

CONTENTS

Introduction: Infertility in History: Approaches, Contexts and Perspectives Tracey Loughran and Gayle Davis	1
Part I Defining the ‘Problem’: Perspectives on Infertility
Introduction: Defining the ‘Problem’: Perspectives on Infertility Tracey Loughran and Gayle Davis	29
Great Expectations: Infertility, Disability, and Possibility Sally Bishop Shigley	37
Whose Fault is it Anyway? Plant Infertility in Antiquity Laurence M.V. Totelin	57
From ‘Fructification’ to ‘Insemination’: Nomenclature and the Practice of Artificial Insemination Bridget Gurtler	77
Silences: Coping with Infertility in Nineteenth-Century Germany Christina Benninghaus	99
Oral History and Women’s Accounts of Infertility in Postwar England Angela Davis	123

Part II The Body Politic and the Infertile Body

- Introduction: The Body Politic and the Infertile Body 143
Tracey Loughran and Gayle Davis
- Sterility and Sovereignty: The Succession Crisis of the Late Valois Monarchy 151
Penny Roberts
- ‘If slenderness be the cause of unfruitfulness; you must nourish and fatten the body’: Thin Bodies and Infertility in Early Modern England 171
Sarah Toulalan
- Obstacles to the Establishment of a Policy to Combat Infertility in France, c. 1920–1950 199
Fabrice Cahen
- ‘Phantom Fathers’ and ‘Test-Tube Babies’: Debates on Marriage, Infertility, and Artificial Insemination in the British Media, c. 1957–60 221
Hayley Andrew
- ‘She Gets the Taunts and Bears the Blame’: Infertility in Contemporary India 241
Daniel J.R. Grey
- Part III Situating Infertility in Medicine
- Introduction: Situating Infertility in Medicine 265
Gayle Davis and Tracey Loughran
- Men’s Responses to Infertility in Late Medieval England 273
Catherine Rider
- The Ancient Medical Sources in the Chapters about Sterility of Rodrigo de Castro’s *De universa mulierum medicina 291
Cristina Santos Pinheiro

Female Impotence or Obstruction of the Womb? French Doctors Picturing Female Sterility in the 1820s	311
Sophie Vasset
'The Great Foe to the Reproduction of the Race': Diagnosing and Treating Infertility Caused by Venereal Diseases, 1880–1914	335
Anne Hanley
'A Tragedy as Old as History': Medical Responses to Infertility and Artificial Insemination by Donor in 1950s Britain	359
Gayle Davis
 Part IV Agency and Invisibility in Constructions of Infertility
Introduction: Agency and Invisibility in Constructions of Infertility	385
Tracey Loughran and Gayle Davis
The Psychology of Infertility in Reproductive Medicine and Healthcare, c. 1940s–2000s	393
Sofia Gameiro and Jacky Boivin
The Interplay Between Infertility and Adoption in Policy and Practice in Twentieth-Century Australia	415
Shurlee Swain
Conditions of Illusion: Agency, Feminism, and Cultural Representations of Infertility in Britain, c. 1960–80	431
Tracey Loughran
The Janus Face of Infertility in the Global North and South: Reviewing Feminist Contributions to the Debate	461
Sara MacBride-Stewart and Rachel Simon-Kumar
Being Paid to Produce Eggs and Sperm: Gender, Commodification, and the Bodily Experiences of Gamete Donors	491
Rene Almeling

Representations of Ageing and Infertility in the Twenty-First-Century British Press Virpi Ylännö	509
Part V Reproductive Technologies and Imagined Futures
Introduction: Reproductive Technologies and Imagined Futures Gayle Davis and Tracey Loughran	539
Americans and Assisted Reproduction: The Past as Prologue Margaret Marsh	545
In Vitro Fertilization, Infertility, and the ‘Right to a Child’ in 1970s and 1980s Britain Duncan Wilson	565
‘The Authority’s Anti-Breeding Campaign’: State-Imposed Infertility in British Reprodystopia Fran Bigman	587
Infertility, Ethics, and the Future: An Exploration Daniela Cutas	609
Contributor Biographies	625
Index	633