

CONTENTS

Introduction: The Rule of Law in an Era of Multi-level Governance and Global Legal Pluralism Theresa Reinold and Monika Heupel	1
Part I Secondary Rules	27
The Primary Effects of Secondary Rules: Institutions and Multi-level Governance Charlotte Ku and Paul F. Diehl	29
The Rules of Interpretation as Secondary Rules: The Perspective of Domestic Courts Helmut Philipp Aust	59
The United Nations Security Council and the Politics of Secondary Rule-Making Theresa Reinold	95

Part II Accountability	121
Accountability Dynamics and the Emergence of an International Rule of Law for Detentions in Multilateral Peace Operations Gisela Hirschmann	123
Human Rights Protection in International Organizations in the Era of Multi-level Governance and Legal Pluralism Monika Heupel	149
Multi-level Governance and the Rule of International Human Rights Law: The Case of the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights Magdalena Bexell	181
Whitelisting and the Rule of Law: Legal Technologies and Governance in Contemporary Commercial Security Anna Leander	205
Index	237