

Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
1 Some Personal Background	7
2 Basic Facts about the Marketplace	13
3 Basics of Psychology	19
4 Psychoanalytic Theory	29
5 Learning Theory	37
6 The Response Sector	47
7 Behavioral Consequences	55
8 Using the Investor's Quotient	67
9 Further Details on Dealing with Trading Problems	93
10 Scheduling and Self-Discipline	101
11 Trading with The Market Trend— Why It's So Difficult to Do	109

12	Advisory Services and Their Roles	121
13	Is This You?	127
14	Positive Mental Attitude	133
15	The Broker-Client Relationship	141
16	Putting It All Together—Where You Fit In	151
17	Social Psychology and the Markets	159
18	Some Psychological Trading Rules	175
19	The Perceptual Factor	179
20	Subliminal Perception—Response without Awareness	193
21	Stress	209
22	Of Asked Questions	219
23	Sexual Aspects of the Market	243
24	Using Psychology To Maximize Investment Success	251
25	Writings of the Masters	255
	Bibliography	269
	Index	273