

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Sighard Neckel, Anna Katharina Schaffner and Greta Wagner
Part I Cultural-Historical Perspectives
2	Pre-Modern Exhaustion: On Melancholia and Acedia	27
	Anna Katharina Schaffner
3	Neurasthenia and Managerial Disease in Germany and America: Transnational Ties and National Characteristics in the Field of Exhaustion 1880–1960	51
	Patrick Kury
Part II Exhaustion Syndromes
4	Exhaustion Syndromes: Concepts and Definitions	77
	Johanna M. Doerr and Urs M. Nater
5	Burnout: A Short Socio-Cultural History	105
	Wilmar B. Schaufeli v

- 6 Burnout: From Work-Related Stress to a Cover-Up
Diagnosis 129
Linda V. Heinemann and Torsten Heinemann

Part III Exhaustion and Self-Realisation

- 7 What We Talk About When We Talk About Mental Health: Towards an Anthropology of Adversity in Individualistic Society 153
Alain Ehrenberg
- 8 Self-Realisation Through Work and Its Failure 173
Elin Thunman and Marcus Persson
- 9 Exhaustion and Euphoria: Self-Medication with Amphetamines 195
Greta Wagner

Part IV Exhaustion Discourses

- 10 Rechargeable Man in a Hamster Wheel World:
Contours of a Trendsetting Illness 217
Ulrich Bröckling
- 11 Literary Exhaustion 237
Michael Greaney

Part V Exhaustion and the Social

- 12 Social Agony and Agonising Social Constructions 259
Iain Wilkinson
- 13 Exhaustion as a Sign of the Present 283
Sighard Neckel and Greta Wagner

14 Conclusion	305
Sighard Neckel, Anna Katharina Schaffner and Greta Wagner
Index	311