

Contents

Introduction	ix
1. Achievement and value
Calvin Bedient Sylvia Plath, romantic . . .	3
J. D. McClatchy Short circuits and folding mirrors	19
Hugh Kenner Sincerity kills	33
David Shapiro Sylvia Plath: drama and melodrama	45
2. Process and influence
Richard Allen Blessing The shape of the psyche: vision and technique in the late poems of Sylvia Plath	57

J. D. O'Hara
Plath's comedy	74
Sister Bernetta Quinn
Medusan imagery in Sylvia Plath	97
Gary Lane
Influence and originality in Plath's poems	116
Barnett Guttenberg
Plath's cosmology and the house of Yeats	138
3. Personal and public contexts
Marjorie Perloff
Sylvia Plath's "Sivvy" poems: a portrait of the poet as daughter	155
Murray M. Schwartz and Christopher Bollas
The absence at the center: Sylvia Plath and suicide	179
Carole Ferrier
The beekeeper's apprentice	203
Jerome Mazzaro
Sylvia Plath and the cycles of history	218
Sylvia Plath: a selected bibliography of primary and secondary materials	241
Contributors	253
Index of Sylvia Plath's works	257
General index	261