capitalist Economic Revolution	1039
	Conclusions on the Causes of Democracy in Greece: The Hoplite Phalanx Military Innovation and the Trade Capitalist Economic Revolution	1039
	The Hoplite Phalanx as the First “Cause” of Democracy	1040
	Tribal Democracy in a Newly Re-constituted Form	1040
	Trade Capitalism as a Second “Causality” of Democracy in Greece	1041
 Section 17 The Full Flowering of Greek Democracy
87	The Ideology of Equality and Democracy	1047
	The Emergence of the Ideology of Equality in Greece.....	1047
	Homer and Sappho Reinforce the Ideology of Godly-Aristocracy	1048
	Hesiod and Xenophanes Sing the Virtues of the Middling Man and Attack the Aristocrats.....	1050
	A Marx-Weber Dialogue on the Development and Impact of Ideology on Social and Political Structure	1053
	The Emergence of the Strong Principle of Equality	1053
	The Ideology of Equality and Communism.....	1057
	The Ideology of the Middle Class Man and Democracy	1061
	The Reinforcement of the Ideology of Equality	1062
	The Ideology of Good Birth, “Eugeneia” vs. the Ideology of Equality, “Isonomia”	1063
	Guest Friendship Ties as Treason: The People Against the Elite	1065
	Notes	1066
88	The Rise of Legal Authority in the Greek City States	1069
	From Customary and Religious Law to Secular Rational Law in Greece.....	1069
	Tribal Customary Law with Elders as Judges.....	1069
	Priestly Law, Kingly Decrees, and the Religious Law Codes of the Middle East.....	1071
	Kingly Decrees and Kingly Bureaucrats.....	1071
	The Great Religious Law Codes	1072
	Secular Contract Law for the Trade Capitalist Merchants and Artisans.....	1072
	The Independence of the Trade Capitalist Classes in the Greek City States	1074
	Equality Before the Law: Democratic Jury Courts with Secular, Rational, Oratorical Debates.....	1074
	Trial by an Assembly of Democratic Citizens and Judges (Jurors)	1075
	Wealthy, Leisured, “Aristocratic” Rhetors Dominate the Law Courts as Competitive Debaters.....	1078

From Religious and Customary Law Codes to Rational Constitutional and Civic Law Codes	1082
Trade Capitalism Expands and Contract Law Becomes Institutionalized.....	1086
Contract Law.....	1086
The Emergence of Constitutional Law	1087
The Rise of the Rational-Scientific World-View and Its Merger with Legal Authority: The Discovery of the “Laws of Nature”	1089
Legal Authority Institutionalized	1090
Legal Authority Extends into the Hellenistic and Roman Eras .	1092
A Note on the Theory of Legitimation.....	1094
Notes	1096

Section 18 The Rise of the Rational-Scientific World-View

89 The Ionians of Asia Minor Make Contact with the Civilizations of the Middle East and the Tribes of the Black Sea.....	1101
The Ionian Migration	1101
Culture Contact on a Remarkable Scale	1102
The Phoenicians	1102
The Mesopotamians and Anatolians	1104
Egypt	1105
Culture Contact with the Primitive Tribes of the Black Sea Region	1109
Notes	1111
90 The Decline of Greek Religion After Homer and Hesiod.....	1113
The Decline of Greek Religion After the Epic Cycle Is Written Down.....	1113
The Critique of Greek Religion by: Xenophanes, Heraclitus, Pythagoras, and Others	1114
Anomie, Existential Anxiety and the Search for Meaning	1119
Notes	1121
91 The Rise of the Rational-Scientific World View	1123
The Logographers: Genealogists, Geographers, and Anthropologists	1123
From Hecataeus to Herodotus.....	1124
The Quest for the Basic Matter of the Universe	1126
Thales of Miletos Finds the First School of Material Philosophy.....	1126
The Primary Substance	1129
Anaximenes.....	1131
Anaximander.....	1131
Heraclitus	1132
Zoroastrian Influence on Heraclitus.....	1134
The Ionians Flee to Italy: The Eleatic School: Parmenides, Empedokles, and Zeno.....	1136

	Pythagoras: Geometric Measures and Numerical Values as the Keys to the Material Nature of the Universe.....	1138
	Pythagoras: Numbers as the Basic Elements of the Universe ...	1139
	The Atomists: The Final Conception of the Material Universe and Its Basic Substance	1140
	Notes	1141
92	The Rise of the Social Sciences	1143
	The Logographers	1143
	Herodotus of Halicarnassus	1145
	Herodotus in Athens: The History of the Persian Wars Is Undertaken.....	1146
	History and the Social Sciences After Herodotus.....	1148
	Anthropology After Herodotus	1149
	Political Science After Herodotus.....	1150
	Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle Carry Political Science to a New Level of Rational-Scientific Sophistication.....	1152
	Socrates	1153
	Plato	1155
	Aristotle.....	1158
	Conclusions.....	1162
	Notes	1162
 Section 19 Women in Ancient Greece: Economic, Religious and Sexual Roles—But No Political Role
93	Doric Women	1167
	Doric Women	1167
	The Gortyn Law Code and the Status of Doric Women	1168
	Divorce and Remarriage	1168
	The Exposure of Babies.....	1168
	Heiresses and Property.....	1169
	Rape and Adultery.....	1169
	Spartan Women Manage the Entire Economy and Gain Enhanced Status	1170
	Spartan Women: The Breeding of Great Warriors	1172
	The Sexual Freedom of Spartan Women Linked with the Production of Warriors.....	1173
	Notes	1174
94	The Status of Ionian Women.....	1175
	The Status and Role of Ionian Women	1175
	The High Status of Women in the Asia Minor City-States	1175
	The Class Structure of Greece: Rich, Poor and Middle Class Women of the Oikos Farms.....	1177
	The Craftswomen and Shopkeepers of the Cities	1178
	Poor Women of the Cities	1181
	The Wealthy Women of the Trading Cities.....	1182
	The Athletic Training and Competitions of the Rich Ionic Ephebic Women.....	1184

	The Hetaera: Sexual and Intellectual Companions of the Upper Class Men	1186
	Neaira	1190
	Notes	1193
95	The Women Philosophers, Scientists, Doctors, and Mathematicians of the Greek World.....	1195
	Women Philosophers.....	1196
	Female Pythagoreans	1196
	Women Philosophers of Other Schools of Thought.....	1204
	Aspasia of Miletos	1206
	Women Poets.....	1208
	Sappho.....	1209
	Beyond Sappho: Other Women Poets	1214
	Notes	1215
96	Women and Religion.....	1217
	The Cult of the Earth Goddess.....	1217
	Women's Festivals.....	1219
	The New Eleusinian Mysteries: Dionysius Joins the Cult.....	1220
	Notes	1221
 Part IV The Norse Tribes: From Tribal Democracy and Aristocracy to City-State Democracy and the Kingly-Bureaucratic State
 Section 20 The Norse Tribes Before and During Contact with Roman Civilization
	The Norse or German Tribes in General Overview	1225
	No Official Priesthood	1226
	Low Level of Civilizational Diffusion	1227
	Women in the Norse Tribes.....	1228
	Warrior Violence	1229
	Poetry and History Writing.....	1231
	Notes	1232
97	Comparison Between the German Tribes and the Celtic Tribes	1235
	The Norse Tribes Before Contact with Rome.....	1235
	Differences Between the Keltoi and the Germanoi.....	1236
	The Celtic Aristocratic War Chiefs	1236
	The Aristocratic War Chiefs.....	1239
	Class Distinctions and the Servility of the Celtic Commoners	1239
	The Druid Priesthood.....	1240
	The Druidic Courts	1241
	The Druids as Exempt from Military Service.....	1241
	Human Sacrifices by the Druids	1242
	Druidic Doctrines.....	1243
	Women Druids	1244

	The High Status of Women Amongst the Celts as Compared to the Germans	1245
	Celtic Poets and Singers: Bards	1245
	Celtic Assemblies	1245
	Notes	1246
98	The German or Norse Tribes	1249
	The German or Norse Tribes.....	1249
	The Tribal Migrations	1249
	The Charismatic War Chiefs Were Not Yet Kings	1251
	Tribal Confederacies	1252
	The Charismatic Pan-Tribal War Chiefs Learn Military Organization and Tactics from the Romans	1252
	Armaments and Warfare	1252
	Magic Swords	1253
	War Chiefs and Military Aristocrats	1255
	Late Marriage and Warfare	1256
	The German Women Watch the Battles and Cheer on their Men.....	1257
	Notes	1258
99	The Economy of the Norse Tribes: Herding and Agriculture	1261
	Animal Herding	1261
	Agriculture Learned by Diffusion.....	1262
	Beer and Mead	1263
	The Myth of the Acquisition of Agriculture Amongst the Norse Tribes: The War between the Aesir and the Vanir Gods	1263
	Dwellings and Farmsteads: Similarities to Greek "Oikos" and Iroquois Longhouses	1265
	Notes	1266
100	The Religion of the Norse Tribes: No Official Priesthood	1269
	The God of War: Odin.....	1269
	Thor: Herculean God	1270
	Freyr and Freyja: Fertility Gods.....	1270
	Nersus—Mother Earth.....	1271
	Loki: The Trickster God—Betrayer of the Aesir Gods.....	1271
	Human Sacrifices	1272
	Women and Religion.....	1273
	No Official Priests: Military Nobles as Priestly Officiators—Similarity with Greece	1274
	Notes	1275
101	Marriage, Clans, and Clan Retribution	1277
	Strong Matrilineal Holdover	1278
	The Clans and Clan Retribution.....	1279
	Notes	1280

102	Language and Runes	1281
	Writing: The Runes.....	1281
	Notes.....	1282
103	Debt Slavery and War Captive Slavery	1283
	Notes.....	1284
104	Civilizational Influences	1285
	Contact with Roman Civilization.....	1285
	Roman Riches and Roman Warfare Alter the Norse Tribes in an Aristocratic and Kingly Direction.....	1287
	Notes.....	1288
105	Feasts, Celebrations, and Guest Friendship	1289
	Drinking to Drunkenness and Violence.....	1290
	Notes.....	1290
106	German or Norse Tribal Assemblies and Courts, and the Rise of the Monarchies	1291
	German or Norse Tribal Assemblies.....	1291
	Courts Held at the Place of Assembly.....	1293
	The Aristocracy and Kings Override the Popular Assemblies... ..	1294
	The King's Men and the King's Council of State.....	1295
	Notes.....	1296
107	The Political Structure of the Norse Tribes: The Assembly of Warriors with Aristocratic Domination...	1299
	The Assembly of Male Warriors: "The Thing", the "Althing," the "Ge-Moot," the "Folkmoot".....	1299
	Aristocratic Domination.....	1299
	The Courts.....	1300
	Notes.....	1301
108	A Closer Look at the Germanic, or Norse, Assemblies	1303
	Overview: Military Aristocrats Rather than Tribal Elders.....	1303
	The Warriors Assembly of the Norse Tribes.....	1304
	The Norse Assemblies in Scandinavia, North Germany and Holland, And the Anglo-Saxon Assemblies in England.....	1305
	The Thing and the Althing.....	1306
	The Law-Speaker.....	1306
	The Rituals of the Assembly Gatherings.....	1307
	The Rules of the "Thing" Assemblies.....	1308
	Military Aristocrats Dominate the "Things" (Assemblies).....	1308
	The Unanimity Principle.....	1309
	Clan Retribution Often Superseded the Assemblies' Decisions	1310
	The Courts and Trials at the Assemblies.....	1310
	Violence as Normative: The Overriding of Court Decisions....	1311
	Women and the Instigation of Violence.....	1312
	Duels or Man to Man Combat Overrides Customary Law.....	1313
	Notes.....	1314

109	War Chiefs and Military Aristocrats	1317
	Royal Clans.....	1317
	War Over Work	1319
	War Chiefs and Gift Giving	1320
	Notes	1320
110	Iceland: Nobles and Freemen Flee the Centralizing Power of the Norwegian King and Reestablish Tribal Democracy (with Aristocratic Domination)	1321
	The Centralization of the Kingship.....	1321
	Iceland and Its Assemblies.....	1322
	The Law Council and the Law Speaker	1323
	The Althing Ends After Two Weeks of Celebrations and Deliberations	1324
	Democratic and Aristocratic Balance in the Icelandic Assemblies	1324
	Debt-Slaves, or Bondmen, and War Captive Slaves	1326
	Notes	1327
111	The Anglo-Saxon-Jute Tribal Confederation and Its Moot and Folk-Moot	1329
	The Tribal Assemblies: The Moot and Folkmoot	1329
	Conquering Kings and Their Aristocratic Councils.....	1330
	The Representation of Rich Commoners in Parliament (1275).	1332
	Notes	1333
112	The Court Councils of the Centralizing Monarchies	1335
	Instability of the Early Monarchies.....	1335
	The King's Councils	1335
	Notes	1337
Section 21 The Culture and Social Structure of the Norse Tribes as Seen Through the Norse Myths
113	Creation of the World and the Gods	1341
	Introduction.....	1341
	Creation.....	1341
	The War of the Aesir and Vanir	1343
	The Character of the Gods	1344
	Odin.....	1344
	Thor	1346
	Loki	1347
	The Goddess Freyja.....	1348
	The Goddess Frigg.....	1349
	The Assemblies and Courts of the Gods.....	1349
	Notes	1350
114	The Class Structure of the Norse Tribes as Shown in “The Song of Rig”	1351
	Notes	1356

115	Women in the Myths and Sagas	1357
	Women in the Myths and Sagas.....	1357
	Women as Seers or “Volvas”.....	1357
	Women, Sex and Love.....	1358
	Women as “Instigators” of Clan Revenge and Wars.....	1360
	Clan Revenge and Sisters’ Involvement.....	1360
	Fate and a Warrior-Heroic Death.....	1360
	Notes.....	1361
116	Games and Individual Competitions	1363
	Games and Individual Competitions.....	1363
	Games and Individual Competitions as Illustrated in the Norse Myths.....	1364
	Thor vs. Hymir the Giant.....	1366
	Horse Racing.....	1366
	Insult Contests.....	1367
	Notes.....	1368
117	Magic and Runes	1369
	Magic and Runes.....	1369
	Ragnarok (Gotterdammerung) The End of the World... and the Gods.....	1370
	Notes.....	1371
118	The Volsung Myths	1373
	The Volsung Saga.....	1373
	The Birth of Sigurd.....	1378
	Sigurd and the Dragon Fafnir.....	1378
	Sigurd Gets a Magic Sword.....	1379
	The Death of the Dragon.....	1380
	The Magic Blood and Heart of the Dragon.....	1381
	Brynhild and Other Powerful Women.....	1381
	The Germanic Tribes Migrate South of the Rhine.....	1383
	Brynhild and Gudrun: A Love Triangle and Clan Vengeance....	1383
	The Dispute of the Queens.....	1384
	The Death of Sigurd.....	1384
	Conclusions.....	1386
	Notes.....	1387
119	Beowulf	1389
	Beowulf.....	1389
	Beowulf and His Men Fight the Dragon Grendel.....	1393
	Beowulf’s Death.....	1396
	Notes.....	1397
120	The Icelandic Sagas	1399
	Introduction.....	1399
	The Centralization of the Norwegian Kingships.....	1399
	Harald Fair Hair and the Centralization of the Norwegian Kingships (860–930 A.D.).....	1400

Egil's Saga	1401
King Harald Reaches Out to Kvedulf	1402
Skallagrim Is an Industrious Man	1404
Skallagrim and His Wife Have a Son Named Egil	1405
The Competitive Games.....	1405
The Feud Between the Norwegian Kings and Skallagrim Continues	1407
Thorolf and Egil in England: The Centralization of Monarchy in England	1408
Thorolf Is Mourned, Egil Rewarded	1410
Egil Marries His Brother's Wife, Asgard, and They Settle in Iceland.....	1410
The Assembly and the Court.....	1411
Iceland: Freedom from The Kings for Both Nobles and Free Farmers.....	1413
The Old Tribal Laws and Customs Re-established in Iceland.....	1413
The Assemblies and Courts of the Icelanders	1415
Saga of the Confederates	1417
Women of the Norse Tribes as Presented in the Saga of the People of Laxardal.....	1420
The Women of the Sagas.....	1420
Jorunn and the Slave Princess.....	1421
Thorgerd, Egil's Daughter.....	1422
Gudrun. The Greatest of the Women of the Icelandic Sagas	1422
Kjartan's Adventure with the King of Norway and His Sister	1424
Homosexuality Amongst the Norse Tribes The Saga of the People of Laxardal.....	1430
The Introduction of Christianity to Norway and Iceland.....	1431
Notes	1433

Section 22 Germanic Regions Not Under Kingly Control: Iceland, The Netherlands and Switzerland

121 The Netherlands	1439
Centralized Kingship Absent in the Marshy Lowlands	1439
The Tidal-Swept Lowlands of the Netherlands.....	1440
The "Thing" Assemblies Re-established with New Civilized Rules of Order	1442
The Dutch Nobility as Relatively Weak Compared to Most of Europe	1442
The Meetings of the "Water Boards" Empower the Farmers of the Lowlands.....	1443
New Meeting Rules Established to Prevent Fighting and Violence.....	1444
The Water Boards Are Expanded with the Invention of Geared Mills and Geared Dykes.....	1445

	The Unanimity Principle Gives Way to Majority Rule in the Water Boards	1445
	Notes	1447
122	The Norse Tribes in the High Mountain Valleys of Switzerland	1449
	The Norse Tribes in the High Mountain Valleys of Switzerland	1449
	The Hapsburg Dynasty Attempts to Unify Germany	1451
	The Hapsburgs in Switzerland	1451
	The Assemblies of the Swiss Mountain Valley Communities ...	1452
	The Freemen of the Mountain Valleys Against the Hapsburg Dynasty	1453
	Swiss Mercenaries Learn War Tactics and Gain New Weaponry from Italy and Germany	1454
	The Hapsburg Monarchy Sends Judicial and Tax Officials to the Swiss Mountains	1454
	History and Myth in the Founding of the Swiss Confederation.....	1455
	The Swiss Confederation Elects Its Own Officials and Establishes Its Own Code of Laws.....	1457
	The Legend of Swiss Military Heroism Begins with the Battle of Morgarten.....	1457
	The Recrudescence of Tribal Democracy on a New Legal Basis Amongst the Swiss Confederation	1459
	The Assembly of the People	1459
	Notes	1460
 Section 23 The Main Thrust of Norse Political Development: The Centralization of the Kingship
123	Roman Catholic Bishops and Priests Kings and Bishops.....	1465
	The King's "Court" Meetings Take on the Rituals of the Bishop's Meetings	1468
	The King and His Court Council Become the Sovereign Authority of the Kingdom.....	1469
	The King's Courtly Council Replaces the Tribal Assemblies	1470
	The French Kingly Court Becomes the Model for European Kingly Councils and Procedures.....	1470
	The Growth of Kingly Bureaucracy.....	1471
	Kingly Decrees vs. Law	1472
	Kingly Domination of the Courts of Justice	1472
	The "Nobility of the Robe": Government Bureaucrats of Non-noble Origin.....	1473
	"Manufactured" Charisma: The Divine King and Absolute Authority	1475
	Notes	1477

124	The Celtic Gauls and the Romans	1479
	The Socio-political Organization of the Celts of Gaul and Switzerland.....	1481
	Roman Administration in the Celtic and Iberian Provinces.....	1482
	Christianity Comes to the Roman Provinces	1483
	The Blending of the Cultures in the European Roman Provinces	1484
	Notes	1484
125	The Invasions of the Norse Tribes	1485
	The Invasions of the Norse Tribes	1485
	The Roman Colonies in Switzerland, Gaul, Iberia, and Britain Under German Military Domination.....	1487
	The German Invasions of Switzerland and Gaul	1487
	The Germanic Confederation of the Franks Invades and Conquers Gaul and Switzerland.....	1488
	The Frankish Monarchy of Clovis Disintegrate.....	1489
	The Holy Roman Empire.....	1491
	Charlemagne's Kingdom	1492
	The Breakdown of the Holy Roman Empire and the Rise of Separate Monarchies in Europe.....	1493
	Germany and Scandinavia	1494
	The Emperorship of the Holy Roman Empire Becomes Elective from Amongst the German Nobles	1494
	Notes	1496
Section 24 The Rise of Independent Trade-Capitalist City-States in Europe
126	The Importance of City-States in the Evolution of Democratic Political Processes	1501
	The Importance of City-States in the Evolution of Democratic Political Processes.....	1501
	The Rise of the Trade-Capitalist City-States in Europe.....	1502
	The Transitions from Tribal Democracy to City-State Democracy	1503
	Trade-Capitalism and the Rational Law Conceptions of Nature and Society.....	1503
	Notes	1505
127	The Transitions from Tribal Democracy to City-State Democracy in Post-Feudal Europe: Italy	1507
	The Transitions from Tribal Democracy to City-State Democracy in Post-Feudal Europe: Italy	1507
	The Italian City-States	1508
	The Cities Re-emerge with the Crusades.....	1508

	The Politics of the Italian City-States	1509
	The Rise of the Craft Guilds and the Democratic Movement in the Italian City-States	1510
	The Revival of the Greek and Roman Classics Engenders a New Culture in Italy: The Renaissance.....	1512
	The Rational-Scientific World View Revived in Italy	1513
	Rational Law Codes Revived in Italy	1515
	Notes	1516
128	The Germanic City States	1517
	The Germanic City States	1517
	The “Guilds” of the Merchants and Artisans	1517
	A Trade-Capitalist Economy Begins to Replace the Feudal-Agrarian Economy	1520
	Freedom from Serfdom and Feudal Obligations in the Trade-Capitalist City=States	1521
	City Government.....	1521
	The Rich Merchants Dominate City Government but the Artisans Gain Representation.....	1522
	The Craftsmen form Their Own Guilds.....	1522
	Copying Greek Procedures	1524
	Notes	1525
129	The Cities of the Low Countries	1527
	Christianity.....	1528
	Political Fragmentation in the Low Countries: The Early Dominance of Flanders	1528
	The Rise of the Trade-Capitalist City-States	1528
	The Woolen Trade and the Flemish City-States.....	1529
	The Market Cities Become Free Cities.....	1529
	The Rise of the Merchant Guilds or “Hanses”.....	1530
	The Trade Fairs of the Dutch City-States	1531
	“Money” Copied from the Italian Bankers	1531
	The Craft Guilds: Craft Production and Democratic Revolutions	1532
	Political Conflict: City-States VS Dukes and Kings: Craftsmen VS Merchants.....	1533
	The Revolt of the Craftsmen in the Low Countries	1533
	The Battle of the Golden Spurs: The Lowland City Militias Defeat the French Feudal Knights.....	1534
	Lack of Education Weakens the Craftsmen’s Political Potential	1535
	The Regional Representative Councils: Foreshadows of the Parliaments	1535
	Written Constitutions and the Regional Representative Councils	1536
	Class Conflict and Constitutional Representative Government in the Northern Provinces of the Lowlands.....	1537

	The Stadholder in Holland as a Pre-cursor to the Limited Monarchy	1537
	The Water Boards of the Countryside Join in with the Regional Representative Councils	1537
	Kingly Bureaucratic Administration vs City Constitutional Law	1538
	The Burgundian Kingly State in the Low Countries and Centralized Legal Control	1539
	Kingly Bureaucracy	1539
	Bailiffs and Sheriffs	1540
	The Centralization of the Kingly-Bureaucratic States	1540
	Notes	1541
130	The Trade-Capitalist City-States of Switzerland	1543
	From Tribal Democracy to City-State Democracy	1543
	Lucerne	1544
	Berne	1545
	Zurich	1546
	Geneva	1547
	Notes	1548
131	The German Trade-Capitalist City-States	1549
	Introduction	1549
	The German City-States: The Leagues of Allied River Ports and the Hanseatic League on the Baltic	1550
	German Settlements Along the Baltic Coast Grow into Trade-Capitalist City-States	1551
	Lubeck	1552
	The Order of the Teutonic Knights	1552
	The Baltic Trade-Capitalist City-States form a League for Economic and Military Alliance	1553
	Merchant Oligarchs	1554
	Contract Law and Constitutional Law	1554
	The Wandering Merchant Becomes the Resident City Father	1555
	The Women of the Wealthy Merchant Families	1556
	The Craftsmen: Their Guilds and Their Desire for City-State Democracy	1557
	Craft Guilds	1558
	The Patricians of the City Councils Dominate the Craft Guild	1558
	Revolt Beginning: Fifteenth Century	1558
	The Craft Guilds as the Basis for the City Militias	1559
	Class Conflict in the City-States	1559
	The City Universities and Legal-Rational-Scientific Education	1559
	Universities	1560
	Rational Law in the Trade-Capitalist Cities	1561

	The “Hansetag”: Representative Government of the League of Cities.....	1561
	Notes	1562
Section 25 The Reformation: The Spirit of Capitalism, Individualism and Democracy
132	The German Kings Against the Pope and the Italian-Dominated Catholic Church.....	1567
	The Reformation	1567
	The Kings Against the Pope.....	1567
	The Renaissance Italian City Merchants Take Control of the Roman Catholic Church: Corruption Amid Splendor.	1568
	Luther.....	1570
	Calvin.....	1572
	The Protestant Reformation and the Spirit of Democracy.....	1574
	Anabaptism: The Spirit of Communism	1574
	Notes	1575
Section 26 The Rise of National Representative Assemblies
133	The Centralizing Monarchies Become Dependent on Money from the City-States.....	1579
	The Centralizing Monarchies Become Dependent on Money from the City-States.....	1579
134	The Swiss Confederation.....	1581
	The Swiss Confederation	1581
	The Swiss Confederacy Lacked a Centralized Political Institution	1582
	Democracy and Oligarchy in Switzerland	1582
	The Reformation in Switzerland (as Described).....	1583
	Enter Zwingli	1583
	Zwingli Preaches in Zurich.....	1583
	Calvin in Geneva.....	1584
	Switzerland Remains a Loose Confederation of City-States and Mountain Agrarian Cantons	1585
	Notes	1586
135	The Parliament in the Netherlands: The “States General” and the King’s Council	1587
	The Parliament in the Netherlands: The “States General” and the King’s Council.....	1587
	First the French Dukes, Then the Austrian Kings Attempt to Unify and Control the Low Countries	1587
	The Hapsburg Century 1477–1588	1589
	Hapsburg Taxes in the Netherlands.....	1589
	The Reformation Adds a Theological Dimension to the Politico-economic Revolt.....	1589
	Smash the Icons	1590

Antwerp & Calvinism: The First Stock Exchange; and the Inquisition.....	1590
The Economic Squeeze of the Low Countries.....	1591
The Dutch Revolt.....	1591
William of Orange: “Stadholder”	1592
The “Ifs” of History	1594
Notes	1595

Section 27 Great Britain

136 The Romanized Celtic Colony of Britain.....	1599
The Romanized Celtic Colony of Britain	1599
Tribal Celtic Britain	1600
The Druidic Vacuum and the Rapid Conversion to Christianity	1601
Christianity in the Roman Empire	1601
Christianity in Britain	1601
“St. Patrick Saves Civilization”	1602
The Fall of Rome	1602
The Complete Decline of Roman Civilization in Britain	1603
Gildas Describes and Condemns the Romanized Britains.....	1603
Gildas’ History of Britain.....	1604
Independent Britain.....	1605
The Scots and Picts Attack.....	1606
The Coming of the Saxons.....	1606
The Victory of Badon-Hill	1607
The Five Tyrants.....	1607
The Norse Invasion of Britain.....	1608
The Complete Decline of Roman Culture	1609
Notes	1609
137 The Invasion of Britain by the Anglo-Saxon-Jute Confederation: Norse Tribal Democracy in England—The Moot and the Folkmoot.....	1611
The Invasion of Romanized Britain by the Anglo-Saxon-Jute Confederation Norse Tribal Democracy in England: The Moot and Folk Moot	1611
The Anglo-Saxon Aristocracy and the Centralization of the Kingship.....	1612
The Reintroduction of Christianity Helps the Kings in Their Unification of England	1613
The Gradual Centralization of the English Monarchy	1613
The Vikings Invade England from Norway and Denmark.....	1613
Alfred the Great	1614
Alfred Creates a Unified Law Code for England (Including the Danes).....	1614
The King’s Bureaucracy Expands.....	1615
The Witenagemot: The Royal Council of Nobles	1615
Notes	1615

138	The Second Danish Invasion and the Norman Invasion:
	King Canute and William the Conqueror	1617
	The Second Danish Invasion: King Canute	1617
	The Anglo-Saxon Nobles Begin to Resist the Monarchy	1618
	The Norman Conquest of England: "1066 and All That"	1618
	Norman Administration	1619
	The Magna Carta.....	1620
	The Kingly Bureaucratic State in England	1621
	Notes	1623
139	The Establishment of the Commercial Trade-Capitalist Economy in Britain: The Rise of the Merchant-Gentry	1625
	The Merchants of the Sheep Enclosure Movement
	Become "Gentlemen"	1626
	Gentlemanly Restraint in Parliamentary Procedure:
	Robert's Rules of Order	1627
	The Calvinist Theology of the "Denial of the Pleasures of the Flesh" as Consonant with Gentlemanly Restraint of the Passions.....	1627
	The Gentry Buy Titles and Claim Noble Status, and Adopt an Aristocratic Speech Pattern.....	1628
	The Rise of the English Cities	1629
	City Government.....	1630
	Notes	1630
140	The Rise of the English Parliament.....	1631
	The Countryside Merchant-Gentry, the City Banking and Business Merchants, and the Institutionalization of the British Parliament	1631
	The Power of Parliament Grows: "The Merciless Parliament" ..	1632
	The English City Merchants Expand Their Trade	1633
	Notes	1633
141	The Reformation in England and Scotland: Before Luther and Calvin.....	1635
	Pre-reformation Opposition to the Roman Catholic Church and its Hierarchy	1635
	Wycliffe and the Lollards.....	1636
	Notes	1636
142	The Beginnings of the English Civil War	1639
	Beginnings of the English Civil War.....	1639
	The Gentry Displace the Knights in the English Countryside: Tawney's Thesis	1640
	The Wealth and Influence of the English City-Merchants Expands with the Emergence of the Atlantic Trade.....	1641
	The Reformation in England: The Church of England for the Gentry: Puritanism for the Middle Classes	1642
	Tyndale Translates the Bible into English.....	1643
	Calvinism in England.....	1643

	Calvinism in Scotland	1643
	Calvinism, Individualism, and the Control of the “Passions”....	1644
	Notes	1645
143	The English Revolution: “Civil War;” “Puritan Revolt”	1647
	The Revolution by the Parliamentary Classes Against the Monarchy	1647
	Elizabeth: The Virgin Queen.....	1648
	James I Becomes King of Great Britain and Includes Scotland	1648
	Charles I Attempts to Override the Authority of the House of Commons	1649
	Cromwell: Member of the Lesser Gentry; Puritan Reformer Advocate of Democratic-Parliamentary Representation; Leader of the New Model Army	1649
	Oliver Cromwell	1650
	The Parliament Clashes with the King Over Taxes and Trade: “The Grand Remonstrance”	1651
	The English Knights Had Become “Useless Drones”	1651
	Cromwell and “The New Model Army”	1651
	The Democrats vs. the Oligarchs	1652
	Cromwell as Moderate: Against the Leveler Radicals, Against the Monarchists and Oligarchs	1653
	Cromwell as Dictator (Tyrant) of England: “The Lord Protector” of 1649–1653	1654
	Notes	1655
144	With Monarchy and Feudalism Defeated, the Struggle Between the Rich, the Poor, and the Middle Classes Takes Center Stage.....	1657
	With Monarchy and Feudalism Defeated, the Struggle Between the Rich, the Poor, and the Middle Classes Takes Center Stage.....	1657
	The Free Farmers and Craftsmen Demand Representation and Voting Rights.....	1658
	Cromwell as Tyrant.....	1658
	The Leveller Revolt: The Demand for Wealth Equality Along with Political Democracy.....	1659
	Cromwell Represses the Levellers	1660
	The Restoration of the Monarchy, But in Limited Form: The Glorious Revolution of 1688	1661
	The Dutch Model and Dutch Collusion.....	1662
	The Legally Limited Monarchy: Stability with Servility.....	1663
	Notes	1664
145	Rational-Legal Authority in England.....	1667
	Rational-Legal Authority in England.....	1667
	Henry II: “The Father of English Common Law”	1667
	Roman Law versus English Common Law.....	1668

	Edward I (1272–1307): The New Justinian	1668
	Kingly Decrees vs. Common Law	1669
	Notes	1670
146	The Rise of the Rational-Scientific Worldview in Britain	1671
	Empirical Observation, Experimentation, Mathematization.....	1671
	From Bacon to Newton	1672
	Locke and the British Empiricists School of Philosophy	1672
	Kant’s Critique of British Empiricism and the Establishment of German Idealism.....	1673
	Hobbes and the New Political Science	1673
	Locke and the Limitation of Power.....	1674
	Adam Smith and the New Science of Economics.....	1674
	Darwin and the Theory of Evolution	1676
	Social Darwinism.....	1677
	Notes	1678
 Section 28 The United States, France, Spain, and Germany
147	The United States: The English Revolution Continues; Frontier Property and the Emergence of a Majority Middle Class.....	1683
148	France: The Stalemate of Classes; Anarchic and Anomic Violence.....	1687
	The First Phase: Revolution Against Feudalism and the Kingly State.....	1688
	The Second Phase: Class Struggle Between the Rich, the Poor, and the Middle Class	1689
	Anarchy and Violence Lead to the Napoleonic Dictatorship.....	1689
	The French State and Statist Ideologies.....	1690
149	Germany: Feudalism/Kingship and the Warrior Cynosure Remain Culturally Dominant.....	1693
150	Spain: The Conquest of the Muslims and the New World Empires Empowers the Monarchy and Weakens the Commercial Classes.....	1695
151	Conclusions on the Rise of Commercial Capitalism, Parliamentary Democracy, and the Decline of Feudalism	1697
	Class Balance and Political Culture	1697
 Section 29 Industrial: Capitalism and Democracy
152	From Trade Capitalism to Industrial Capitalism	1701
	Industrial Capitalism.....	1701
	“The Captains of Industry:” Veblen’s Term	1702
	The Triumph of Industrial Capitalism.....	1704

153	The Class Structure of Industrial Capitalism	1705
	The Decline of the Commercial Gentry	1705
	The Emergence of the Small Business Middle Classes	1706
	The Heroic Era of the Artisans and the Yeoman Farmers (Free Farmers).....	1707
	The Decline of Artisan Production and the Emergence of the Small Business Middle Classes	1709
	C. Wright Mills' "Old" Middle Class	1711
	The Industrial-Capitalist Working Class.....	1712
	Section 30 Women's Liberation: From Horticultural Matri-Clans and the Fertility Goddess, to Modern Democratic Feminism
154	Women's Gender Roles: From Horticultural Tribes to Modern Technocratic "White Collar" Work	1721
	Biology Against Women	1721
	Horticulture and the Increase in Women's Power and Status.....	1721
	Genocidal Warfare and the Decline of Women's Power and Status.....	1722
	Glimmers of Women's Liberation in Golden Age and Hellenistic Greece	1723
	Christianity: Represses Women's Liberation, But Raises the Status of Women	1723
	The Reformation and Women	1724
	The Democracy Movement and Women's Rights.....	1725
	The Socialist Movement and the Liberation of Women	1726
	The Feminist Movement, the Milk Formula, the Pill, and White Collar Office Work	1727
	Women and White Collar Work	1728
	Women and Democracy	1728
	Epilogue	1729
	The Human Potential for Democracy and Despotism	1729
	Democracy and Despotism Pre-figured in Tribes	1729
	Tribal. Democracy, Wealth Oligarchy, and Tyranny Emerge in the Trade Capitalist City-States	1730
	Democracy, Oligarchy, and Tyranny in the Nation-States.....	1730
	The Divine Kingship and the Kingly Bureaucratic State.....	1731
	New Forms of High Tech Democracy and Despotism.....	1731
	There Is No End to History	1732
	Bibliography	1735