

Contents

Preface	page ix
Introduction	i
1 The 'comforts' of praise and blame	11
2 'Injuries' and 'remedies': the first two acts	28
3 'Pluming up the will': Iago's place in the play	64
4 Personal and professional identity: Othello in the first two acts	107
5 'Alacrity in hardness': Othello's crisis in Acts III and IV	136
6 The 'hollow hell' of vengeance: Othello's attempted remedies	181
7 Self-charity and self-abnegation: the play's women in love	214
8 The 'power to hurt' and 'be hurt', 'past all surgery': the final scene	264