

Contents

Acknowledgments	page viii
1 Walter Benjamin and John Donne: Constellations of Past and Present	i
2 The Anniversaries as Baroque Allegory: Mourning, Idealization, and the Resistance to Unity	64
3 Donne's The Songs and Sonets : Living in a Fragmented World	94
4 Allegorical Objects and Metaphysical Conceits: Thinking about Donne's Tropes with Benjamin	137
5 The Metaphysics of Correspondence or a Fragmented World? Baroque Poetics in the Seventeenth Century	170
Conclusion	207
Bibliography	212
Index	226